Barber - Turkington Wedding
 Vows in Knox Presbyterian Church

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM BARBER

Wearing a sheath gown of pure silk peau de soie, Diann Joy Turkington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Turkington, 38 Prince Charles Drive, became the bride of William John Barber, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Barber, 13 Normandy Blvd. on May 23. Rev. Norman Young officiated at the ceremony in Knox Presbyterian Church. Standards of mums were at the altar.

The bridal gown had a front panel of chantilly lace, scoop neckline and a wateau shoulder train. The bride wore a cultured pearl drop necklace and carried a cascade bouquet of orange de light roses, carnations and polished ivy.

Kenneth R. Harrison, ARCT. RMT, was organist and Mrs. Harry Greig sang 'The Lord's Prayer, Wedding Prayer, and You'll Never Walk Alone during the service.

Christy McArthur was maid of honour and bridesmaids were Elaine Turkington and Joy Barber, sisters of the bride and groom. They wore floor length gowns in golden yellow, with crepe skirts and lace tops and headpieces of yellow carnations.

They carried cascade bouquets of white carnations, the maid of honour's bouquet enhanced with yellow sweetheart roses.

Four-year-old Penny McMillan was flower girl, wearing a golden yellow full length dress of duchess satin and carrying a small cascade of white carnations.

Mr. Turkington gave his daughter in marriage in the double ring ceremony. Barry Hayward, Brampton, was groomsman and ushers were the groom's brother-in-law Bill Ewles, Brampton, and the bride's cousin, John Hogg, Toronto.

At a reception in the Odd Fellows Hall, the bride's mother wore a pink brocade suit and corsage of white roses. The groom's mother also received, wearing a navy and white ensemble and a corsage of red roses.

Wedding guests included the bride's uncle, Mike Elniki from Vancouver, B.C., and another uncle, Charles Rudinsky, his wife and children Jimmy and Donna from Vernon, B.C.

For a honeymoon motor trip around Lake Erie, the bride wore a light blue woollen suit with matching blue fox collar and a white gardenia corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Barber are living at 35 Raylawn Court. He is an IGA employee and his bride is employed with Smith and Stone Ltd.
