A course for collision involving the two keener rivals in the OHA Central Junior C League was the result of a 6-2 win by Georgetown Raiders over Orangeville Hornets in Georgetown Memorial Arena on Sunday afternoon.

The victory gave Raiders a 3-1 strangle hold in games in their best of 7 league quarter finals.

It also set Raiders up as most likely to tangle with Milton Merchants in the series A semi-final. Milton took their set with Bradford Chiefs in four games straight. Flames of the Georgetown - Milton rivalry which have been burning for years were fanned this season by a tug-of-war between Merchants and Raiders for the league pennant which was finally copied by Raiders.

A Milton-Georgetown semi-final would also be money makers at both arenas since the chemical reaction when Raiders and Merchants are mixed on ice is something that appeals to most hockey fans in both towns.

Raiders had it all their way in the first period Sunday. Bob Allen from Don Norton and Wayne Riddell scored first. Norton stayed one of the hottest scorers of the series with his goal from Bob Allen and Presswood two minutes later, and then Terry Lane rifled the

"And in case there is any doubt," he said, "it should be made very clear that lacrosse is indeed Canada's national game, and not by any accident."

Eight members of the GDHS team and their coach Lyn McLaren attended the tourney in Bell High School. Schools from all over the province attended.

The attendance, while down from last year due to the travelling distance, did not affect the calibre of the competitors, which was higher than ever before. Jim Scarlett, Tom Connelly, George and Al Ferguson, Jim and Bill Hall, Doug Hiltz and Barry Smith were the team members from Georgetown who attended. Bill Hall spearheaded the team by taking third place in the 186 lb. class.
