ROVER RAMBLINGS
by Pallure
This is the second time this year the Imperial Rovers have put a write-up in the paper, and we hope the column will appear more frequently in the future. Cobwebs due to summer slowdown have now vanished and Rover activities roll on.

PAST
● Not very long ago a number of the Imperial Rovers attended a fall moot (literally a meeting, the word moot being akin to meet). The campsite was commonly known as Naisy River and we took full advantage of this name. We took a number of firsts in competitions before heading home.

● Due to the failure of the weatherman to cooperate, the den being constructed on the 8th Line has progressed slowly. One consolation is that the roof was erected.

● In the past years the Rovers' hands were kept out of Apple Day, but this year we were invited to step forward and participate gleefully in a successful event.

FUTURE
The Imperial Rovers are holding their annual Parents Night on the 6th of November when parents will be brought up to date on previous Rover activities.

Car Wash Proceeds Go To Hymn Book Repairs
A group of Knox Presbyterian Church Young People cleaned up with a car wash Saturday, October 23rd.

The eager group, about 20 strong, washed, rinsed and polished over 50 cars for $1.00 apiece and after expenses were able to fatten their treasury by $45. The garage at the corner of Main and James was their choice location.

An officer, Terry Lane, told The Herald that the project was such a success that it will be repeated some time in the future. This was the Knox Young People's first attempt at a car wash.

He said the cash will be used to put the church's hymn books and Bibles in good order.

The car wash started at 10 a.m. and finished at 4.

ENGAGEMENTS
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Yost, 73 Guelph Street, Georgetown, Ontario, are pleased to announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Eleanor to James Andrew Levy, son of Mrs. Allan Remington of Toronto. The marriage is to take place on December 3rd in St. John's United Church, Georgetown.

Kinnettes to Collect For March of Dimes
Georgetown Kinette Club has decided to undertake the March of Dimes canvass next year, probably in January.

Another project which the Kinettes discussed at their last meeting is a collection of used and broken toys. The elementary school principals have been asked to assist by soliciting the support of pupils in contributing discarded toys.

President Mona Milne was hostess for the meeting. Joining the ten Kinettes present were a number of other Kin wives as guests, Annabelle Wilson, Marie Wright, Jackie Kent, Donna Hutchinson, Trudy Lavoie, Jane Sunnucks, Joan Ditchfield and Carol Rutherford. They enjoyed a hot pot luck supper.

Three awards are being presented at the high school commencement, $100 to the most deserving student in Grade 13, $10 each for Grade 11 Physics and Grade 11 Commercial. Announcement was made that a welfare patient has been helped to the amount of $30.

Next meeting will be in Holy Cross church hall, when Kinmen national vice president Harold Taggart and his wife and Kinettes district convener Pat Melkie London, will attend. Kinettes from five other clubs have been invited.

STEWARTTOWN

Costume Prizes, Games Stewarttown Hallowe'en

Hallowe'en night was celebrated in the usual manner with Creatures of all description knocking on doors — and later attending the Annual Hallowe'en Party, sponsored by Evening Women's Institute, held in the Community Hall.

Mrs. Murray Thom, Mrs. Morris Cook and Mrs. Herb Reid were the Committees in charge, and we congratulate them, and thank them, along with their helpers, for the success of their undertaking.

Mr. Bob Webster, Mr. Murray Thom and Mr. Morris Cook had the difficult task of choosing the prize winners and the results were as follows:

Under six years — Heather Ann Clark, Norwen Atkinson, Mary Ellen McDonald, Carol Cook, Michelle Thom, Gregory Thom, Brian Bombolt, Chris Dawson, Benny Beckett, Peter Kobb and Michael Verano.

Under 13 years — Rosalind Atkinson, Paul Lawson, Ross Hunter, Doug Mead, Kevin Harris, Janet Walker, Debbie Cash, Alice and Phyllis Briggs and Steven Thom.

Senior couples — Robert McDonald, Mrs. Elda Briggs, Linda Barclay, Keith Gillette, Mrs. George Atkinson and Mrs. John Mileham.

Games and lunch completed the evening for the juniors, while the seniors stayed to enjoy a dance.

The evening was marred for the Institute President when she was leaving the hall her coat was plastered with egg, thrown from a passing car. We feel it would be a thoughtful act, if the young men who committed the act, would come forward, and pay the cleaning bill.

The Provincial Police also had the task of putting out a fire, which charred the mail boxes at the top of the South Hill.

Bishop Wilkinson was in charge of the Confirmation Service held in St. John's Church at 11 a.m. Rev. Canon Maxwell presented his candidates Catherine Beer and Janet Walker from St. John's Stewarttown and Paul Whaley from St. Stephens, Hornby.

The ladies of St. John's Guild are busy with last minute preparations for their annual bazaar, to be held in the Church basement on the usual date, the first Saturday in November, and are hoping to see their many friends again.

This date has become a tradition with the Guild ladies. For the past 16 years the Annual Bazaar has been held on this date. In the early years, in the Township Hall and since 1958 when the Church was raised and the present basement built, the ladies have taken advantage of the accommodation. It is a wonderful place to do your Christmas shopping and visit with your friends over a pleasant cup of tea but I must not ramble here, you can read all the details in the "Coming Events" column.

Describes Bell's Laser Beam in Speech to Kin
Guest speaker at this week's meeting of the Kinmen Club was Don Cook, from the public relations department of the Bell Telephone Co. The subject of his talk was the laser beam.

He gave an informative talk and the Kinmen and their guests were fascinated by the futuristic features of this scientific wonder.

The meeting at Stan's Restaurant was called "Boss night." Many Kin brought their employers or his representatives as guests to observe the operation of a meeting.

The program committee, headed by vice president Ken Milne arranged the evening, and it was another effort to make meetings interesting, entertaining and informative. Previous meetings have featured Michael Bird of Smith, Kline & French Pharmaceutical Co. who spoke about mental disease and its effects on a community, and Jim Guest of Molson's Brewery who showed movies of the 1965 Stanley Cup final.

President Bob Collett was chairman. Guests present were Deputy Governor Fred Price, Ray Ross, Royal Bank manager, Don Wingrove, Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce manager, Gord Grant and George Lespriere, Dept. of Transport; Ray Pride, Milton Motors; Alex Donaldson, Brunswick of Canada; Kurt Larsen and John Wilkins, Blue Giant Equipment; Jim Baird, Bonzac Steel; and Art Haas, Twin Pines Co.

LIMEHOUSE
Limehouse Friends Fete New Bride Doris Mitchell
A pleasant evening was spent at Limehouse Memorial hall on Friday when friends gathered to honour newlyweds James Evans and Doris Mitchell. Mrs. Jack Crichton called them forward and after Doris had opened the gifts she expressed her thanks. The ladies served lunch afterwards.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Patterson of Rockwood have returned from a two week motor trip to Houston, Texas where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Patterson.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Clow on the arrival of their fourth little girl, and to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hill on the arrival of a wee brother for Miriam.

Hallowe'en passed quietly in the village again this year. The young and not so young put on a gay display of costumes and little evidence, excepting soap, remained Sunday morning.

The Langridge family held a party at Waterfalls Playground where a good number of teenagers were entertained on Saturday evening.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Thompson and family from Kleinburg, to the village. They are living in the Brooks house recently vacated by the John Gilmores.

Mrs. E. Sanford attended the regional conference of Business and Professional Women at Prudhommes, Vineland, during the week-end.
