

Plays Accordion On Tiny Talent TV Show

Bruce Gregg, 11-year-old son of Mrs. J. Gregg, 1 Osolph St. will be appearing on television 4-week from Sunday.

Bruce has taped a performance on Tiny Talent Time which will be broadcast at 4:30 p.m. the afternoon of Sunday, Feb. 3 over the Hamilton channel.

He will be demonstrating his ability as an accordion player. A student at the Canadian Academy of Music, he has written his grade 6 music exams.

Bruce is the second member of his Grade 6 class at Chapel St. public school to become a television performer. Lois Elliott has sung twice on this popular show.

Alberta Farmer Was Last Member Of 9th-Line Family

George H. McClure, 76, died suddenly in hospital at Edmonton, Alberta, on December 22.

He was the last surviving member of the family of the late John McClure and Mary Jane Laughlin. He was born at Lot 27, 9th Line, Georgetown, and received his education at Norval Station and Glen Williams. Locally he learned the tin-smithing trade. In 1911 he went west and farmed in the Opaton district of Alberta.

He was predeceased by his wife, Ada Archibald, six years ago. He leaves two sons, Herbert of Edmonton and Orrville of Opaton, Alta., two daughters, Mrs. Edna Cowden, Vernon, B.C. and Mrs. Olive Sabine, Britannia Beach, B.C., and nine grandchildren. He was a brother-in-law of Mrs. W. A. McClure of town.

Funeral service took place on December 28th in Opaton United Church with interment in Camrose Cemetery.

Elect Officers Review Year at Glen United

Last Tuesday night, the congregation of the United Church held its annual meeting in the Fellowship room, with Mr. Tom Forgrave, student minister as chairman. Mrs. C. Barth was secretary for the meeting. The Session report was given by the Clerk, Mr. Bert Dixon. In his report he felt that Rev. B. Irwin kept up a very faithful work in, and for the good of the church up to the time of his sudden and very unfortunate illness.

He had performed two marriages, baptized seven children and conducted three burial services. The auditors' report was given by Mrs. Ross Giles. Financial reports were given by Alex Hunsdale for the church; W. McGowan for the Missionary and Maintenance Fund; Mrs. C. Barth for the Sunday School; Mrs. Paul Wagstaffe for the United Church Women; Mrs. W. McGowan for flowers for the sick; Mr. W. McGowan the Memorial Fund; Mrs. J. Hunter for the Choir.

The elders elected were John Hunter, W. McGowan, Herb Hancock, N. Felker, B. Dixon, Stewards, Paul Wagstaffe, Alex Hunsdale, John Hunter, W. McGowan and Alf Spence and UCW President, Mrs. A. Hunsdale.

Mrs. Una Wheeler was elected Envelope Steward replacing Mrs. J. Wagstaffe who has held it for many years. Discussion followed on the purchasing of a new organ. It was announced that Anniversary will be the first Sunday in May and the special speaker will be Rev. Ralph Waugh of Guelph who was a student here in the middle 40s. Mr. Forgrave told the members that the supervisor for this charge is Rev. Allan Craig of Huttonville since Mr. Irwin's illness. The meeting closed with benediction by Mr. Forgrave. Ladies served lunch and a social half hour was spent.

Most folks spent Sunday digging out after Saturday night's heavy snowfall. Church services were cancelled. Fortunately it wasn't a week day when everyone had to get going early.

Miss Kate Hill passed away in Hutton Centennial Manor last week and was buried in the cemetery here. She lived for many years with her brother, Jim, and his wife here.

On Saturday afternoon the Cab pack did some skating at the creek at Charles Crawford's on the 8th line. Trying for their skater's badge were John Girvan, Jeffrey Crawford, Chris Milne, Doug and Paul Thompson. They were under the supervision of Akela Reynolds and Cae Giles. Doug and Paul's mother treated all to hot chocolates afterwards.

Mrs. H. Wheeler flew down to Oaklyn, New Jersey, for the weekend to visit Bill Wheeler there.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Corner left Wednesday for a holiday in Florida.
