Mr. and Mrs. John Narey of Keighley, Yorkshire, England, have almost completed a two month holiday with son John and daughter-in-law Jean Narey of 85 McIntyre Crescent. It is Mrs. Narey's second visit in six years and she has had much pleasure in renewing acquaintanceship with neighbors and introducing Mr. Narey to the Canadian way of life. They return to England next Tuesday evening by air and look forward to showing off their very considerable sun tan to their rather "sun starved" friends back home. Mrs. Norm Rudek of 6 McIntyre Crescent gave a party for them Saturday and among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hall, also on holiday from Keighley and old friends of Mr. and Mrs. Narey, who are visiting daughter Marjorie and her husband Raymond Ackroyd of Raylawn Crescent.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM HANSON.

Ashgrove July Bride Was Nurse in Guelph

A couple who will be living in Smiths Falls were married in Bethel United Church on July 23.

Wedding principals were Margaret Isabel Austin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Austin, RR 3, Georgetown and William John Hanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hanson of Guelph. Rev. Keith Hawkes officiated at the four o'clock ceremony in the church, decorated with pink gladioli and white carnations. Mrs. Graham Reeve was organist and Miss Beth Bryan of Belwood sang O Perfect Love and Wedding Prayer.

The bride, who has been on the staff of St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, wore a full length gown of silk taffeta with long lily point sleeves. Rose point lace and pearls enhanced the bodice and her skirt was also bordered with lace. A chapel train extended from the waist and her shoulder length veil of scalloped nylon tulle was held with a taffeta flower beaded with pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink sensation roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Gerald LaFontaine, Guelph, was matron of honour; Mrs. Ron Plant, Hornby, the brides cousin Miss Carol MacIntosh, Preston, and the groom's sister Mrs. Fred Milton, Guelph, were bridesmaids; and little Sandra Austin was flower girl.

They were identically gowned in petal pink chiffon over taffeta with variegated rose appliques at the empire waistline and pink flowers in their hair. Senior attendants carried topiaries of white pompoms and pink roses and the flower girl a basket of pompoms.

Mr. Austin gave his daughter in marriage in the double ring ceremony. Wally Hartwick, Guelph, was groomsman and Gerald LaFontaine and Ron Davies, Guelph, and the bride's brother David Austin, were ushers.

At a reception at Halton Country Club, mothers of the bride and groom received. Mrs. Austin wore a pale blue silk brocade, three quarter length coat and a pink carnation corsage. Mrs. Hanson chose a blue crepe dress and lace jacket, pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Among wedding guests was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. William Swanston of Guelph.

For an eastern honeymoon trip the bride wore a pink crepe dress, full length lace coat, matching accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanson will live at Smiths Falls where he is employed with the Royal Metal Company.
