Shows Irish Map with Names of Ancestors

In the absence of Mrs. J. McEnery the program convener, Mrs. F.J. Shortill and Mrs. M. Sinclair showed maps of Ireland which had names of some of the older settlers of Ballinafah, such as McEnery and Shortills.
Everyone enjoyed the singing of Irish songs, including a solo by Mrs. F.J. Shortill, 'Danny Boy.' A letter was read about the new little Korean girl being sponsored by the Institute. Mrs. Frank Smith gave the Motif, "Friendship is the only Cement that will hold the World Together." The meeting closed with the national anthem and the W. I. Grace, followed by a lovely lunch served by Mrs. Robinson. Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Roy Swindelhurst.

Represented in this herd are a selection from some of the leading Canadian and American herds, which formed the nucleus for Mr. Todd's herd. You will note from the breeding of the cattle that he selected only the better cattle to build this herd; and so you may take advantage of his endeavours to bring these bloodlines into your breeding program.

The majority of this herd, numbering some forty five, are milking age females, and have calving dates to suit any buyer as they are freshening throughout the year. You will find good sound udders bred to work and wear and win.
Several young calves and yearlings, some bred heifers also selling. For further information, contact the sales manager, or write in for a copy of the sale catalogue. Credit arrangements available on 48 hour note.
