BELIEVE IT OR NOT IT STAYED OUT

Schenk Skips Rink To Win In Rice-McHarg Bonspiel

The new draws got under way this past week. A full complement of teams are listed for the Monday draw. Tuesday draws are also filled with 16 teams. The Thursday night games have the limit of teams, but some teams are short a player.

Since the new draws started, a number of former players from other years have signed up and are playing again. About a dozen new players were present this past week and it is hoped that they will become interested in the game and become regular curlers.

The team headed by Bill Schenk took the Rice and McHarg trophy at the club this past Saturday. Assisting Bill was H. Sanderson as vice. Jim Rowe as second and three men held down the position of lead. They were L. MacKinnon for the first game, Bob Costley and Joe Louth for the last game. The team amassed a total of 32 points during the day. Second team in the 9 a.m. draw was skipped by Ken Jackson while a past president of the curling third team was headed by S. Young. In the late draw the top team was skipped by H. Chappel with Don Curry, Bob Harris and Harold Crawford. They won a total of 29½ points. Second prize winners were J. Crichton with MacKinnon's team winning third spot.

Jim Costigan was in charge of the draw. Ben McHarg was present and made the presentation of the trophy to the winning team. In the lucky draw of the day, Chas. Harris won top prize with Jim Costigan winning the consolation prize.

Have you been listening to the Brampton radio this past week? The local club have had spot advertising on daily, telling of the advantages of the local club. A total of 40 spots were contracted for. Hope it will make the name of the club familiar to new people and they will be favourably impressed, so that they will eventually become members of the North Halton club.

Large numbers of the Junior set and some seniors were sure making use of the club hills to try out their Christmas presents on Sunday. Even noticed a slip shot from the blue line at 3:40, caught the visiting goalie napping. Hay, from Fowler at 6:00 notched his second goal.

Mrs. Chappel Skips Rink To Win Noble Trophy

Jean Chappel's rink won the Noble Trophy on Sunday, January 9th, when players from the Ladies' Section of the North Halton Curling Club competed in a two eight-end game bonspiel. Playing vice for Mrs. Chappel was June Freeman, with Edna Malcolm throwing second rocks, and Maxine Linton, lead.

In the 1 p.m. draw, 1st prizes went to Bunny Moore's team of Madeline Collier, Mabel Licata and Ev Patterson, with a these teams amassed 21 points. Second prizes in the early draw were won by skip Betty Reeve, with Helen Archer, Alice Savage and Glad Robinson. Both these teams amassed 21 points for two games, but Bunny Moore's team took the lead on the game scores. Prairie Bessey's team of Claire Miller, Ann Reid and Marg Tost won the prizes for highest points scored in one game.

First prizes in the three o'clock draw were won by Jean Chappel and her trophy winning rink. Rita Pelletier skipped the second prize winning team with an 18-point two game total. Assisting her were Mary Rand vice, Joan Costigan second, and Marion Hogan lead. Edna Murray, skip, with Florida McNally vice, Mabel Sanderson second, and Tools Burns lead, were the one-game winners in the late draw.

Donor of the day's trophy, Irwin Noble, presented Jean Chappel's team with the large trophy, and each member of the team with individual trophies. Irene Curry presented the prize-winning rinks with their prizes. Those placing first in each draw won "Corning-ware" casseroles, second place winners received brooches, and third place prizes were "handbag organizers."

Tankard, Provincial Teams Are Chosen at North Halton

The first phase of the Tuesday Humber Highland Club in Toronto competitive curling was completed last week, in order to determine which team should represent the ladies of North Halton in the Dominion Provincial competitions, the winner to have the choice of which competition she wishes to enter.

Dorothy Young's team of Bessie Broomhead, Jan MacKinnon and Phyl Monckton won the highest number of points on the games played. They will compete in the Provincial Play-downs which started at the

Bantams Visit Detroit Win Two Games There

Georgetown Bantams were week end visitors to Detroit where they engaged The Teamsters 747-Local in a two game series at the "Gordie Howe Hockeyland Arena."

In the Saturday evening game, somewhat draggy affair, the local boys won by a 6-4 count. In the first stanza Detroit opened the scoring with Georgetown coming back with two markers. The Pontiacs again came back for two more when Nash scored from Fowler and Fendley; and Fowler with help from Nash and Fendley.

Detroit tied the score with two early third period goals but locals came back with two more as Wiles from Inglis scored, and Fowler from Bill Neil completed the scoring. In the second game with Detroit on Sunday afternoon the local Pontiacs emerged 5-2 victors in a rather strong game. There was no scoring in the first period but each team chalked up a marker in the second. For Georgetown it was Fowler from Fendley and Nash.

Detroit went ahead in the third period but the Pontiacs came back with a flurry of four unanswered goals to sew it up. Scoring were Hay from Wiles and Chapman; Hay from Fowler and Chapman; Nash from Fowler and Fendley; and finally Wiles with Nash and McNally assisting.

The team was billeted at a hotel in downtown Detroit.

Two More Victories For League Leading Pontiacs

Georgetown Bantam Pontiacs on January 4th hosted Preston in a regular scheduled game easily disposing of the visitors by an 8-1 victory. Wiles and Fogal combined at 1:45 to open the scoring; Fowler from Nash and Chapman at 6:40; and Hay from Fogal at 8:20 completed the period.

In the second period the locals coasted and only two counters were added, Inglis, on a slap shot from the blue line at 3:40, caught the visiting goalie napping. Hay, from Fowler at 6:00 notched his second goal.

Four tallies came in the third Preston lit the board with their lone counter at 2:45 as Stewart of the visitors got his first goal for this season. Georgetown came back with three. Fowler from Wiles and Inglis scored at 4:25 and Hay got his hat trick at 11:02 aided by Chapman and Heppes. Fendley with help from Fogal and Bill Neil closed out the scoring at 12:35.

In this game the defense shared in the spot light as they handed those long passes to the forwards and elicited on the assist. The two goalies Bob Neil and John Blair as usual played steadily but their mates gave them pretty solid protection.

On Friday January 7th in Oakville the Georgetown Pontiacs proved to the Oakville Bantams that their previous victory was no fluke as the locals again defeated the Oaks by a 4-1 score.

Employing an offensive defense the Pontiacs controlled the play most of the game. No scoring was done in the first period. Georgetown potted three in the second and never looked back even when playing short handed.

Nash, from Fogal at 5:35 of the second, put Georgetown on the score board; Ray Inglis notched two unassisted. Oakville got their lone goal in this period when Chisholm from Perras elicited at 4:30. Inglis got his hat trick at 12:29 of the third period.

With this victory in hand Pontiacs put themselves in a most favourable spot to finish in first place at the end of the schedule.

Grace, Tuck Become Year's First Golfers

Local golfers, cheated out of the good playing weather last summer, had the last laugh on the weatherman by sneaking in a couple of rounds at both Georgetown Golf and Country Club RR 4 and North Halton Golf and Country Club, Maple Ave. W., while old man winter had his back turned last week.

Dick Grace, 50 Queen Street, and Bill Tuck, 115 Main Street N., took advantage of the mild spell for an hour's golfing on the North Halton layout Friday afternoon, and at Georgetown Golf an unidentified foursome and a threesome ignored the calendar to get in some off season hooking and slicing.

This past weekend it was a different scene at both clubs as over the rolling white blankets of new snow, on toboggans and hundred of youngsters scooted skis.
