Roger Smith, Lesley Buresh Model Parliament Leaders

A week of campaigning for the annual Model Parliament reached its height in Georgetown High School with the election of 12 Dominion candidates and four National members. Elected to act as Georgetown's delegates to the United Nations Association-sponsored event this year at T.L. Kennedy High School in Cooksville were:

National party: Roger Smith (Party Chairman), Tony McAuley, Andy Spiece and Alex Goudekotting.
Dominion Party: Lesley Buresh (Party Chairman), Alfred Madgett, Magdalene Buresh, Patti Wright, Rev. Gosling, Gord Layton.

The campaign swung into action with a pitch for votes made by the party Chairman to the whole school, and included class-room debates, and presentation of the platforms by delegates from both Parties. The National Party's stand on the federation one was that Canada should be a bi-national state with a semi-autonomous Quebec. The Dominion party's stand was that certain changes should be made in the BNA act and fut-

Vancover New Home For Ingles Family

We shall all miss Mr. and Mrs. Al Ingles, Terry and Cathy from the village. They have sold their home and moved to Vancouver, B.C. At the same time we welcome the new owners, Mr. and Mrs. George Rose and family, who have moved from Port Credit.

Congratulations to Noreen Noble, who passed her recent Grade 1 theory examinations with honours. She is a pupil of Miss Donna Landsborough of Acton.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Patterson, Miss Joy Patterson and Mr. Wm. Henry were guests at the Patterson-Bennett wedding reception at Eleanor's restaurant, Guelph on Saturday evening.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. W. Mitchell in the death of her half-brother Mr. Burrell Merritt last week.

The annual congregational meeting of Limehouse Presbyterian Church, was held the evening of Jan. 28th. All 1965 officers were reinstalled. Rev. F. N. Young was chairman and

Bad Weather, Trade Skating For Games

Severe cold weather reduced a Baptist Church Club skating party to an indoor games night at First Baptist Church Friday night - and cut anticipated attendance by about half.

The night, arranged by the club executive consisted of games of crokinole, scrabble and password followed by lunch and devotional period.

The club is made up of couples from First Baptist and St. Paul's Baptist Churches.

Dies From Heart Attack While Snow Shovelling

William Clarence Bullard, 64, died suddenly at his home at Kilbride on Sunday, January 23. He succumbed to a heart attack while shovelling snow following the heavy storm that day.

A Kilbride resident most of his life, he had retired last summer from his position with the Firestone firm in Hamilton. He was active in Masonic lodge work at Campbellville and was an elder in Kilbride United Church.

His wife, the former Elma Frank is a sister of Mrs. James F. Evans, 5 Valleyview Rd. He also leaves a son Kenneth of Sudbury.

Funeral service took place last Wednesday at the McKersie Funeral Home, Milton and interment was in Campbellville Cemetery.
