

TEENS AND LEOS WILL BLITZ FOR BLIND

JAM WALKER (standing left), Don Fendley, Linda Tyler and Judy Sheppard look on as Lions Lyn McLaren, Andy St. Laurent and Fred Zorge dissect the town in areas to be blitzed by high school students during a fund raising canvass for the blind, December 6th. Lions McLaren and St. Laurent are co-chairmen of the local canvass. Fred Zorge is club president. The teens looking on are part of a blitz army of about 130 high school-club members who will work under lion district captains. The Georgetown Lions have handled the Georgetown and district canvass for the Canadian National Institute for the Blind for some time. The canvass will take place between 7 and 9 p.m.
