W.I. Members Ready Competition Baking
The March meeting of the Hornby Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. William MacPherson on Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Clifford Wrigglesworth welcomed the ladies to the meeting.
The correspondence included a letter from the Extension Branch of the Department of Agriculture re the short course on 'Needlecraft', excerpts from the bulletin from the Retarded Children's School and a few members volunteered to assist with the canvass of the Cancer Society.
Members were asked to bring a cherry pie, yeast rolls or a fancy cushion to the next meeting at which time they will be judged and the winners will make the same for the District Annual competition.
It was decided that a quilt, cushion, and towels be made to help the work of the Institute.
The program was turned over to the convener of Public Relations, Mrs. Lew Sampson who read greetings from Sadie Hart, president of Lorne Women's Institute in Ireland, thanking Mrs. Sampson and the ladies for the welcome given Mrs. Grange, a member of their Institute, who visited Hornby. A report of their February meeting was given. Mrs. Ford read a poem 'A call for help' and Mrs. Gordon Robinson replied to 'Your call for help'. Mrs. H. O'Connor read an article, 'Looking back and looking forward', and Mrs. Lew Sampson read, 'Visitors for Tea'.
Lunch was served by Mrs. Clifford Wrigglesworth and Mrs. Stanley May.
