Balkind Coordinating Principal for Esquesing Township Schools

Esquesing Township's seven public schools are ready for the fall onslaught of pupils, with their full complement of teachers.

This year, for the first time, the position of coordinating principal has been created. Eric Balkind, principal of Limehouse school has been chosen for this position by the school board. Gordon Bassett, who formerly taught at Amherstburg will be vice-principal at Limehouse, as well as principal's relief at Speyside.

Other new teachers this fall are Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gardiner, who will teach at Stewarttown and Pineview, respectively. They taught last year at Garson; Mrs. Donna Bateman, from Toronto, and Mrs. Christel Hines, from Hamilton; both at Speyside; Robert Clint and Mrs. Patricia Parry, just graduated from Teachers' College, at Glen Williams and Milton Heights; and Miss J. Says Herald Confuses Two Theatrical Groups

50 Hewson Cres.,
July 30, 1966

Dear Mr. Editor;

I am rather concerned because you do not seem to be able to distinguish between Globe Productions and the Little Theatre.

Twice recently you have reported that Mr. Ralph Ursel is connected with the Little Theatre whereas in fact he is the president of Globe Productions

Globe Productions is a group of local people engaged in producing musical shows during the Christmas season. During the past two seasons they have presented "Dick Whittington" and "Aladdin" at Peel Composite School, Brampton and will shortly commence rehearsals for "Babes in the Woods". These shows are presented for the pleasure of the children, but are enjoyed enormously by the adults who accompany them.

After each of the shows produced to date, Globe Productions has been able to present $300. to charitable organizations, a policy which it intends to pursue in the future.

As a member of the Globe Productions I am more than a little proud of its achievements and find it rather exasperating that you confuse us with another group.

Yours very truly,
Maureen Walker
