

Ashgrove Community Shower For Bride-Elect S. Critchell

A happy time was had on Thursday evening, Oct. 13 when the community held a shower for Shirley Critchell who is being married early in November.

Hostesses Mrs. Bob Ruddell, Mrs. Charles Austin, Mrs. Fred Nurse and Miss Edna Fisher had decorated the room with pink and white bolls, crepe paper and white watering can and wishing well. After a program of accordion numbers by Doreen Fisher, readings by Mrs. John Bellbody, Mrs. Austin conducted a couple of contests and quizzes.

The bride-to-be was asked to sit in a decorated chair on the platform to open her gifts. She was assisted by her sister Janie and her maid of honour, Mrs. Brian Lewis. After thanking everyone and inviting them to visit her in her new home, lunch was served to conclude a pleasant evening.

The first meeting under the new executive of Ashgrove, Hornby and Bethel Young People's was held Sunday evening in Ashgrove United Church, with 42 attending.

The meeting opened with a hymn and roll call was "Who Am I?" An invitation was received from Lovville Young People to their Halloween dance October 22nd. Rev. Keith Hawkes played a record on the subject "Who Am I?" and a discussion followed. Lunch was served by the Ashgrove group.

Craft Demonstration Is Successful Riviera Event

Last Saturday the Arts and Crafts group of Georgetown and district held their annual exhibition and sale at the Riviera Norval.

This year the weather didn't cooperate as it has on past occasions, but an excellent crowd braved the steady downpour to attend.

The many crafts practised by club members were on display, and a number of guest artists were present to demonstrate.

Worth special mention were the demonstration of silver-planting and the display of spinning wheels and clay concretions. Also commanding special interest was the demonstration by a potter of his art. An electrical potter's wheel had been set up by the artist, and this attracted crowds to watch, all day long.

Coffee and donuts were served in the morning and an afternoon tea was held from 1.30 in the afternoon.

WHY?

WHAT'S THE REASON for the Remembrance Park flag at half mast? That's a question that callers have asked of The Herald during the past two weeks without gaining satisfaction. We just don't know. The traditional sign of mourning is apparently a false alarm, since the Municipal Office is also unable to explain the lowered standard.

Six Day Cycle is Boon To High School Program

Georgetown high school students are enjoying earlier school dismissal and at the same time spending more time on each subject in a new system called the six day cycle which was introduced here this term.

The system was designed to overcome a number of problems which have bothered secondary school administrators and here at least it appears to be successful.

The difference is that the new class schedule is now a six day schedule. That is, it repeats itself every six days. While the old school schedule used to start every Monday morning and end Friday afternoon, the Six Day Cycle, for example, starts Monday morning and runs for six school days, ending the following Monday afternoon. The schedule will then start over again Tuesday morning and run for the next six school days.

"The main advantage of the Six Day Cycle is that the periods are longer," principal D. F. Turner explained. "Last year each of these 29 minutes long, there were 42 periods jammed into the five day schedule, now with a six day schedule we are able to make the periods 45 minutes long. This allows the teacher more time to get into the lessons and not be rushed to complete them."

No matter what the period may be, at least five minutes will be lost on the average in students preparing to move to their next class, moving, and settling in. In the old system this left less than half an hour in which the teacher had to handle homework, teach a new lesson, assign homework, and assist with the start of an assignment. Longer lessons had to be rushed to be completed and shorter lessons occupied the whole period.

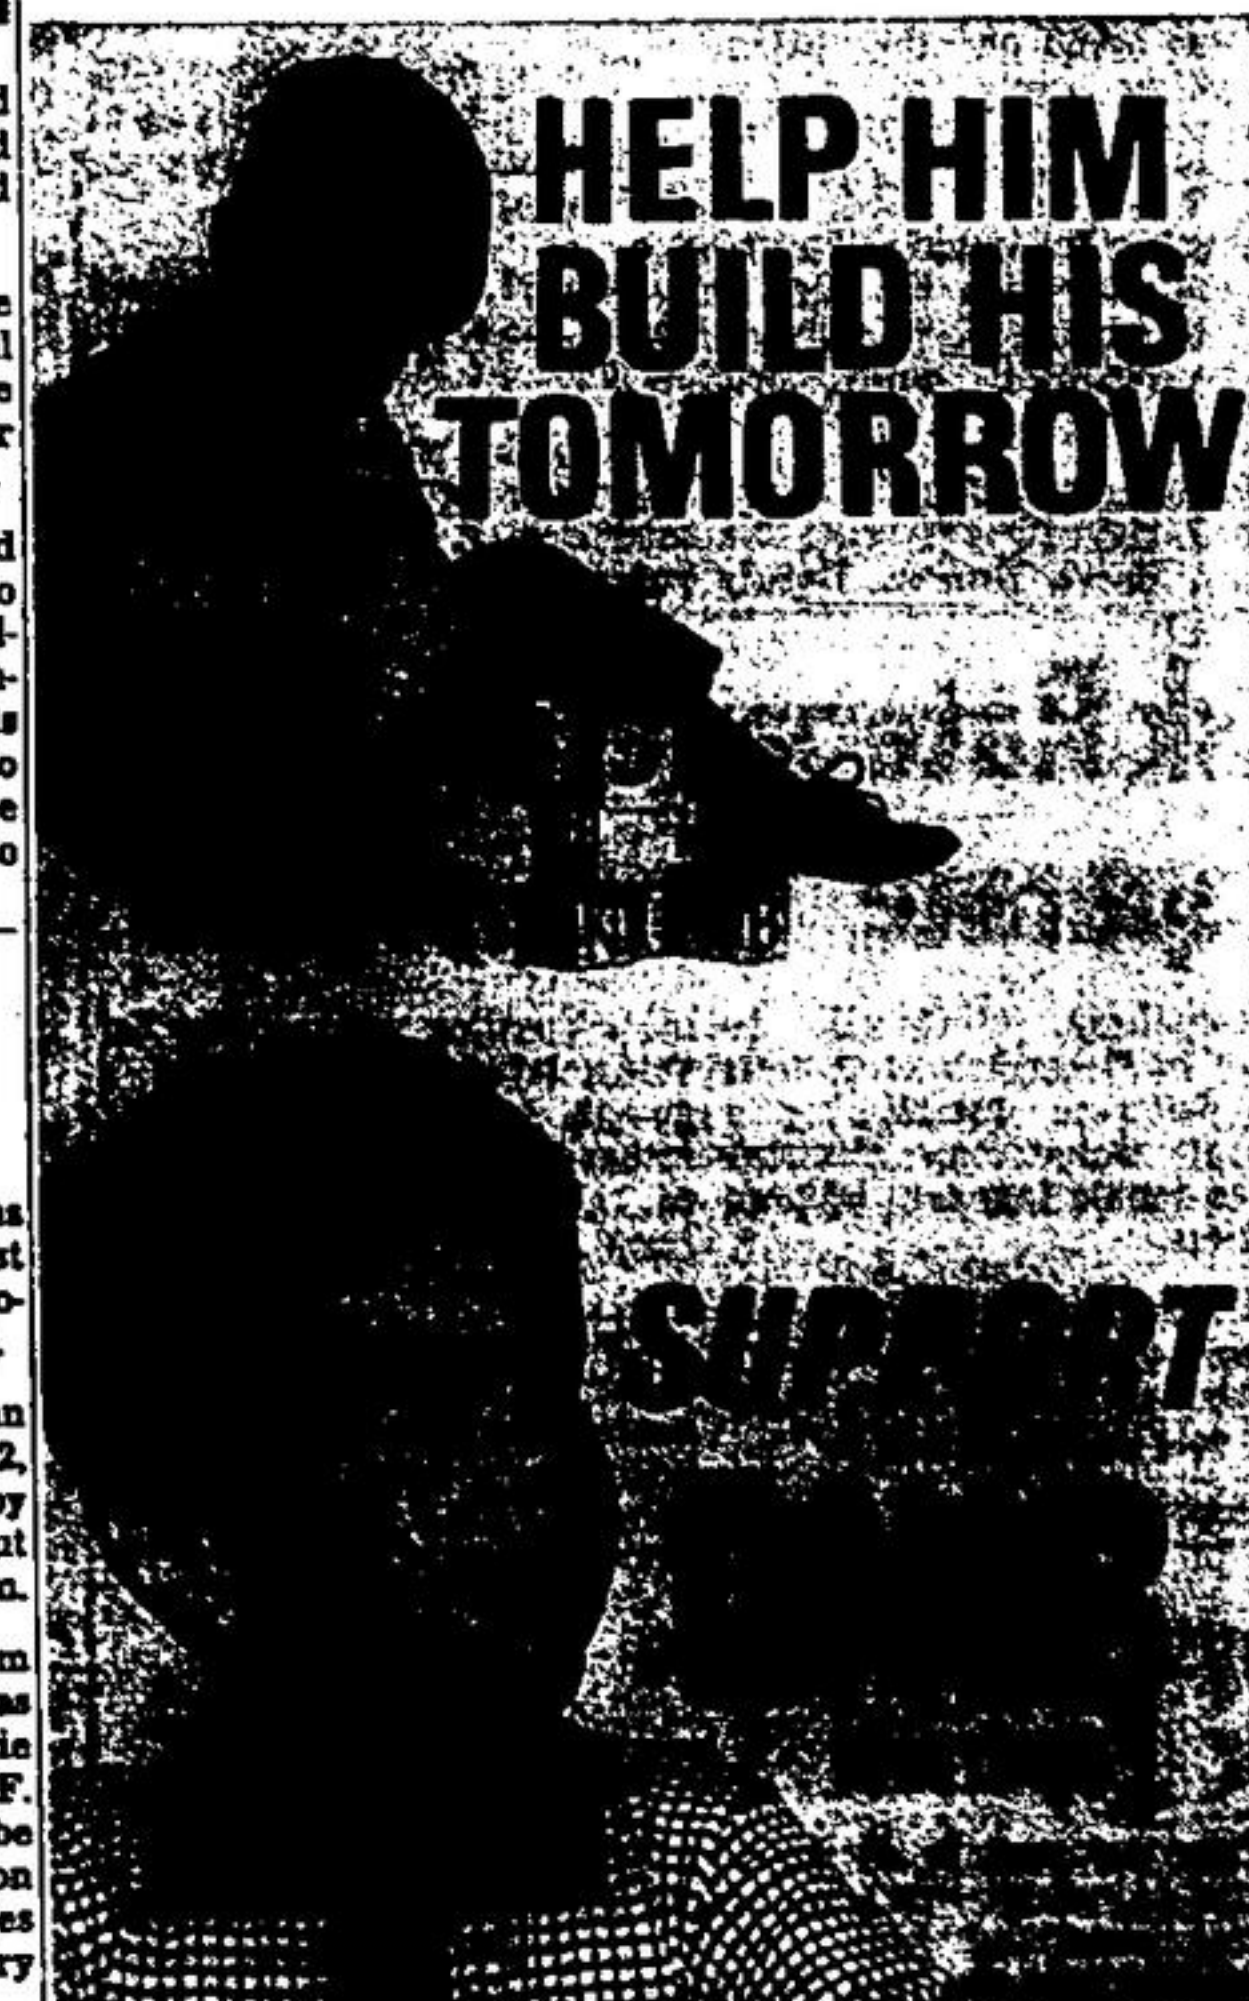

Some subjects, notably Science, Geography, Shop and Physical Education, simply could not be taught properly in the shorter periods.

Dismissal has been moved up a half an hour from 3:40 to 3:10 p.m. The cafeteria schedule has also been changed. Instead of two lunch periods from shortly before 12 noon to 1:40, there are now three lunch periods from 11:45 to 1:40.

The sky over Georgetown was the set of a movie scene last Tuesday with Avian's gyroplane having the leading role.

NAME MISSED
The name of a bridesmaid, Miss Barbara Thompson, was omitted from an account of the Thompson-Davies wedding, in the October 6 Herald.
