Expect Large Entry List In First Flower Show

The Georgetown Horticultural Society hope their first time effort in producing a flower show Saturday will be an annual event. The show has attracted large amounts of attention since plans became public, and at writing time it appears a great number of entries will be received from both club members and the general public.

The show will be formally opened at 2 o'clock by the sponsoring group's patroness Mrs. S. G. Bennett, and immediately following this the trophy for the best rose in the show grown by a member will be presented.

Entry cards are available from Harris Floral Main St. N. and membership to qualify for the rose trophy may be obtained at the show at $1.00 per year.

The Georgetown Horticultural Society is one of the rare organizations that makes no public appeals for funds because it is self supporting. Evidence of their good work may be seen every year in the flowers they growing along the islands on Main Street.

Georgetown can show its appreciation by attending the show. Judging starts at 11.30.

Corsages for Mothers Guide, Brownie Dinner

7th Georgetown Girl Guide company and 11th Georgetown Brownie Pack held their annual mother and daughter banquet in St. Andrew's United Church on June 13th.

Each mother was presented with a charming corsage by her daughter on arrival at the church. Following a fried chicken dinner served by the church ladies, Guide Captain Mrs. M. Baines welcomed the mothers and gave a short talk on tests and badges, especially with reference to the revised Guiding program. North District Commissioner, Mrs. Peter Berry spoke briefly as did Brown Owl Mrs. D. McKinzie and Mrs. F. Peters, vice president of North Georgetown Local association.

Badge presentatives were made to Guides Marilyn Boast (hostess badge) and Linda Penney (child care badge) and to Brownies Linda Graham, Cheryl McNeilly, Susan Power, Lori Faulkner, Vicki Robbins and Susan Kowalchuk, who all received their Golden Bars.

Guide Jacqueline Williams received her third year star and was presented with a gift on her graduation to Rangers. She has been a Packie and with Heather Baines received gifts of knapsacks in appreciation of their work with the Brownies.

Gifts were also given to Mrs. Berry, Mrs. Peters and the Guides who give so much of their time and effort. Rev. and Mrs. Kelvin Johnson, who were unable to attend due to a previous commitment, received a gift in appreciation of their interest in Guiding.

Glen Beats Tanners In Intercounty Ball

Glen Williams swatters jumped on Acton's big Tex Leybourne for four runs in the twilight innings to take the Acornites with a 5-2 defeat in Tanners' town Friday night. The game was an Intercounty Softball League tilt.

The big Texan twirled a tidy five hitter bolstered by 11 strikeouts but lacked the strong fielding support given Glen Hurlers Don Hall and Tom Peavoy.

Acton owned a 2-1 lead going into the late stages when Blake Inglis started the uprising with an unearned run in the 6th. Glen went in front in the 7th and salted it away in the 9th.

Ron Ritchie's triple was the best of a number of Glen extra base hits. Stafford, Tim Haines and Pete Mobery belted two-baggers.
