Two Names in Running for New Public School

Georgetown's new senior school could be the MacDonald-Pearson-School, or Canada Centennial 1867-1967 School, unless somebody comes up with something better by June 1, the date of the next public school board meeting.

The MacDonald-Pearson and Canada Centennial names were suggested by property committee chairman Gudni Sigurdson at a meeting of the board on Wednesday May 4.

He said the first incorporates the names of Canada's first and current prime minister which makes it an appropriate way to mark the Canadian Centennial. Though he said he personally favoured the MacDonald-Pearson name, he presented Canada Centennial as an alternate choice when he found little support for his initial proposal.

The second proposal drew less comment from the other school trustees.

"It is important that the school be given a name soon," Mr. Sigurdson commented. He has advocated a name referring to Canada's Centennial next year since the school's plans were given the go ahead, and has taken a personal interest in the naming.

Conservation Chairman Speaks to Men's Club

St. John's United Church AOTS Men's Club were fortunate at their May meeting to have Mr. J. N. McMillan of Meadowdale as their guest speaker. Mr. McMillan is chairman of the Credit Valley Conservation Authority.

Mr. McMillan projected a very informative talk with coloured slides of the conservation area. He was introduced by Dennis Carr and thanked on behalf of the club by Tom Niven.

Carl Schenk, president, preside at the meeting.

The June meeting will take the form of a bowling party, followed by a wicker roast, to which the ladies will be invited.
