

Tough RLS Testing Held Ninety Per Cent Make It

The Royal Life Saving Society of Canada's Distinction Award, the second highest swimming award available in this country was earned by two Georgetown swimmers tested at the Georgetown Community Pool Saturday.

Successful series of examinations at the pool Saturday which also saw five young swimmers pass their final Bronze Medallion tests, two swimmers earned their Intermediate Certificate and six gained the Senior Artificial Respiration Award.

Sue MacDonald, 17, a swimming teacher at the Terra Colla Conservation Area, and Richard Holmes, 19, a swimming teacher at the Georgetown Community Pool, each received a final mark of 70.5 to successfully pass the Distinction Award exam.

The Distinction award included simulated practical emergency rescue situations and a very difficult theory test.

Chris Sargent, 19, Pat Lince, 16, John Golden, 16, Sharon Emerson, 17, and Jim Hamon, 18, were the Award of Merit recipients.

The Bronze Medallion tests were passed by Andrea Chaplin, 15, Lorraine Ledwidge, 14, Brenda Elliott, 18, Elaine Sales, 23, Fred Yates, 17, Edwin Sarchuk, 25, Leslie McAusland, 14, Susan Carswell, 14, Allan Whao, 15, Rick Chaplin, 13, Anne MacDonald, 14, and Linda Capperault, 14. The successful Bronze Medallion candidates represented 100 per cent of the class.

Bev Gummer, 13, and Bob Sargent, 13, tried and passed the same tests as the Bronze Medallion candidates however, because they're not old enough, to hold that award, will receive the Intermediate Certificate instead.

The five swimmers earning the Royal Life Saving Society's Senior Artificial Respiration Award were Richard Holmes, Chris Sargent, Raymond Fox, Jennifer Inglis, Gary McCrea, and Edwin Sarchuk.

Ninety per cent of the swimmers trying the Royal Life Saving tests were successful.

Sue MacDonald and Richard Holmes achieved second highest swim award possible in Canada.

Zephyr Kills Hunters Hopes Softball Tourney Windup

Georgetown Hunters made it to the final before their bid to capture the Hornby Softball Tournament crown was terminated by Zephyrs Saturday night. The Zephyrs downed the Georgetown team 7-3 in the last round before 400 fans in Hornby Park.

Zephyr edged out Guelph Dairy Queens, in the semi-final 2-1 to reach the finals and Georgetown stopped Palermo, 8-5 in their semi-final game.

Zephyr picked up $90 in prize money for the win and Georgetown took the consolation prize of $40.

The tournament ran all day Saturday with 16 teams competing from Air Canada, Milton Meires, Brampton Johnson and Gates, Georgetown, Acton, Palermo, Hillsburgh, Streetsville, Ancaster, Campbellville, Levers, Lowville, Zephyr, Cooksville Road and Gun, Milton Charles Hotel, Guelph Dairy Queens and Hornby Redshirts.

Milton Meires opened the series at 10:00 a.m. with a 5-1 win over Air Canada, and Georgetown stopped Brampton Johnson and Gates. Palermo dumped Acton 9-1 in a game that was called early and Hillsburgh downed Streetsville in the 11:30 game.

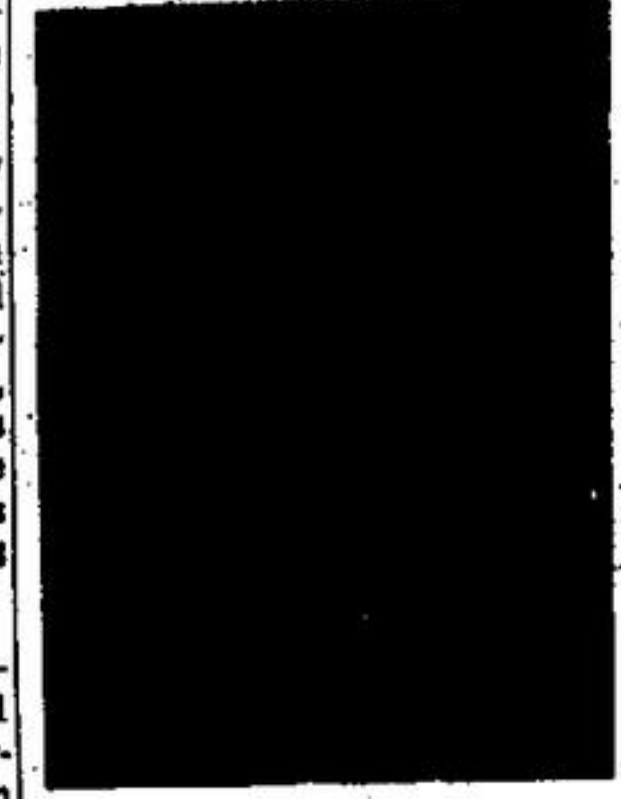

In the one o'clock series, Ancaster eliminated Campbellville and Zephyr edged out Lowville 2-0. At 2:30 p.m. Cooksville stopped Milton Charles Hotel and Guelph Dairy Queens eliminated Hornby 6-1.

Zephyr of the Inter-city Softball League were co-favorites in the tournament and featured a pitcher who set some kind of a record this season in regular play fanning 33 batters in an 18 inning game.

This year the tournament had a record number of 16 entries. Zephyr was the one of three final additions to the field in the tournament with Streetsville and the Charles Hotel of Milton coming in for the first time this year.

Each team received $10 for every win.

DWYER GDHS REP AT COUCHICHING

Dwyer GDHS rep at Couchiching.

A Georgetown high school senior grade student Bill Dwyer is representing the school at the Ontario Athletic Leadership Camp on Lake Couchiching.

Dwyer departed for the camp last Thursday, August 18 and will stay until the end of the month. Both athletic and academic abilities are considered in the selection of students to attend the training camp.

Georgetown high school's physical education department head, Lyn McLaren is in charge of the camp this year.

HOPE-CENTRE TRAINEES BACK

Holidays are over for the trainees at the HOPE Centre for retarded adults at Hornby and they are looking for job work to keep them busy.

A main activity at the HOPE Centre is re-webbing lawn chairs. The trainees will re-web a chair for $2, and a chaise lounge for $4.

Victory Party Ends When Kin Pull Curtains on V.A.

Varian Associates had their win romp rudely ended in Georgetown Park Monday night as Kinsmen ran up a 14-6 decision over V.A. in Georgetown Industrial Softball action.

Sterritt with Newman in relief registered the victory for the service clubbers. Newman and Wright batted 1,000 on the night to help the winners' cause with the latter contributing a home run.

Don Norton batted 1,000 for the Varians in a losing cause.

Last Wednesday, Sinclair outlasted Hillier in a hitting and scoring marathon as Standard Products registered a 20-11 triumph over Combines.

Home runs by Hayes and Brown accounted for two of the SP bundle.

In another game the same night, league leading Kinsmen handcuffed Benson and Hedges 9-4.

JETS AND TRIBE WIN FLAGS PLAYOFFS LOOM IN KID BALL

The victory kept alive the seventh-place Indians' hopes of overtaking the fourth-place Hamilton Beavers.

Burlington needed a clutch relief performance by lefty George McDonald to clinch the victory. McDonald came on after the Giants loaded the bases against starter George Moore with two out in the eighth and forced Tom James to ground out.

Moore had limited Georgetown to just four hits walked five and fanned seven during his stay on the mound.

Losers Don Westbrooke continued his string of low-hit pitching performances limiting the Tribe to just four hits. He walked two and fanned eight.

Georgetown had jumped off to a 1-0 lead in the first inning when James delivered a base-loaded single after a walk to Paul Lawson and singles by Bill Campbell and Don Lindsay.

Burlington knotted the scores in the bottom of the fourth. Tom Gosjlich laid down a one-out squeeze bunt after singles by Joe Eranoff and Wigle and a walk to Jack Laroux loaded the bases.

Jack Clarke, who reached base on an error, and Bryan DeMingh, who singled, set up the winning run by engineering a double steal and then both scored on Wigle's single in the fifth.
