

Atkinson-Fishburn Vows In Noyal United Church

MR. AND MRS. PAUL ATKINSON

Noyal United Church was decorated with standards of ferns, white shasta mums and pink carnations for the October wedding of Sharon Lynn Fishburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fishburn, Noyal and Paul Arthur Atkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Atkinson, Brampton. Rev. Roy Irwin officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Ronald Laidlaw at the organ accompanied Joyce McLean who sang Because before the ceremony and O Perfect Love during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor length gown of silk tulle, the fitted bodice having a scoop neckline and long lily point sleeves. The skirt was trimmed with guipure lace and seed pearls and featured an inverted pleat which swept into a chapel train. A crystal crown held her waist length veil of pure silk illusion and she carried a cascade bouquet of American Beauty roses and stephanotis with white streamers and rose petals.

She was attended by her sisters, Mrs. Arthur Meadows, Caledonia as matron of honour, Miss Donna Fishburn, her sister-in-law Mrs. Ronald Fishburn and the groom's sister Miss Debbie Atkinson. They wore empire styled gowns of geranium pink velvet and pearl shoes, featuring a bow at the waist, overskirts of matching georgette, with matching bows holding shoulder length veils. They carried cascades of mums and pink carnations with white streamers. Miss Wendy Hoakstra was flower girl, her dress matching those of the other attendants. She carried a basket of matching flowers. Each attendant wore a gold pendant, the gift of the bride.

Douglas Fishburn—the bride's brother, was groomsman. Ronald and David Fishburn, also brothers of the bride and the groom's brother Brian Atkinson were ushers.

A reception was held in the church basement with the bride's mother receiving in a dress of peacock blue velvet, matching feathered hat, blue and pink accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother who wore a dress of was green crepe, brown and gold accessories and a corsage of gold sweetheart roses.

Entertain 4-H Ladies At Institute Meeting

The November Women's Institute meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J.M. Wickson with several 4-H girls as guests, on Tuesday, November 23. A pot luck dinner was held at noon when 35 set down to tables of delectable goodies.

A short business period was held, then Mrs. Arthur Ruddell spoke on her recent trip to the British Isles. She showed pictures and postcards of different places she had visited. A few games of euchre concluded a grand afternoon.

On a recent weekend Mrs. Wilfrid Bird, her daughter Mrs. William Speck and granddaughter Judy of Hornby, motored to St. Louis, Michigan to visit her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher. That same weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bailey motored to Hallerton to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bailey.

Congratulations to Miss Margaret Austin for successfully passing her B.N. examination at St. Joseph Hospital, Guelph, Ontario.

Maritime Motor Honeymoon After St. Stephen's Wedding

St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Hornby was decorated with standards of white gladiolus, chrysanthemums, aqua tinted carnations, and ferns for the double ring wedding ceremony of Wilma Alison Harrop and Barry Glen Little. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Harrop, Noyal, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Little of Markham.

Canon J. E. Maxwell officiated at the afternoon service. Mrs. Alan Rye accompanied Mr. John Wilson who sang The Wedding Hymn and the Wedding Prayer. Mr. Wilson is the bride's cousin.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a full length gown of fallie taffeta featuring a scoop neckline enhanced with re-embroidered lace and pearls, and lily point sleeves. Her gown had a detachable train with controlled skirt embellished with appliques of lace and pearls. Her wedding ring crown of crystal and pearls held her four tier illusion veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of tallamas roses, stephanotis, and trailing English ivy.

There were four bridal attendants — Miss Dorcas Harrop, sister of the bride, was maid of honour, Mrs. Don Hoebel, sister of the groom, Mrs. Fred Barnes, and Mrs. Wm.
