Teen Hurt in Collision At Hwy-Albert Corner
 Gordon Bruce Harlow, 18, of 19 Union St., was treated in hospital by Dr. J. P. Panabaker for minor injuries after the car he was driving collided with one driven by Cedric Cross, 34 Albert St., Tuesday night, February 22nd.

The accident happened at the corner of Guelph and Albert St. as Cross was making a left turn off Guelph onto Albert. Harlow was eastbound when they hit.

The injured driver was taken to hospital in a Georgetown police cruiser.

Georgetown P.C. William Oakley investigated the accident and recorded the property damage as $1,600 - $800 to each car.

It happened at 9:40 p.m. Approximately $300 property damage was done when a car mounted a Queen Street curb and struck a parked car Saturday night.

Police said John Thornton, Alton, was northbound on Queen St. when he lost control of the vehicle. It mounted the east curb and hit a 1965 Volkswagen owned by Catherine Lazure, 21 Queen St., which was parked on the boulevard.

Each vehicle took $150 damage according to Georgetown P.C. Harry Liberty who handled the investigation.

Was Esqueing Farmer Agar Ostrander Dies
 An RR 4, Georgetown resident since 1913, William Agar Ostrander, 66, died suddenly in Georgetown Hospital on Feb. 23.

A native of Stratford, he was the son of the late William and Olive Jane Clarridge Ostrander. He moved with his family to lot 17 concession 11 Esqueing Township, in 1913, and following his marriage in 1927 to Edith May Johnston, he continued farming there.

He raised Jersey cattle, and was fond of gardening and flowers. He attended Union Presbyterian Church.

Predeceased by his wife in 1962, he leaves four children, William and Victor of RR 4, Mrs. John Campbell (Isabel) of Brampton and Mrs. Arthur Rice (Donna) of Georgetown; eight grandchildren and one brother H.E. (Tim) Ostrander of Georgetown.

He was predeceased by sisters Stella and Elsie and a brother Victor.

Rev. Robert Duncanson conducted the funeral service on Friday at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home and interment was in Greenwood Cemetery. Pallbearers were Clarence Ostrander, Huttonville, Tom Berry, Brampton, Bert Bost, Alma, Leslie Young, Bud Bishop and Gerry Klatt.

ASHGROVE
4-H Girls Learn To Write Thanks Notes
 On February 26th, the Ashgrove Helpful Hostesses held their second meeting at the home of Mrs. Percy Cox. There were thirteen girls present at this meeting. The meeting was opened with the 4-H Pledge.

The following topics were discussed: Entertaining a Guest, Being a Guest, Packing a Weekend Bag, General Rules for Packing and The Thank-You Note.

Mrs. Cox demonstrated how a weekend suitcase should be packed.

The group work at this meeting was for each girl to write a Thank-You Note.

The meeting was closed with The Queen, after which lunch was served.

"Stacking" pensions will mean both cuts in take home pay and higher prices.
