Third Term for Legion President Ralph Hawes

RALPH HAWES
The election of Officers of Branch 120, Royal Canadian Legion was held on Sunday, June 5 in the Legion's Auditorium.

The attendance was poor. Down 50% to previous years when the annual election has been held on another date.

The offices of President and two Vice Presidents were uncontested as were the offices of four Executive Members.

However, there were some changes. H. Arnold, now holds the office of 1st Vice President. Mr. Arnold has been active on the Executive for several years. M. Louusso is 2nd Vice President, a position he held in 1964. R. Hawes carries on as President for a third term.

Two new members form a part of the four man executive. F. Bryant and B. Collins, while H. Hale and M. McLean were members of last year's executive and daughter banquet on June 1.

D. Bowman Past President is also an active member of the Executive.

OUTDOOR WORSHIP, HIKE FOR ASHGROVE CHILDREN

The Messengers, Tyros and Explorers met at the church on Sunday afternoon for their final meeting before the summer holidays.

They went by cars up the 7th Line to Harold Cleave's bush for a hike. The Messengers had a short worship service under a shady tree. Mrs. George Wilson and Mrs. Ward Brownridge told the last two stories from their study book and a treasure hunt followed.

Everyone then returned to the church where Mrs. Bruce McClure and Mrs. John Bird served lunch.

On a recent evening, the end of May, Tyros and Explorers had a most interesting visit to

The countryside is looking lovely now. Lilacs and tulips have been beautiful even though we had a cold, backward spring.

Everyone will be glad to know that Mr. Fred Wrigglesworth is home from Florida and is feeling hale and hearty.

Set First June Sunday For Davidson Reunions

The annual family reunion of the Davidson clan was again held at Stanley Park, Erin on the first Saturday in June, and as has been the case for the past several years, the weather was perfect. More than sixty members from various parts of the province attended the noon meal, business session and afternoon program.

President Clare Widdes of Rexdale called the meeting to order and after opening remarks and general business asked former president, Cec Davidson to conduct the election of officers for 1966-67. It had already been decided by vote, that the Reunion would continue as an annual event and that it would remain on the first Saturday in June. The elections resulted in the following slate of officers for the ensuing year.

Honorary president, Roy Pawley Brampton; President, Bert Livingston, Brampton; Treasurer, Mrs. Cecil Davidson, Georgetown; Secretary, Mrs. Jim Switzer, Georgetown; Program Chairman, Clare Widdes, Rexdale; Food Convener, Mrs. Clare Widdes, Rexdale.

Prizes were awarded as follows: —

Oldest person present — Mrs. Wm. Davidson, Brampton — 84 years. Youngest person present Wm. Robert John Davidson, — 3 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davidson of Stratford. Longest Married Couple — Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pawley, Brampton — 46 years. Newest Married Couple — Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Krushel, Thornhill — 11 months. Nearest Birthday — Jennifer Budgett, — June 3rd Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Budgett, Brampton.

A football game which is an institution with the Widdes boys, took a great many of the young and not so young members to the ball field for a very pleasant hour or two, to wind up a most enjoyable reunion.

Corsages for Moms at Brownie, Guide Dinner
The 7th Brownie pack, 1st Guide Company and 1st Land Rangers enjoyed an evening with their mothers at a mother and daughter banquet on June 1.

Captain Mrs. M. Baines welcomed everyone and each daughter presented her mother with a corsage. A delicious turkey supper was served by the ladies of St. George's Anglican Church followed by cake and ice cream.

Madam Commissioner Mrs. K. York of South District, talked about the Promise and Law and Madam Commissioner Mrs. P. Berry thanked the mothers for their cooperation during the year. Mrs. Melcombe, president of North District Local Association explained the duties of the L.A. and asked all mothers to continue the interest and help they have shown the Guide movement.

The Captain then presented awards. Colette Teller, Patti Ann Cole and Linda Carmichael earned their hostess badges. Heather Baines and Anne Melcombe were awarded both the cook's and child care badges. Cathy Parsons was presented with her swimmer's badge; Lynda Manely received her 2nd star and Judy White her 1st year star.

Brown Owl Mrs. E. Wiener presented awards to the Brownies. Melanie Barker, Kathleen Skilling, Debbie Dean and Linda Palmer were awarded their Golden Bar. Kathleen Skilling was also presented with her collector's badge.

The Brownies thanked the pack leaders Anne Melcombe and Gayle McLaughlin and gave them a Brownie spoon as a token of appreciation. Brownies Guides and Rangers showed their appreciation of the past year by presenting a potted plant to Mrs. Melcombe, North District L.A. president, Mrs. Marshall, South District L.A. president, Mrs. York, South District Commissioner Mrs. Berry, North District Commissioner and beautiful flower arrangements were presented to Mrs. Mrs. Hills, Ranger captain, Mrs. Pantling, Lieutenant Mrs. Baines Guide captain, Mrs. Wiener, Brown Owl, Mrs. Carmichael, Tawny Owl on behalf of the mothers and daughters in guiding.

Camp fire singing was enjoyed and vespers and taps brought a fine evening to a close.

Gwendolyn Clarke Authored Halton History, Ginger Farm
Gwendolyn P. Clarke, whose book Halton's Pages of the Past placed much of the county's history on record, died at New Toronto on Friday.

Mrs. Clarke's Chronicles of Ginger Farm was a popular feature for years in the Milton and Acton weekly newspapers. Her articles were later syndicated and Mrs. Clarke and Partner and their growing family became known to hundreds of newspaper readers in Canada.

Ginger Farm disappeared a few years ago, when it was purchased by the highways department for a Milton access road to 401 Highway. The family resettled along the lakeshore.

She leaves her husband L. F. (Jack) Clarke, daughter Dorothy (Mrs. G. Evans) of Toronto and son Bob of Milton.

Funeral service was held in Milton on Monday with interment in Evergreen Cemetery.
