

New Racing Commission Chairman Enjoys His Farm Life in the Georgetown Hills

Brigadier F.C. Wallace who was recently appointed chairman of the Ontario Racing Commission, doesn't spend as much time on his 300 acre farm as he would like. Mr. Wallace says there are as many as 75 riders out on a Sat. The hunt takes them to Orangeville and Brampton areas frequently.

The 68 year old veteran of both world wars, a keystone in Canada's glass industry, travels through the week and returns to his farm home here only on weekends.

When he does manage to get home, Brig. Wallace is likely to take up his favorite pastime — fox hunting. He is a proficient rider and has won countless jump contests.

STABLES HORSES

He owns three thoroughbred horses and keeps the horse of Colonel Allan Burton, of the Robert Simpson's Co.

The two men are joint masters of the Eglington Hunt Club. Mr. Wallace says there are as many as 75 riders out on a Sat. The hunt takes them to Orangeville and Brampton areas frequently.

Mr. Wallace is a mild, soft-spoken man. His manner and speech are free of unbecoming frills sometimes associated with a leading industrialist.

His business positions are many: He is chairman of Duplate Canada Ltd., a firm making safety glass with plants in Oakville, Oshawa, Windsor, Montreal and St. Therese, Quebec.

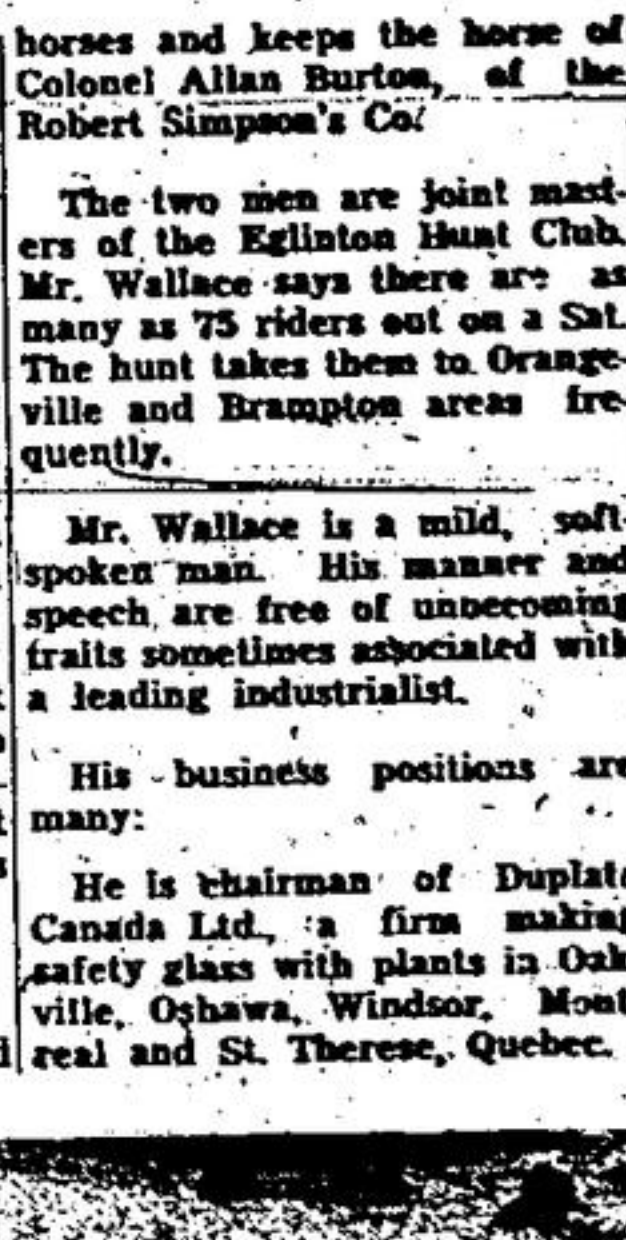

He is vice-president of Fibreglas Canada Limited, which also has numerous offices across Canada.

He is chairman of Canadian Pittsburgh Industries, which makes flat glass for building construction. He is also chairman of two Georgetown companies — Smith's Stone and Flex Canada Limited.

Mr. Wallace is a director of Canadian Westinghouse and the government operated Atomic Energy of Canada Limited. He also is associated with many other companies.

Brigadier Wallace was commander of the anti-aircraft forces at Dunkirk in the last war.

The Brigadier calls his home here "Rolling Hills Farm."

Yellow Labrador, 'Duke', is the Brigadier's constant farm companion.

He is vice-president of Fibreglas Canada Limited, which also has numerous offices across Canada.

Pontiacs Overwhelm Preston In First Two Playoff Games

Georgetown Bantam Pontiacs started their OMHA playdowns with an impressive 9-1 victory over Preston here at Georgetown on Tuesday, Feb. 3. The action was ignited by the opposition who opened the scoring at 1:30 of the first period as the Pontiacs came out in a 'so what' attitude.

Fowler started the avalanche at 3:35 as he notched his first of four. Hay from Fowler at 4:55 and Fowler from Hay at 12:20 and Hay from Fowler at 13:53 to close out the first period.

Fowler scored on an assist from Wiles at 2:45 to open the second period. Nash at 6:35 combined with Fendley and Foster to score. Fowler from Hay and Heppes got his fourth goal of the night at 9:30. Hay and Fendley combined at 10:35 and McNally from Wiles at 14:25 completed the rout.

On Feb. 3rd at Preston the local Pontiacs snowed Preston under with a 10-2 score. It was strictly no contest from the first whistle as the locals controlled the play and scored almost at will. The first stanza produced two markers when McNally and Bill Neil combined at 5:45, and Fendley from Nash at 7:15.

At just 30 seconds of the second period Fendley from Nash and Foster scored, and at the two minute mark, on a pass from Nash, Fendley got his 3rd. Inglis, using his wing man as a decoy, put one in at 9:30. Heppes and Chapman combined at 10:30 to net the prettiest goal of the game.

Then a slight lapse by the locals allowed Preston to get their first at 14:20. Still continuing the pause from second stanza, the locals allowed Preston to breeze in and get their

North Halton GOLF and COUNTRY CLUB

Curling ice should be in much better shape shortly. The club directors have purchased a burner. It will melt the ice across the whole sheet of ice and thus level the playing surface. Of course, it will take time for the ice maker to get used for this new machine before they get it working satisfactorily. When the ice is melted, the dirt that is buried in the ice will float to the surface, thus cleaner ice will result. Understand that the cost of this machine is over $700. Quite a chunk of cash to lay out, but if it helps level off ice three and four, it will be worth every cent expended.

The ladies' section have purchased a new measuring machine, to settle debates of which stone is the nearer to the tee. This will be a useful addition to the equipment that is used to make the game more enjoyable.

Did you get the letter sent out by the club secretary dated January 31? It included an interesting booklet "Members' Handbook." If you did not receive one please contact Nick Carter for one, as it will become a handy reference of conduct and other rules of the club.

The final week of this draw curling is almost over. The top eight teams will play off for the cups. Monday night curlers will play their first game of the playoffs Monday night. Tuesday curlers play on Tuesday as Thursday night curlers start their playoff run-down on Thursday night. Second games will be announced later.

The next draw will see the club championship at the end of the playdowns. Last Saturday saw a full quota of teams in an invitational mixed bonspiel. This coming Saturday will see a men's invitational taking place. Bet club manager Nick Carter hopes the prizes arrive a little sooner next week. They didn't come in until well on in the afternoon last Saturday.

Due to the eagle eye of Bud Gibbs, my wandering broom has returned. He spotted the missing wisp of straw in the utility room at the bottom of the stairs. Thanks, Bud. I would sure hate to lose that broom, as it was a last year's model, and just getting used to my peculiarities.

Final Period Rally Fails to Win Game

Georgetown outscored Bronte 2 to 1 in the final period but still lost a 5-4 decision in an International Hockey League game in Streetsville Tuesday.

Eddie Hoffman, Knight and Van Wyck netted Georgetown's goals.

Bronte's Templeton was the game's bad man. He was assessed a game misconduct on top of a ten minute misconduct and two high sticking minors.

McGibbon Hotel could manage just one goal in the final period as they lost to Toronto Township 7-1 in a battle between the bottom and top teams.

Jasper (2), Youngman (2), Burton, Butwell and Pipes denied the McGibbon Hotel twice.

Bill Wilson prevented the locals from being shut out with his goal with less than three minutes to play.
