

LEGION NOTES

Auxiliary Donations Helps Boost Fund for Centennial

by Ralph Hawes
The big occasion last week was Ladies night, on Thursday, June 16th when some of the old and new executive worked as a very short handed team to put on a wonderful social night for the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Dave Bowman, Ron Dumper, Mike Lorusso, and a very new member of the Branch, Art Roberts, took care of the kitchen chores. Gourmet Dave had moment of pheasant roast beef or fish for the girls to choose from.

Connoisseur of other refreshments, Duffy Wilson aided by Earl Emond did a terrific job in their department.

The four smart debonair waiters who really worked hard were Merle Reid, Bus Hale, Herb Arnold and Bruce Collins. Entertainment was provided by Mary-Ann Rae and her group.

The Branch president was a late arrival because of other commitments, but was in time to receive a donation of $100 from the WA and $75 raised by the WA by means of a euchre party. This money was presented by President Lockhurst as a donation to the Branch Centennial Fund. A considerable boost for the fund.

Speaking of the fund, Comrade Elliott informs us that he intends to post a roll of honour similar to the one that appears in the Legionary each month night — Thurs. June 23rd.

STEWARTTOWN

Now Living in Old Home Town Donegal

A letter from Mr. Ernest Dean has confirmed his safe arrival in his old home town in Ireland.

Mr. Dean has lived as a member of the Reid family for nearly eight years and he recently returned to Donegal County to make his home with his brother Stewart. Mr. Stewart Dean was a member of the Toronto police force for 35 years and upon retiring returned to Ireland in 1956.

A snap enclosed with Mr. Dean's letter showed an Allis Chalmers tractor being operated by his nephew — could it be a portion of Reid Equipment in Ireland? or perhaps Mr. Dean's letters home describing the equipment at the Reid farm led to the purchase.

A Father's Day gift eleven years ago, Walter Reid again celebrated his birthday on that day. At his party on Saturday his guests were Paul and Douglas Thompson, Ross Hunter, Fred Hall, Sandra Cash, Phyllis Briggs, his brother Bill and sisters Brenda and Barbara.

The annual cemetery and memorial day service was held at St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Hornby on Sunday, June 12, with a good attendance.

Newman, who had just returned that afternoon from a convention in Minneapolis, was introduced by Mrs. Leslie Rutledge. He gave a very informative talk on museums and their antiques and also the work which is involved in the starting of a museum.
