

Helped Establish Town's Brass, Girls Pipe Bands

A man who helped to establish two Georgetown bands, Early Roy Magloughlin, 69, died suddenly at his home, 29 Park Ave. on August 15.

Mr. Magloughlin was the originator of Georgetown Girls Pipe Band, an organization which has brought a great deal of musical enjoyment to Georgetown and has advertised the town in Canada and the United States with appearances at many functions.

Earlier, with the late Anson Thurston, he helped form the brass band and he had also been a member of the Lorne Scots Brass Band.

Son of William J. and Rebecca Bryan Magloughlin, he was born in Tecumseh Township, attended school in Tottenham and lived there until 1924 when he moved to Georgetown. He had carried on his trade as barber here since then. For many years he operated a barber shop and billiard parlour on Main St. in the premises now occupied by Rudy's Barber Shop and the Snacchetta. After selling the business he continued his trade, establishing a barber shop at his home on Park Avenue.

He was a member of the Presbyterian Church.

He leaves his wife, Annie Dickey, whom he married in Stayner in 1924, and a sister Mrs. Jim Goodfellow of Bolton. He was predeceased by brothers Robert, Harvey and Charlie Magloughlin of Tottenham.

Rev. Norman Young conducted the funeral service at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home on August 17 and interment followed later that day in Stayner Cemetery. Pallbearers at Georgetown were Graham Farnell, Claude Kentner, Len Cox, Sam Mackenzie, Wm. F. Hunter and Mervyn Cook. Pallbearers at the graveside service in Stayner were Carl Dickey, Alan Brown, Thomas Lowe, Fred McBurney, Clinton Cauthers and Wallace Rogers.

Grandmother Flies from Holland For Wedding of Reina Lorusso

A granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Lorusso of Georgetown, Reina Maria Lorusso, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lorusso, Magloughlin, became the bride of Raymond Joseph Zehes, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Zehes, Toronto, on Saturday, July 23rd, at twelve o'clock noon, in Holy Trinity Church, Burks Falls. Rev. Father Louis Duddy officiated at the double ring ceremony, the church was decorated with vases of salmon pink and cherry pink gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a sheath of jade green with matching jacket of cotton lace over taffeta, matching satin shoes. She wore a white pillbox hat with matching gloves and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Her jewellery was a smokey topaz necklace, the gift of the groom, and a pair of white pearl earrings, the gift of her maternal grandmother.

Miss Donna Lorusso, cousin of the bride, was maid of honour, wearing an empire waist gown of golden yellow with matching jacket, a yellow pill box hat and white shoes and gloves. Her corsage was of dark pink carnations.

Frank Lorusso Jr., brother of the bride, was groomsmen.

Mrs. Lorusso received for her daughter at a buffet dinner at their home following the ceremony, wearing a two piece nylon gabardine suit with beige accessories and a corsage of soft orange carnations. The groom's mother assisted in a blue-grey printed acetate sheath, black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Over two thousand dollars was the total damage when a car and a dump truck collided at the John and Guelph Street corner last Thursday morning.

The truck driven by William Gray of Willowdale, was coming down Guelph St. in an easterly direction, when upon approaching the John St. intersection his brakes failed.

A car driven by Mrs. John E. Reid, 8th Line, Esquimaux was crossing the intersection at the time. In an attempt to avoid hitting the Reid car directly the truck driver tried to turn onto John St. and hit the Reid car, turning his own truck over.

Damage to the truck was estimated at $800, and to the Reid car approximately $1200.

On Sunday afternoon, August 28th, a car driven by Raymond Whitham 33 Normandy Blvd., while stopped on Guelph Street to make a left hand turn on to Queen Street, was hit from behind by a car driven by Gordon G. Hallitt, of Cooksville.

Henry Junge, a passenger in the Hallitt car, was examined on the scene by Dr. J. Chamberlain, and taken to Georgetown Hospital for observation.

Damage to the Whitham car was estimated at $300 and to the Hallitt car $800.

Funeral service on August 24 at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home with interment following in Greenwood Cemetery. Pallbearers were Mayor Joseph Gibbons, John T. Armstrong, Allan Norton and Bruce Ross of town, Bert Earwicker, St. Catharines and William Hinchings, Toronto.

Says Theatre Project Needs Every Supporter

August 26, 1966
Georgetown Ont.

Dear Sir,
Chris Fisher's amusing letter concerning entertainment in Georgetown leaves me smiling a little confused as to whether the 'wonderful dream' of a community theatre exists in our imagination or in that of Georgetown Little Theatre.

I see nothing strange or particularly unusual about people working together for a worthwhile purpose, whether they are Rotarians, actors or council members. It seems to me that carrying out a project which could well cost $30,000 is much more likely to be viable if it has broad popular support than if its sponsors are a relatively small group appealing to a limited audience having esoteric tastes. And I speak as a confessed culture vulture.

Doubtless it would be a fine feather in Little Theatre's cap if it could raise funds for a theatre building single-handed and doubtless it would be much more convenient to programme the building's use for just one group.

However, at its present rate of income, it seems unlikely that this admittedly fine group could raise the necessary funds in time for our NEXT centennial.

Sincerely,
Jim Warren

Congratulates Bandmen for Win At Exhibition

Georgetown, Ont.,
31 Byron Street,
August 29th, 1966.

Dear Mr. Editor:
Congratulations to our fine Citizens Band for its prize-winning performance again at the CNE last week.

This makes a third straight win, which gives our band the cup permanently. This win enables our band to compete in a higher class next year, which will be section 2.

Competition in the new section will involve up to 36 players and the class of music played will be of a more advanced character.

This Year's Fall Fair A Woman's World For Showmanship Prizes

This year's fall fair, which will be held on Sept. 30th and Oct. 1, is certainly catering to the ladies. Besides offering a prize list of 85 different items in the Ladies Work section there are special prizes for Senior Citizens handwork and for town and country girls from 12 to 21 years of age. Many worth while prizes are offered in each class ranging from $5.00 for the best mohair knit sweater to $2.50 for the best handmade billfold.

The domestic science prize list is bulging with valuable prizes for the culinary art. Prizes here have been increased in many sections. And just look at these specials: Standard Brands Ltd. are offering $40 for the best white and brown bread, milk rolls and cinnamon buns; $10 for a chocolate cake in three prizes; and other specials by William Nielson Ltd., Magic Baking Powder and the Georgetown Herald.

While the regular prize list will be later coming off the press this year, ladies' prize lists are now available from the secretary, Mrs. G. H. Ironside, Phone 877-4587.

Go, start now ladies, to prepare your entries for Georgetown fair and get in the swing and the excitement of exhibiting and vying with your friends and neighbours.

Local Woman's Mother Was School Board Member

Mrs. J. H. Newman in her 86th year, dear mother of Hilda (Mrs. L. Clarke) of Brampton, Dona, (Mrs. G. Lacey) of Georgetown and Mildred, (Mrs. T. Dickson) of New Toronto, died suddenly on Thursday, August 11 at Brampton.

Fanny Olivia Moore was the daughter of John James and Isabella Moore and was born at Teeswater, Ontario. She married in 1907 to John Henry Newman of Alton, Ontario, who predeceased her in September, 1900. They lived at Meadowvale for about 25 years where Mr Newman was CPR agent and lived at Teeswater and Grand Valley before retiring to Inglewood, Ontario.

Mrs Newman was a member of the United Church and was the last of a family of four girls and three boys. She taught music at Teeswater before her marriage, was a school trustee at Meadowvale for nine years and was president of Meadowvale Women's Institute for several years.
