Plan Family Tree as Record of Early Clan

A reunion of the Early family was held at Pinegrove School near Norval on June 10.

William Early and his wife Ann Young came to Canada in 1820. His brother Thomas and wife Rebecca Nixon and their family followed in 1840 from County Tyrone, Ireland. From these two families came the Earlys in Canada today. They are now in the sixth generation and number over 1400 descendants.

The last reunion was held over sixty years ago at the home of Phillip Early at Norval. The oldest lady at the gathering was Mrs. Rachel Moore, grandmother of a well-known Brampton resident, Miss Jean Moore.

The 1966 reunion was held at the school where most of the early members of the family, and many of their descendants received their education. Now a community hall, it was closed a few years ago when the Pineview consolidated school was built.

Frank Early of Brampton was the day's chairman.

During the afternoon Mrs. Gordon Riley read a history of the family which has been compiled by her father, Walter Early of Mono Road. It was of great interest to the over-200

Thomson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Garbutt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Taylor and family, Arthur Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis and family Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Armstrong. Also the bride's mother, Mrs. Lillian Norton of Glen Williams.

Following a trip through Northern Ontario and returning through USA they have taken up residence near Sand Hill, Ontario.

Represents Acton School-in Student Trip to St John

A Ballinafad boy has been chosen to represent Acton High School in the Federal-Provincial Youth Travel program this year.

Murray Jamieson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Les Jamieson will join a group of Ontario students who leave July 25 on a trip to St. John, New Brunswick, sponsored by the Department of Education.

The program is intended to bring the geography of Canada alive for young Canadians, to give them a chance to meet and become acquainted with young people in other provinces and to sense the excitement of the land they live in.

"We put great importance on this program," says John Fisher. "It is bound to strengthen ties of unity and understanding." Murray was a Grade 11 student at Acton this year.

Clips Mail Boxes, Car Suffers $600 Damage

Ontario Provincial Police investigated two motor vehicle accidents in the Georgetown vicinity during the holiday weekend.

Cst. Hodgson of the North Halton detachment investigated an accident on County Road No. 10 north of 17 sideroad at 6 a.m. Saturday involving a car driven by Peter Townend of RR 1 Georgetown. Police said the Townend vehicle was damaged to the extent of $600 when it clipped off two mail boxes.

Cst. Hodgson placed the damage to the boxes at $20.

On Friday, OPP took the investigation of a hit and run accident reported by a Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital Nurse, Miss Anne Tucker.

Miss Tucker's car received approximately $90 damage while parked in a parking lot at the Georgetown Hospital.

and Mrs. R. Colter and Diane Giles, as well as Service Scouts Chris Sargent, Jim Colter, Mike and Dave Reynolds.

Returning Home from Manitoba, Couple Injured in Accident

A Georgetown couple suffered multiple injuries and a severe shaking up when their car hit a soft shoulder and rolled over near the lakehead while they were returning from a western visit June 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dobbie, 53 Prince Charles Dr., were on their way back from Beaujour Manitoba, where they visited their son, RCMP Cst. Tom Dobbie, and his wife and new son, when the accident happened.

Both were admitted to St. Joseph's Hospital, Blind River. Mr. Dobbie was released Sunday June 26, and Mrs. Dobbie who suffered cracked ribs returned home Friday, July 1.

The accident happened at about 8 o'clock in the morning. It was the second mishap experience by the Dobbies on the return trip.

Three days earlier a moose charged their car near Terrence Bay and damaged the car roof and windshield.

The Dobbies left for the west June 15 and spent about a week with their son and his family.

Was Church Warden at St. Alban's Anglican

A prominent member of St. Alban's Anglican Church, Glen Williams, where he had served for several years as churchwarden, Joseph Eason, 75, died on June 24 in Georgetown Hospital.

Mr. Eason, who was the son of Edward and Elizabeth Blagrove Eason, had spent his entire life in this district. Born on the 3rd Line West, Chinguacousy, his parents moved to Glen Williams when he was a child. Following their marriage fifty years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Eason farmed at Union on property now owned by Sheridan Nurseries. They retired to a country home near by a few years ago.

He leaves his wife Winnifred Bignell, four children Mrs. Arthur Clark (Ida), George, Mrs. Howard Dolson (Mildred) and Paul; five grandsons and five granddaughters. He was predeceased by two brothers Robert and John.

Rev. Harold Llewellyn conducted the funeral service in St. Alban's Church on June 27 and
