

FARMERS' SPIEL

CURLING HIGHLIGHT — MAINLY BECAUSE OF THE MEAT

PRIZES LIKE THESE HAMS held by early draw winners M. Sinclair of Erin and his rink, make the annual Farmers' Bonspiel at the North Halton Curling Club one of the season's better attended affairs. Sixteen rinks from Georgetown, Acton, Erin, Milton, Guelph, Dixie, and Orangeville took part in the recent competition. It was arranged by Dick Licata, Ern Curry and Bill Robinson. In the photo are skip Morris Sinclair, vice Bill Barden, Gordon Byers, and Ross Huxley.

THIS NORTH HALTON RINK OF Jack Crichton, skip, Joe Chapman, Ted Fenning and Pat Chamberlain shared in the big prizes with a second place in the early draw.

Joan Costigan won the trophy.
There were eight teams competing in the event. The above team were two game winners with high points.

The other two game winner was the team of Fred Hancock, Alice Minter, Bob MacArthur, and E. Blackwell. They were low point scorers.

High one-game winners of the day was the team of Graham Farnell, Jean Chappel, Harry Sanderson and Helen Archer.

Low one game winners and fourth prize was the team of Bill Schenk, R. Pelletier, A. Blackwell and Phyl Monckton.

Jim Costigan was in charge of the draw and presented the prizes and cup.

All teams are into the playoffs this week and will likely declare winners by the weekend. Then will come the group playoffs for the club championship. The winners of each draw will compete for the shield.

Industrial league conducted their regular schedule on Friday evening. A large majority of the curlers arrived for the game. Technically these are known and wonderful get-ups were revealed. And everybody enjoyed themselves. They started their playoffs on Sunday.

With the election of officers last night and the presentation and supper meeting scheduled for April 16th, the curling season is fast drawing to a close.

A number of comments were heard on the condition of the ice at the club last Saturday. It is at its best since last fall when the ice was first installed.

Here is the standing in the various draws. The first eight teams are in the playoffs:

Score 17 - Raiders Make Mincemeat Of New Hamburg

Georgetown Raider captain Doug Selby and Paul Robinson scored 5 goals each as the OHA Central Junior C League pennant winners hammered New Hamburg Hahns 17-6 in the opening game of their best of 7 league final here Wednesday March 30.

A crowd of 650, about a third of that which witnessed the final game in the Million-Georgetown semi-final, looked on as Raiders and Hahns tied 3-all in the first period which held no indications of the slaughter to come.

Georgetown pulled into a 9-3 in the middle frame and then pumped 8 more pucks behind a new Hahn goalie while giving up 3 goals in the third period.

Bob Allen and Ron Lane each scored twice, and Rod Presswood, Don Norton and Bill Dwyer fired singles for the winners.

Bob Ruthig paced the New Hamburgs with three goals. Farrell notched two and Mark one.

Referees Merle Glassford and Bev Hamilton nicked Georgetown to 13 penalties and New Hamburg for 12.

Raiders reached the final by ousting Orangeville Hornets, and Milton Merchants.

New Hamburg eliminated Simcoe Blades and Elmira.

Elect Mrs. Minter as Lady Curlers President

The new president of the Ladies' Curling Section of North Halton for the 1966 season is Alice Minter, who was elected to the post at the annual business meeting last Wednesday night at the club.

Also on the new Executive are: past president, Jean Ruddle; 1st vice president, Irene Curry; 2nd vice president, Anne Reid; secretary, Ginny Mackenzie; treasurer, Myrtle Scott; games convener, Madeline Howat; bonspiel convener, Irene Curry; social convener, Mabel Sanderson; house convener, Helen Archer; Business Girls' Representative, Bunny Moore, Brampton; press Mary Bieth; special curling convener, Inez Crichton; junior Tankard convener, Norah Williams. Nominations for the slate of officers were in charge of Shirley Crichton and her committee.

Ginny Mackenzie will represent the Club at the S.O.L.C.A. meeting in May.

President Jean Ruddle chaired the meeting which heard reports from all officers and conveners for 1965, and also approved some changes in the Club by-laws.

Nomination Committee for the coming year will be Alice Savage, Marion Burns and Floria McNally.

Irene Curry moved a vote of thanks to Jean Ruddle for her work as president for the past two years.

The Ladies' and Men's Sections of the Curling Club will combine to hold a dinner and dance in mid-April, when the curling trophies and prizes will be presented.

Hahns Are Redshirts Pawns In Second Win Of Finals

Georgetown Raiders moved to within two victories of the OHA Central League title in New Hamburg Friday night with a 4-1 win over the New Hamburg Hahns.

Raiders played minus three of their top players, Mike Cummins, Terry Lane and Ron Lane who were at the Georgetown District High School formal.

Georgetown won the opening game of the series here two days earlier 17-6.

A large New Hamburg crowd saw Don Norton score the first Raider goal in a first period in which Georgetown held their hosts under constant pressure.

Dave McMenemy, a Georgetown midget elevated for the playoffs, netted the second goal to make it 2-0 at the end of the middle period.

Rod Presswood added the third Georgetown goal before the Hahns finally got on the score board. Bob Ruthig was the only sniper able to beat Georgetown goalie Tom Ayres.

Bob Allen tipped in Georgetown's fourth in the late stages to cap the scoring.

In a second period spearing bout between Orest Romashyn and Wayne Riddall the Hahns and Wayne Riddall Raider goal in a first period in which Georgetown held their hosts under constant pressure.

Georgetown Evens Score International Playoffs

Georgetown evens their International Hockey League final series with Bronte Wednesday night, downing the opposition 4-3 in Streetsville Arena.

Bronte won the first game 7-4. Eadie scored twice, and Doyle Palmer, Brands and Templeton scored the Bronte goals.

and Campbell once each for the winners. Bennett had three assists, Campbell two and Shea, James and Gilson one apiece.

Palmer, Brands and Templeton scored the Bronte goals.

Gather Penalties Like Burrs Juniors Fumble 3rd Game

A magnetism for penalties that old bugaboo that tripped Georgetown's Junior C Raiders up on four occasions through the regular schedule — has returned to haunt them in the league finals.

Sunday afternoon, referees Bill Brethour and Frank Slota chased 16 Raiders to the penalty bench compared to just 4 New Hamburg Hahns, and the heavy assessment was just too much of an anchor for the pennant winners as Hahns captured a 2-7 over-time decision.

It was New Hamburg's first win in three games. Georgetown won the first two games of the best of 7 series 17-6, and 4-1.

New Hamburg scored four of their goals while Raiders were two men short. Georgetown had men off the ice when the Hahns scored their tying and winning goals in overtime.

The first period ended in a 1-1 all deadlock, the second 5-4 for Georgetown and the third 6-6. Raiders scored first in the ten minute overtime, but New Hamburg scored three times in the last four minutes to snatch away the important win.

Nine hundred and forty fans saw three Georgetown goals by Paul Robinson, and singles by Mike Cummins, Bob Allen, Bill Dwyer and Phil Lavelle.

Ruthig scored four to lead the winners. Other Hahn goals came from Mark 2, Culbert, Kropf and Romashyna.

Novices In Tournament

A Georgetown Novice hockey team will be competing for B Division honours when the Brampton Lions stage their 7th annual International Novice Hockey Week tournament next week. Fifty teams will take part in the tourney.
