MEMORIALS
GIBSON — In loving memory of a dear husband and father Thomas D. who passed away December 27th, 1964. Many a day his name is spoken And many an hour as is in our thoughts. A link in our family chain is broken He is gone from our home, But not our hearts.
 — Lovingly remembered by his wife and family.

HARLOW — In loving memory of a dear mother, Annie Harlow, who passed away December 31st, 1962. Father, in thy gracious keeping Do we leave our beloved one sleeping.
 — Lovingly remembered by the family.

HARLOW — In loving memory of my dear wife Annie who passed away December 31, 1962. My lips cannot tell how I miss her, My heart cannot tell what to say; God only knows how I miss her In a home that is lonesome today.
 — Always remembered by her husband Herbert.

HERDMAN — In loving memory of our beloved mother and Nan, Mary Ann Herdman who passed away January 2, 1965. Oft times our thoughts will turn to you And tears unbidden flow, How many times we cry inside No one will ever know, There is no word or action But holds a memory dear, There is no day we do not think And wish that you were here.
 — Lovingly remembered by daughter Mary, Mrs. Mary Anne, Joe.

MEMORIALS
STUFKO — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Mark John, who passed away December 27th, 1962. When the evening shades are falling And we sit in the quiet alone, To our hearts comes a longing, If he only could come home, Friends may think we have forgotten When at times they see us smile, But they little know the heartache Our smiles hide all the while.
 — Sadly missed and fondly remembered by wife, Alice, and son, John.

WALKER — In loving memory of a dear father, Samuel Walker, who died December 28, 1967. You dearly loved Ever to be forgotten — Always remembered, Hazel and Ted.

WALKER — In loving memory of a dear husband Samuel Walker who passed away December 27, 1967. And while he lies in peaceful sleep, His memory I will always keep.
 — Sadly missed by his wife

Christmas Concerts Feature Season at Norval Churches

Once again the busy season of Christmas and the New Year is upon us with all its happy activities. Part of the joy of this busy time of the year is greeting friends and neighbours so it gives us pleasure to extend to our readers holiday greetings. May the Spirit of Christmas bring peace and much happiness in the New Year.

We wish to thank all those who have helped to make the Norval news interesting by giving us a call now and then with a news item. Our village may be small but it is impossible to know all the interesting activities that occur without your help so please let us know about your parties, visits, trips etc. We appreciate your help. (Ed. Note: The Norval correspondent is Mrs. Ed McLean, 877-6330.)

St. Paul's Anglican Church Sunday School celebrated the birthday of Jesus with a birthday party held in the Parish Hall on Sunday, December 19th. The children sang carols accompanied by Susan Finnamore, Stephanie Corin sang Silent Night. Cindy Russell favoured with a guitar solo and a group of girls sang O Little Town of Bethlehem, Kim Mahaffy, Gwen Mansely, Janice Finnamore, Cindy Russell and Tony Treahy. An accordion solo was played by Dorothy Russell.

Rev. Harold Lewis presented gifts for good Sunday School attendance from September to Christmas.

The Guild of St. Paul's An-

Parents present were served tea and cake.

The Sundry School of Union Presbyterian Church held a Christmas supper in the basement of the Church on Saturday evening, December 18th with about 100 sitting down to supper.

While the tables were being cleared the children sang carols in the church accompanied by Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. R. Duncanson told them a Christmas story. They returned to the basement for a very good variety program put on by the pupils of songs, recitations, etc. Rev. W. Duncanson was chairman for the program and presented 18 awards for good attendance with 7 receiving perfect attendance certificates. Mr. Owens McDonald is superintendent.

The evening ended with Santa Claus presenting the children with gifts from the tree.

Carollers Raise $72.10 for UNICEF

A group of young people in the Sunbeam Heights area thought of other less fortunate children on Christmas Eve.

Banding together to sing carols, they toured the neighbourhood and collected a total of $72.10 for their efforts.

They visited The Herald Office Tuesday to ask the editor to forward this to UNICEF, where it will be put to good use. The carollers were Lorraine and Gayle Hutchison, Debbie and Kathy MacKenzie, Janice and Ken Asselbine, Leslie Owen and June Warwick.

Over the past 18 years the average hourly manufacturing wage in Canada has risen by 700 per cent, from $1.05 in 1950 to $2.10 in 1965.
