

Managers Remanded for Sentence For Local Break-Ins

Five Georgetown teenagers of another from Glen Williams were remanded in custody Wednesday after pleading guilty to eight charges of break and enter and theft. A total of 21 charges of a similar nature were withdrawn by the Crown.

The offences were committed in two counties during a period of three months.

The five, age 16 to 18, pleaded guilty to a joint charge of breaking and entering the IGA Food Store in Erin and stealing about $30 in cash and 50 cigarettes valued at $7.50.

One of the Georgetown youths pleaded guilty to an individual charge relating to the same offence. The break-in occurred June 15th, said Constable Pitts, Guelph, O.P.B. officer.

Constable Pitts said a rear door was pried open at around 10 a.m. The cash was taken from the till and the youths grabbed cigarettes before escaping.

They were arrested and charged with the break-in over a month later.

The Driver

One youth told police he was the driver of the getaway car and that the other four broke in. He said they also took pop and marshmallows.

Another youth also pleaded guilty to breaking into the IGA store at Georgetown, June 22nd, breaking into Halton Co-Operative Supplies, Georgetown July 7th and of breaking and entering a house at Stewarttown July 20th.

A third pleaded guilty to breaking and entering the Georgetown IGA Store and the Halton Co-Operative Supplies.

Constable Harry Liberty said his haul included a quantity of tools and radios valued at $85. He said a safe at the food store had also been tampered with.

Dear Forced

In each case a rear door had been forced to gain entry.

One of the accused pleaded guilty on a separate charge of breaking into the house at Stewarttown. He and a chum removed a screen from a window on the ground floor, said Constable Tom Dube.

He said they got away with jewellery including a watch, cuff links and between $75 and $90 worth of silver dollars.

A ladies ring has still not been recovered.

He said a third youth and a juvenile were also involved in the theft.

The Crown withdrew further charges against four of the youths, involving break-ins at a garage, a swimming pool, a bowling alley and the Georgetown IGA Store. The alleged offences occurred between May and July.

One member of the group was further charged with speeding at 60 miles an hour in a 30 mile zone at Georgetown, on Sept. 15th. He said he thought he was in a 50 mile zone going down "Hungry Hollow" a gravel road leading out of Town.

The charges were dismissed by Magistrate James Black, who said the police had got their dates mixed up.

Ministerial Association Elect New Officers

Georgetown Ministerial Association, at a recent meeting, elected new officers to head the organization.

Rev. Norman Young of Knox Presbyterian Church is the new president. He succeeds Rev. John McMullin of St. George's Anglican, who began a new pastorate in Hamilton the first of the month.

Rev. John Kliffner of Immanuel Lutheran continues as secretary-treasurer.

Grahame-Hulme Wedding In Holy Cross RC Church

Tall standards of polar ice gladioli decorated Holy Cross R. C. Church on September 3rd for the marriage of Teresa Elizabeth Anne Hulme and Philip John Grahame. The twelve o'clock ceremony was performed by Father Otger DeVent.

Mrs. George C. Hewson was organist and Mrs. Robert Burkesang Ave Maria and The Lord's Prayer.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Hulme, 22 Victoria St., wore an empire gown of silk tulle with lily point sleeves and jewelled neckline. French tulle decorated the front of her gown with seed pearls sprinkled down the sides. A headpiece of white roses and silver pearl spray held a two-tier bouffant shoulder length veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations, stephanotis and fern.

Mrs. Virginia Hulme was matron of honour for her sister-in-law, her nieces Brenda and Sherry Hulme were bridesmaids and the groom's niece, Michelle Grahame, Oakville, was flower girl. They wore silk chiffon sheaths over taffeta, with full length skirts in aqua mist with attached trains. The brides wore lace with jewelled necklines. Silk chiffon bows held short veils and they carried colonial nosegays of white pinocchio poms.

Mr. Hulme gave his daughter in marriage a double ring ceremony. David Grahame, Oakville, was his brother's groomsmen and ushers were Dennis Gibbons, Acton and the bride's nephew Michael McHugh.

At a reception at Georgetown Golf and Country Club the bride's mother wore a gown of deep rose coral French crepe with matching tulle lace top and hat, black accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother wore a pink crepe sheath with matching lace coat, black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Among wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. N. Dodgson, Toronto, the bride's great-uncle and aunt, the latter celebrating her 75th birthday that day. Mr. and Mrs. C. Cutts, Acton, grandparents of the groom and Mr. C. Pantry, Oshawa, great-uncle of the groom. Other guests were from Toronto, Oakville, Port Credit, Port Colborne and Windsor.

For a honeymoon trip the bride wore an A-line 2-piece flowered suit in autumn colours of gold and turquoise, black velvet hat and black accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Grahame will make their home in Acton at 32 Church St. He is employed with Beardmore & Co. Ltd. and his bride has been employed with Smith & Stone.

Lantz-Burley Wedding in St. George's Anglican Church

Penelope Jane Burley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand Burley, 25 Ewing St., became Mrs. Kenneth Alfred Lantz in a double ring ceremony in St. George's Anglican Church, Georgetown, recently. The groom is the son of Mrs. Mae Lantz, Wetaskiwin, Alberta, and the late Mr. Otto Lantz.

White gladioli decorated the church for the ceremony, conducted by Rev. J.H. McMullin. Geraldine Hickey, soloist sang Panis Angelicus, and O Lord I Am Not Worthy. Mr. G. De Kleer was organist.

The bride is a commercial artist with Sherman Laws Ltd. and the groom is studying for his M.A. degree at the University of Toronto.

A white silk shantung and wool suit with matching hat, white shoes and gloves was the bride's wedding ensemble. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias and stephanotis. Her father gave the bride away.

Mrs. Ian Macaulay, Barrie, attended her friend as matron of honour in a pink jersey suit with black hat and matching accessories. She wore a corsage of miniature white roses.

Mr. Ian Macaulay was groomsmen, and the bride's brother Richard Burley was an usher.

At a reception at the North Halton Golf and Country Club the bride's mother received guests in a lime champagne, crepe dress with matching gloves and shoes. Her turban hat was swathed in matching tulle, and her corsage was of miniature white roses.

The groom's mother assisted in a pink crepe dress and large picture hat, matching accessories and a corsage of miniature white roses.

For a honeymoon trip to Port Carling, Muskoka, the bride donned a green paisley suit with matching hat, white gloves, shoes and bag. On their return they made their home at 123 Balmoral Ave., Toronto.

Special guests at the wedding were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. E. J. Burley and great aunt, Mrs. Margaret Cribbe of Sunbury Penn.

The groom's mother, his aunt Mrs. Ann White, and brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lantz, motored from Wetaskiwin, Alta., to attend the wedding. Other out of town guests were the bride's great aunt, and Mr. Fred Myer, a friend of the family who motored from Sunbury, Penn. and others from Barrie, Sudbury, Markham, Toronto and Georgetown.

On the evening prior to the wedding a dinner party was held by the bride's parents to welcome some who had come a distance to attend. After the reception, a party was also given at the bride's home where her parents celebrated their 27th wedding anniversary.

Mrs. W. H. Kentner Was Prominent Church Worker at St. John's

Widow of one of Georgetown's most prominent businessmen, Mrs. Howard Kentner, 81, died in Georgetown Hospital on September 24th. She had been ill for several months.

The former Florence Hammond Cole, she was a native of the Ballinacraig district. Before her marriage she lived with her parents, the late Levi and Sarah Callier Cole on their farm beside Blue Mountain School, now the property of S. G. Bennett.

Following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Kentner lived in Toronto for a time, then returned to Georgetown where in 1912 he purchased the Georgetown Lumber Company from the Lawson estate. With branches in Toronto and Milton he operated this until 1956 when he sold the business to Beaver Lumber Co. Mr. Kentner also operated a fuel business with his son.

Mrs. Kentner had been an active church worker at St. John's United. She was treasurer of the Women's Association for many years. She had been a member of Georgetown Women's Institute and Georgetown Lawn Bowling Club.

Predeceased in 1964 by her husband, she leaves two children, Claude and Marjorie, Mrs. Jack Bailey, both of Georgetown, four grandchildren and one great-granddaughter. An only brother, William Cole, lives in Milton.

Funeral service last Tuesday at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home was conducted by Rev. Ian Fleming with interment following in Greenwood

THE GEORGETOWN HERALD
Thursday, October 6th, 1966
PAGE 11

Cemetery. Pallbearers were Norman Icam, Albert Dawson, Frank Kentner, Graham Farnel, Harding Price and Vernon Cole, Guelph.

CAR INSURANCE DUE?

Save with State Farm's low insurance rates for careful drivers. See me.

Geo. E. Drumm
42 Langstone Cres.
877-6148

STATE FARM MUTUAL

Canadian Head Office
Scarborough, Ontario

CONCRETE GRAVEL
BUILDING SAND
ROAD GRAVEL
FILL and TOP SOIL
STONE WORK
TOM HAINES
Glen Williams 877-3302

L. M. BROWN, O.D.

OPTOMETRIST

at 35 MILL STREET, Georgetown
(just off Main Street)
PHONE 877-3671

Mr. & Mrs. Jack Thompson Now Hagersville Residents

A late summer wedding in Alban's Anglican Church, Glen Williams united in marriage Lynda Joy Davies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davies, 25 Normandy Blvd. and John Charles Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thompson, Glen Williams.

Pink carnations decorated the church for the double ring ceremony conducted by Rev. John McMullin. Soloist Mrs. Dorothy Stopper sang The Lord's Prayer during the signing of the register accompanied by organist Mrs. R. Williams.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a floor length white crepe gown with long lace sleeves and lace train falling from the shoulders. Her shoulder length three-tiered veil of nylon trimmed with pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and white mums.

Matron of honour Mrs. Jeanette Hancock, bridesmaids Mrs. Beverly Shea, and Miss Virginia Mountstevens, and junior bridesmaid Miss Kim Shea, were gowned alike in pink and gold brocade floorlength gowns with white accessories and carried white mum nosegay bouquets.

Miss Leslie Ann Davies was flower girl in a pink floorlength organza gown and floral headpiece and she carried a basket of mums.

Lorne Thompson was groomsmen and ushers were Gordon Hancock, Charles Davies Jr. and Douglas Davies.

For the reception following in the Odd Fellows Hall, Georgetown, Mrs. Charles Davies received for her daughter in a two-piece mint green suit with white accessories and a corsage of white mums, and was assisted by Mrs. Harold Thompson in a rose satin dress with beige accessories and a corsage of white mums. A dance followed in the Canadian Legion Hall.

Departing on a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls and through western Ontario, the bride wore a white suit with pink accessories and a corsage of pink-tinted mums.

The bride and groom will make their home in Hagersville where the groom is employed with the Canadian Tire Corporation. The bride was a Smith & Stone employee until shortly before her wedding.

Guests from London, Hagersville, Glen Williams, Acton, Hillsburgh and Georgetown attended the wedding.

MR. AND MRS. JACK THOMPSON

Size up GMC for 1967!

A GENERAL MOTORS VALUE

Here they are! GMC's big, bold new trucks for 1967! Pickups with all-new styling. Strong, clean lines which further enhance GMC's reputation for Engineering Leadership. This great new look carries over into GMC's all-new 96" BBC medium-heavy duty cab series shown above. On top of this: New engine/transmission combinations! A whole new list of standard and optional features! 1967 is your year for GMC!

0910 GMC pickup with extra-cost Super Custom option! Now you can have your GMC truck transformed into luxurious transportation. With bucket seats, console, full carpeting, bright trim inside and out.

GMC

What a difference a name makes!

All-new 108" WB Handi-Van! GVWs to 6,000 lbs! GMC's popular 90" WB 1/2-ton Handi-Van now available in larger 108" WB size with 47 cu. ft. more loadspace. New 108" 1/2-ton model available in GVWs to 6,000 lbs.

See your authorized GMC Truck dealer

PETE MASSON MOTORS LTD.

124 Guelph Street — Georgetown, Ontario — Phone 877-6986

Be sure to watch televised Canadian Football League Games. See local listings for time and channel.