The handicapped club of the Y.M.C.A. has already offered to operate a clothing depot, at which there would be a slight charge for clothing, to cover expenses of operation. They have also offered to act as an answering service for the Coast millie.

Two Toronto members of the Red Cross, Mr. W. R. McAdams, Assistant Commissioner of the Ontario Division of the Red Cross, and Miss E. Fleming, Director of Individual Services, attended the preliminary meeting which was chaired by Rev. John Elliott.

A further meeting December 16th in the Municipal Building will be attended by representatives of the I.O.D.E., the Red Cross, the Ministerial Association, the Ambulance Brigade, Veterans, Red Cross, Kinmen, Fire Department, Kinetics Association for the Mentally Retarded, the Lions, Rotary and Y.M.C.A.

Mr. Trevor Pierce, Executive Director of the Ontario Welfare Council will be present in an advisory capacity.

Committee Will Prevent Social Service Overlap

The possibility of establishing a Community Social Services Society, it would not be carried out until a committee is formed, but by this time, the committee, comprising all representatives of all local organizations recently.

In addition to the prevention of overlapping services, the committee hopes to set up a

VENDLEY - In loving memory of our dear mother, Elizabeth Vendley, who passed away, November 30th, 1964. "We mourn for her in silence. No eyes can see us weep. But many a silent tear is shed. While other are asleep." Always remembered by Wes, Vi, and grandchildren.

PURKINS - In loving memory of a dear husband Harry Purkins who passed away Nov. 30, 1960. When evening shades are falling, And I sit in quiet alone To my heart there comes a longing If he only could come home. Friends may think I have forgotten When at times they see me smile. But they little know the heart-ache My smiles hide all the while - Ever remembered by his loving wife, Blanche.
