

MR. AND MRS. ROSS MCGILVRAY

Bermuda Honeymoon Follows McGilvray - Desautel Wedding

A wedding of local interest took place in Peterborough on Saturday, July 23rd, when Donna Jeanne Desautel of that city became the bride of Ross Garfield McGilvray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garfield McGilvray of 8 Guelph St., Georgetown.

Rev. Fr. McCarney of the Church of the Immaculate Conception officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Desautel of Peterborough. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, and had as her maid of honour her sister Mary-Lou, and as junior bridesmaid her younger sister, Jo Ann. The groom's sister Carol McGilvray was also a bridesmaid.

Douglas McGilvray of Georgetown was his brother's groomsmen and the ushers were Ed Caldwell of Georgetown and Ray Ostapovich of Peterborough.

Misty nylon organza of the bride's full length gown was enhanced with re-embroidered-Atenon-lace-on-the-empire bodice and skirt front, and the skirt was gathered into a wateau train and dramatized by a hemline of scalloped Venetian lace. A lace-trimmed ring caught a three tier bouffant veil of nylon. Her flowers were white feathered carnations and pink Sweetheart roses in a cathedral cascade.

Her attendants were gowned in pale green silk shantung fashioned princess style street length dresses. They carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations and deep pink Sweetheart roses.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Rock Haven lodge where the bride and groom received with the bride and groom, wearing a sleeveless A-line dress and matching box jacket of imported worsted linen in aqua shade. She wore beige and white accessories and her corsage was of pale and deep pink Sweetheart roses. The groom's mother assisted wearing an apricot coloured two-piece silk knit dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of white and bronze Sweetheart roses.

The couple spent a week honeymooning in Bermuda and later went on a motor trip through the Eastern States. For travelling the bride donned a straight cut dress of navy linen trimmed with white and waist length jacket of the same. Her white pill-box hat was trimmed with a navy bow and she had white accessories and a corsage of red Sweetheart roses and statice.

They are residing at 204 McDonnell St., Apt. 318, Peterborough, where Mr. McGilvray is manager of Brock St. Kitway Food Market and Mrs. McGilvray is an x-ray technician at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Guests attended from Georgetown, Caledon, London, Kitchener, Cookville, Willowdale, Thornhill, Sault Ste. Marie, Montreal and Peterborough.

Shows, Presentations For Mrs. William Henry

Prior to her marriage to William John Henry of Acton on July 16, Miss Joy Patterson of Limehouse was honoured at several special events.

In April at Limehouse Memorial Hall, the bride was guest of honour at a presentation and kitchen shower put on by members of Limehouse 4-H Homemaking club. She is a former member of the club.

June 26, a miscellaneous shower at Weston was held at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Irene Smith and cousin, Mrs. Leslie Hutchinson.

On June 29, a linen shower was given by Mrs. Jeff Agnew, her bridesmaid, at the home of her mother, Mrs. C. Clarke, Georgetown.

A bathroom shower on July 9 was given by the matron of honor, Mrs. Melvyn Hickson at the home of her mother, Mrs. Wilbur Patterson, Rockwood.

Presentations were made to the bride by Limehouse Presbyterian Sunday School, and by Mason Knitting Co., Acton where she is employed. The groom was honoured by the staff of Acton Limestone Quarries.

Mrs. A.C. Patterson held open house for her daughter on July 11 and Mrs. W. G. Henry entertained at a luncheon after the rehearsal.

Tarzwel Buys Industrial Lots To Build Factory

Council on Tuesday authorized the selling of lots 55 and 56, in the industrial area to Howard Tarzwel, RR 2, Georgetown, at a price of one thousand dollars an acre.

Construction must be started on lot 55 within two months and on lot 56 before 1973. Ten thousand square feet of plant space will be constructed immediately.

Reeve Hunter explained that Mr. Tarzwel had originally wanted the lots sold to Dennis on Manufacturing, so the town now was offering the above two lots as substitutes.

The lots are three and a half and two and a half acres respectively.

Deputy-Reeve J. Young pointed out that it would be perfectly legal for Reeve Hunter to obtain commission on this deal, since he engineered it. Reeve Hunter immediately stated, "I have no intention whatsoever of charging commission. There's more than one who can work for nothing," he concluded.

Historic Bell Sounded Work Hours at Lime Pit

Three recent donations to Halton County museum have delighted director M.J. H.J. Newman. The three are: from John Gamble, Q.C., of Guelph and are on display now.

First is a huge bell, weighing a quarter of a ton, from the old Christie lime pit. It was rung to sound the hours of work and also as an alarm.

Next donation was a half-ton stone used for forming carriage wheels. It was used by Bob Mendenham's blacksmith shop in Chesapeakeville years ago and was the old side mill and originally on the Alexander farm at Kelso, where the museum is now.

Attendance at the museum is up this year, Maj Newman points out.

The agreement turning Richmond school over to the museum is now completed, and repairs there will begin. Meetings will be held in this attractive small school near the museum, no longer used in the area.

Plans for the centennial building at the museum are continuing, and it is expected tenders will be called very soon.

Induction Service Sunday For United Church Minister

The induction service for the newly-appointed United Church minister, Rev. W. Ridley will be held this Sunday evening, Aug. 14th in Home Church, Alton.

Mrs. Kate Smith left by plane last Tuesday evening for a three-week holiday in Scotland.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Norton and Pamela have returned from a trip west. They went by plane to Calgary where their daughter, Penny, Mrs. R. J. Carey and her husband and daughter, Tari live. Then they motored through the Rockies to the Coast — through the states of Washington, Montana and Idaho and back to Calgary and flew back home. No place had suffered with drought as much as right at home.

We extend our best wishes to Lynda Davis and Jack Thompson who were married on Saturday in St. Alban's Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Beam and Blake of Ottawa are on their holidays here. They brought back Diane and Brett Giles who had been visiting them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Preston and Bobbie have returned from a motor trip to California. They went with the possibility of moving there but after looking it over, they decided it was too hot, everything moved too fast for them, so back home they came and think the Glen looks pretty good — especially our nice trees.

Mrs. J.W. Davis left by plane for a holiday with relatives in England.

Two little sisters celebrated their birthday on the same day July 30th. They are Cheryl and Angela Spence.

They had a party on the lawn to which all their little friends were invited as well as their grandmother, Mrs. C. Chalkin of Kitchener, their great-grandmother, Mrs. S. Ridley of Brampton and uncles and aunts from Brampton.

Rev. and Mrs. W.E. Gilt of Ingersoll spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bullock.

Scuba Practice Part of Seal Research Project

Scuba diving in Georgetown pool, and research on seals, seem completely unrelated subjects, but Dr. Vicki Zavitz, Princess Anne Drive, relates them perfectly.

Dr. Zavitz, teacher of anatomy at Ontario Veterinary College, during the school term, is doing post graduate work this summer on seal research, so she decided scuba diving would be a help in her project.

While also taking lessons at the College swimming pool, she has been receiving instruction from chief lifeguard Raymond Fox, Saturday mornings, in the intricacies of the scuba equipment, and its use.

She will help check the scuba equipment for all members of the research team who will be observing the underwater habits of the seals.

Pre-Schoolers Teeth Get Fluoride Treatment Here

Every Friday during the summer pre-school children between the ages of three and five have been receiving fluoride applications to their teeth as a part of a County wide drive by the Halton County Health Unit.

The free clinics are held in Dr. J. Kerby's office in the Carleton building. Dr. Kerby practices in Toronto on Fridays.

The fluoride applications normally done in other years by dental hygienists, this year are being done by Dr. E. F. Shanessy, who plans to specialize in public health dentistry.

With only three more Fridays to go, the Health Unit hopes to see most of the Georgetown pre-schoolers have their preventative treatment.

First the teeth are thoroughly cleaned, then the fluoride applied. The care of the teeth is explained to the children and pamphlets given them, showing the hidden sweets in many foods. A swab test of the acid content in the mouth is also taken and the results given to the parents. The higher the acid content, the more susceptible the child to cavities in the teeth.

Since it is impossible to give the treatment to all children, the Health Unit decided to give it to the age group for whom it does the most good, which they feel is the three to five year olds.

The clinic will be in operation for the next three Fridays from 9:30 a.m. till 3:30 p.m.

Dads, Children Join W.I. For Rockwood Picnic

On Sunday Ashgrove Women's Institute held a family picnic at Rockwood Conservation park when Dad and the children went along too. About eighty sat down to dinner and then races were held.

Winners were: Pre-schoolers, Glenn McClure, Brian Wingfield; Girls 6-9, Susan Alexander; Boys 6-9, Douglas McNabb; Girls 9-12, Ann McClure, Barbara Brownridge; Boys 9-12, Ken McNabb; David Alexander; Girls 12 and over, Thelma Carney, Lois McNabb; Boys 12 and over, Stuart Nurse, Murray Brownridge; Shoe Kick, Edward Bird; 3-legged race, Ann McClure, Barbara Brownridge; Boys 3-legged, Murray Brownridge, David Austin.

A race which caused a lot of fun was taking clothes pins off a rope using only the left hand. The lucky lady who took off 16 pins was Mrs. Bob Alexander and lucky gent was Jim Carney. John Bird guessed the right amount of candies in a jar. Prize for the youngest child at the picnic was Lynda Jane Wingfield, oldest man was C.B. Dick and oldest lady, Mrs. R.J. Graham. Everyone was pleased that Mr. and Mrs. Fraser McNabb and their three children from Embro were able to attend. Mrs. McNabb was a W.I. member before they moved.

Swimming was enjoyed by the children and several adults and the happy day ended.

Mr. and Mrs. R.J. Cunningham have just returned from a two week bus tour of New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia.

Mr. and Mrs. T.J. Brownridge and Mr. and Mrs. John McNabb and family motored last week-end to Michigan on Sunday attended a picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Brownridge in Albion, Michigan.

Sorry the results of the races at the congregational picnic were not available last week. They are as follows: Youngest child, Lynda Jane Wingfield; Boys 6 and under, Glenn McClure, Timmy Hawkes; Girls 6

W.I. member before they moved and under, Jean Bonner, Marilyn McNabb; Boys 7-9, Randy and Ricky Critchell; Girls 7-9, Jo-Ann Wilson, Carolyn Bird; Boys 10-12, Ken Austin, Ken McNabb; Girls 10-12, Ann McClure, Barbara Brownridge; Boys 13-16, Murray Brownridge, Donald McClure; Girls 13-16, Lois McNabb, Thelma Carney.

Men and boys, running backward, Donald McClure, Lorne Wilson; 3-legged race, Ken and Keith Austin; Murray Brownridge and David Austin; Men's and women's tie race, Ken Austin and his mother Mrs. Charles Austin; Keith Austin and Mrs. Bill Wilson. A peanut and candy scramble concluded the afternoon.
