

Deer Shot Is Part of Hunter's Risk

Robert Harvey, 34, of North Halton, was shot in the leg by a shot gun while hunting deer in this part of the county.

The court was told the accused administered first aid to his companion, applying a tourniquet to the wounded leg. He then summoned help since Harvey was unable to walk.

Drops in Excavation Car Has $1800 Damage

The investigation officer reported the amount of the property damage at $1800 to the Graham car, and $200 to the McWilliam car.

At the Turntable

A 1964 Chevrolet which collided with a tractor and dropped into an excavation was damaged to the extent of $1800 Wednesday November 30 according to a police estimate.
