

CRUSADE COMMENT

REV. BRUCE WOODS
Maple Avenue Baptist Church

Last Sunday evening the results of nine months of preparation, prayer, and work were made visible in the 1800 persons that attended the first evening of the Halton-Peel Crusade at the Bramalea Arena.

As I drove toward the Arena on Sunday night my mind was full of last minute apprehension as my faltering faith and rising doubt made me wonder if the Crusade would be successful. One glance at the grounds dispelled my doubts. I had left early to insure plenty of time but already the parking lot was filled and the vehicles were spilling over onto the ball diamond. The arena floor was filled with people and 150 voices of the choir were magnificent as they filled the Bramalea Arena with sounds of praise.

After the preliminary welcome by acting mayor of Brampton Mrs. N. Horwood and Bramalea's Reeve Cyril Clark, the audience rose to sing "Guide me O Thou Great Jehovah." The magnificent sound of 1800 voices thrilled us as the beautiful Bramalea Arena resounded this dearly beloved hymn of praise.

Mr. Moore's message was eloquent and direct. The audience sat spell bound as he preached from the 6th chapter of Jeremiah and urged his hearers to "Return to the Old Path." Mr. Moore spoke of the rapidly changing era in which we live. "Nations have changed, Britannia rules the waves is no longer a meaningful song. Transportation has changed. Auto-

Erin Furniture Factory Toured By Institute

The September meeting of the Institute was held at Mrs. Wesse McEnery's home when all gathered for a dessert luncheon. At 1 o'clock all enjoyed a wonderful helping served by Mrs. E. McEnery, Mrs. R. Shorill Sr. and the hostess. The president, Mr. Frank Smith opened the meeting with the W.I. Ode and Mary Stewart Collect. The roll call was answered by 16 members naming an Industrialist and what he or she has done for Canada. Many items of business were dealt with. Thank you cards were read. Mrs. R. B. Kirkwood gave the motto, "The greater part of progress is the desire to progress." All then journeyed to Hillsburgh where they were taken on a tour of Morette's Furniture Factory. Everyone enjoyed very much seeing the furniture being assembled and upholstered and seeing the finished work on display. All went home feeling they had spent a very interesting afternoon.

Mrs. A. McEnery visited recently with her cousin, Mrs. E. Adair at Blenheim.

Sunday visitors with Mr. Thom Mack were Mr. and Mrs. John Glendenning and Nancy of Rockwood, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mack and Tommy of Georgetown.

With the coming of September many organizations are starting activities and this past week, the Scout Group committee met on Monday night at the home of Mr. Sam Snow and on Tuesday night the Mothers' Auxiliary met for their first meeting at the home of Mrs. Ron Saunders. Representatives from each group were asked to attend the annual meeting of District Council in Georgetown on Wednesday evening and also plans were made for this group to have the Ballinafad booth at the Georgetown Fair. Cubs and Scouts will be starting this week on Monday and Wednesday nights.

Congratulations to Maggie Given who was the winner in the Miss Acton Fair Contest on Saturday. She is a student at the Erin District High School.

Silver Wedding

Seventy relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art McKane, Emeraldale Farms RR 4, Georgetown, to celebrate with them their silver wedding anniversary. The McKane's have two children, Murray, at home, and Dianne, a first year student at the University of Guelph where she is taking a Science course at Wellington College. A floral lamp was presented to the bridal couple of 25 years.

Learned Printing Trade As Herald Apprentice

A printer who learned his trade at The Herald office, Russell John Wheeler, 68 died suddenly at Oakville September 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler were en route from their home in Fort Erie to visit their son who lives in Oakville. Suddenly taking ill, they stopped at a garage, and he was rushed to hospital, but he died within half an hour.

A Glen Williams native, he was the son of the late John and Elizabeth Davison Wheeler. Following an apprenticeship at the Herald office with the late J.M. Moore, he worked with Charters Publishing Co., in Brampton, at New Toronto and Streetsville. He had lived in Fort Erie for the past twelve years while employed with the Buffalo (N. Y.) Times.

He leaves his wife, Blanche Rutledge, two children James of Oakville and Ruth, Mrs. Norman Newman of Streetsville; 3 grandchildren; and brothers and sisters Harold of Glen Williams, Andrew and Mrs. Charles O'Hara (Margaret) of Toronto and Mrs. Phares Vannatter (Mary) of Georgetown. He was predeceased by two brothers, Winston and Winfield.

Dedication, First Service Held at Immanuel Lutheran

Over 170 people were present for the dedication service of Immanuel Lutheran Church Sunday. The morning service began with prayer on the steps of the church. After the prayer, the congregation entered the church followed by the Pastor and the Church Council carrying the cross, the sacred vessels and the service books. In his message to the congregation Pastor J. Klifner stated that God is present in the church when people gather in His name to use His Word and Sacraments.

In the afternoon, Rev. Roy Knoll of Kitchener, was the guest preacher. He spoke to the congregation about Christ the Rock and Cornerstone of the church. "He is the unchanging Rock in whom we can place our full confidence and trust," he said.

Iris Malle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Malle, served as organist for the congregation. Rev. H.H. Erdman, the Executive Secretary for the Ontario District, was present at the afternoon service. Part of his work is to serve as advisor over the building programs of various Lutheran congregations in Ontario. Members of the local clergy were also present, along with members of their parishes.

Funeral service in Fort Erie on September 13 was followed later that day with interment in Glen Williams Cemetery. A graveside service was conducted by Rev. Walter Ridley of Glen Williams United Church.
