

MORE POLICE
SO MORE CASES

An unusually large number of court cases, 92, was on the docket for Georgetown court in Milton yesterday.

The cases are the result of charges laid under the criminal code of Canada, the highway traffic act, liquor control act, and town by-laws.

Georgetown Police Department's Chief Constable Roy Haley said the unusually large number of cases has been the result of a larger police force enabling better policing job.

He said Georgetown court dockets for the next few weeks will be equally heavy.

COLLECT $1265
FOR THE BLIND

Georgetown residents were extra-generous this year in contributions to the Canadian National Institute for the Blind.

The Lions Club, which has undertaken a canvass blitz for several years, collected a total of $1260.46 this year, an increase of more than $200 over the 1964 campaign.

The campaign was organized by Lions Lyn McLaren and Andy St. Laurent with assistance in canvassing by a number of Grade 9 and 10 high school students.

Chooses Wrong Place
Saturday Night Bath

A Ewing St. cat will be more careful in future about washing her paws on a cold winter night.

When her owner returned home about 1:00 a.m. Sunday morning, he was greeted with loud yowls and found that kitty was literally stuck to the sidewalk. She had washed her paw, placed it on the concrete and was stuck fast.

A cup of warm water poured over the paw did the trick in rescuing her from the predicament.

AMBULANCE CALLS

During the week of January 9 to 15 the Georgetown Volunteer Ambulance Service was called on four times.

Sunday, January 9, 2:30 a.m. — A transportation run from Georgetown to Georgetown hospital, taken by Gerard Wilcox and Ken McCosh.

Sunday January 9, 9:30 a.m. — A normal transportation run from Georgetown to Georgetown hospital, taken by Poul Poulsen and Jim Bennett.

Friday, January 14, 11:10 a.m. — A normal transportation run from Georgetown to Georgetown hospital, taken by Trevor Williams and Doug Townsend.

Friday, January 14, 1:40 p.m. — An emergency run from R.R. 2 Georgetown to Georgetown hospital, taken by Trevor Williams and Doug Townsend.
