

GEORGETOWN HERALD

The Home Newspaper for Georgetown and District

Printing - Publishing

The Georgetown Herald is owned by the Georgetown and District Printing and Publishing Co. since 1867 offering the best in fine printing and news coverage.

Ads That Pay

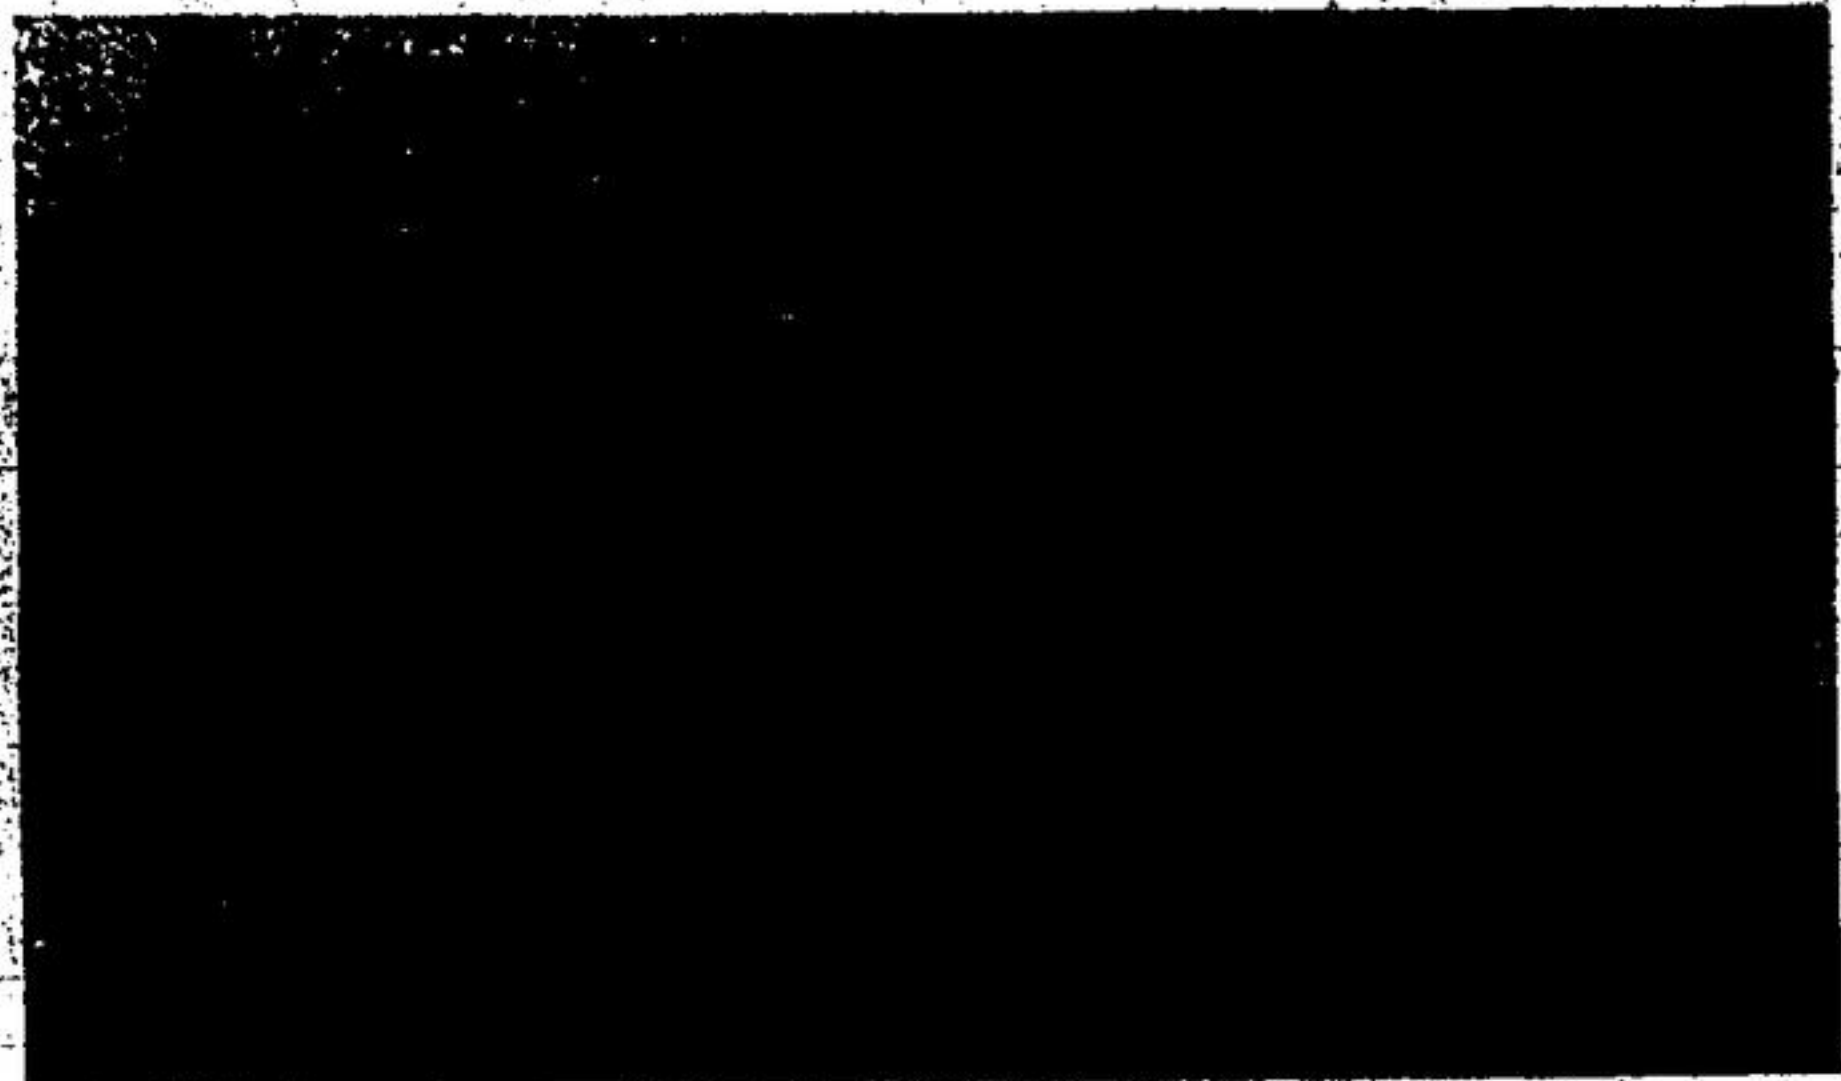

You can place an ad in the Herald's Classified pages by phoning 577-2281. Buying or selling. The Herald is where you will find the results you want.

Authorized as Second Class Mail, Post Office Dept., Ottawa and for payment of postage in cash

Georgetown, Ontario, Thursday, May 12th, 1966

$3.00 per year; Single Copy Price: Ten Cents

CADET CORPS 676 INSPECTED LAST NIGHT

A Georgetown High School Cadet Corps 676 platoon stands at ease during a training session in preparation for the Annual Inspection which was held in the park last night (Wednesday).

Members of the state drill team were a colourful part of the inspection. The girls in bright red uniforms were inspected by Lt. D. Steif, who is in the corps in the armory.

Mercury Vapour Lights Brighten Town Highway

Things look brighter along Guelph Street recently, due to the efforts of Georgetown Hydro Commission. From Main St. to Maple Avenue all the incandescent lights have been replaced with 400 watt mercury vapour lights.

Discuss Smoking Area For School Students

A smoking area for students was an idea that occupied discussion at a meeting of the Georgetown District High School Board Monday night - but not for long.

VOTERS TO CHOOSE ELECTION SYSTEM

Mrs. Jean Dwyer to Join Staff at School for Deaf

One of the resignations accepted by the Georgetown Public School Board at a meeting in Harrison Public School, Wednesday, May 4, was that of Mrs. Jean Dwyer who taught the first Kindergarten class here in 1947.

1966 School Tax Bite Increases by $50,000

Georgetown's public school and high school boards have struck their 1966 budgets. The public school board has asked the town to supply $334,000.00 with the balance of their $722,000 to come from grants.

Introduce Kindergarten in Esquesing a Year From Now

While Kindergarten is in the offing for children in the area served by Esquesing School Area, it will be a year before classes get underway.

CENTENNIAL PROJECT GOVERNORS

SEVEN MEMBER BOARD TO ADMINSTRATE CEDARVALE
Chris Walker, Mrs. Doris Sutherland, Cr. William Smith, Mrs. Jean Rundle, Rev. Ian Fleming, and Allan Brewer, survey the property which is their new responsibility during a meeting last week. The seventh member is Cr. Wheldon Emmerson.

Councillor Ern Hyde's Motion for Plebiscite Carries By 8 to 1 Vote

Georgetown ratepayers will be asked at the December elections for an opinion in replacing the ward voting system with election of councillors by general vote.

Gets B.D., Will Be Ordained As United Church Minister

Following graduation from Georgetown District High School, he attended the University of Toronto for a year, later graduated with his B.A. degree from University of Western Ontario, London.

$50 Fine or Time in Jail If Fireworks By-Law Ignored

Under the strict town by-law regarding fireworks only on Victoria Day itself, can these squibs and roman candles sparkle, even in your own backyard.

Some people get there by pull, others by push.