NO BARS FOR POLICE GUESTS AT THIS AFFAIR
A large crowd were guests of the police department Friday night — but, unlike most of the department's guests, they were not confined by iron bars.
The police association's annual hall was held in the Legion auditorium with the Flower-town Five supplying the dance music.
During an intermission, the Canadian Suburbanaires, a quartet from the Georgetown Chapter of Barbershoppers, entertained. They were introduced by Mayor Joseph Gibbons.
In fact the affair almost turned into a barbershop night. The door prize, a salad serving set, was won by Dan Rudy — a local barber.
This was the 7th time that the local constabulary have held their dance.

THREE CHURCH CHOIRS SING EASTER CANTATA
Choirs of three Georgetown churches combined to present Maunder's cantata "Penitence, Pardon and Peace" on Good Friday in St. John's United Church.
Kenneth R. Harrison, directed the cantata in which choir members from St. Andrew's United and First Baptist joined the St. John singers.
Soloists included Jean Hancock, Bill Brush, Marjorie Bailey, Isobel Dobson, Ruth Forgrave, Ruth Evans, Douglas Peck, Brenda McNeil.
