Says Highway Narrowing Hazardous for Motorists

After surprising council, Monday night by thanking them for having a culvert in front of his house opened, Clarence Collins, 257 Guelph Street, went on to suggest that the abrupt narrowing of the highway west of Sinclair Avenue was a hazard for motorists.

He stated that the sudden change from four lanes to two lanes placed the motorist in danger, when he was left with nowhere to go.

Mr. Collins claimed the "Road Narrows" sign was more frequently lying on the ground than standing up. "Perhaps a more suitable sign could be found," he concluded.

The mayor promised the matter would be discussed at the Road Committee meeting.

LIMEHOUSE

Six tables of euchre were in play at Limehouse Memorial hall Monday evening. Winners at the W.L.-sponsored party were Mrs. R. L. Davidson and Oliver Moffat, second going to Mrs. Robert McEnery and Sidney Kirkpatrick. Lunch was served afterwards.

Miss Sandra Kavanagh of St. John, N.B. spent last week with her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Vance Langille and Miss Brenda Langille.

We extend sympathy to the family of Mrs. Angus McDonald who died last Thursday at home, having been in hospital some twelve days previously.

We regret that Mrs. Robert Lane is hospitalized for check-ups following a fall at home recently. We hope that she may feel well soon.
