

Illustrate Church Reports With Slides of Activities

First Baptist Church's various groups and organizations and their activities were illustrated with coloured slides when the church's annual meeting Wednesday evening, January 26th.

The meeting and election of church officers followed a dinner prepared and served by First Baptist Sunshine Society.

The 1966 officers are: deacons, Elmer Carter, Allan Robson, Walter Townsend, Watson Winfield, Roy Buttrely; deaconesses, Mrs. Pearl Whan, Miss Norma Thompson, Mrs. Margaret Thompson, Mrs. Allan Robson and Mrs. Kenneth McCosh. The clerk is Mrs. Mary Livingston, financial secretary Mrs. Roy Buttrely, assistant clerk, Mrs. June Greig and trustees Donald Hancock, Emory Thompson, Graham Porter, Jack Thompson and George Greig. Members of the finance board are Kenneth McCosh, Roy Buttrely, Allan Robson, and Ernest Ellison. The Sunday School superintendent is Elmer Carter.

Rev. Lloyd Whan conducted the meeting and led a devotional period prior to the reports and business.

The minutes were given by Mrs. M. Livingstone, and the nominating committee's report by Mrs. M. Porter.

The treasurer's report by Kenneth McCosh showed the church in an improved financial position over last year, although mission-giving dropped slightly below previous year's level.

The church's organ fund loan was considerably decreased during 1965 and the same rate of reduction will see it eliminated this year.

their meetings used to emphasize the reports of their activities were shown by Mr. Whan, and slides of the Couples Club week-end at Camp Hermosa on Lake Huron were shown by Donald Hancock.

The budget for 1966 was presented by Donald Hancock and included an increase of $200 in the minister's salary.

It was noted that some men of First Baptist Church will be among those of the District Brotherhood assisting Rev. William Baxter of St. Paul's Baptist Church during the morning services.

Sympathy was expressed to the family of a faithful church member and worker Mrs. Violet Cook. Mrs. Cook, a life member of the church's Mission Circle, a member of the Women's Society and for many years a member of the choir, died at her home two days before the annual meeting.
