From 1950 to 1963 total public welfare spending in Canada rose from $1 billion to $4 billion. - Quick Canadian Facts

Many good works have been reported at the January meeting of Countess of Strathmore Chapter, IODE when twenty members were guests at the home of Mrs. John T. Armstrong.

A donation of ten dollars was made to the Canadian National Institute for the Blind. One hundred IODE calendars had been ordered, most of these Christmas gifts included a soccer ball for an adopted Newfoundland school, basket of fruit to local blind residents, and $25 is to be spent on books for the Newfoundland school library.

A $150 bursary has been given to further Georgetown student's education. A dollar a member will be sent to the IODE centennial fund to complete payment of the chapter's commitment.

Discarded white shirts, made into hospital gowns, were brought to the meeting, with others to be brought in February.

High School Parents, Staff Meet Tonight, Again Wednesday

Tonight marks the first of two parents nites at Georgetown District High School which will enable parents of the GDHS students to meet and talk to members of the teaching staff.

Two evenings have been set aside for the parents nites because of the large response anticipated. The second one will be held Wednesday January 19, 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Those whose surname initials are between A and L will visit the classrooms tonight, and the rest next week.

Parents have been asked to be at the high school between 7:30 and 9:30 to make appointments with the teachers' secretaries for interviews. Parents have been requested to keep their discussion with the teachers to five minutes.

There will be guides wearing orange crepe armbands in all sections of the building to aid coffee will be served in the cafeteria throughout the evenings.

The high school's principal Donald F. Turner, vice-principal A. M. Baxter, and Guidance Department Head Alan C. Prouse will be circulating in the halls and available to discuss any matter with the parents.
