The Horald is where

Georgetown, Ontario, Thursday, November 10th, 1966

IN HOSPITAL

Mayor Joseph Gibbons

attributed to his diabetic con-

His doctor, Dr. J.H. Chamberlain told the Herald it's expected Mayor Gibbons will be

October Accident Toll

and a total of $20,130, property kept in hospital for the admitted to Georgetown

trict Memorial Hospital

day night suffering an

"doing fairly well".

ance of the week.

$5.00 per year; Single Copy Price: Ten Conta

SHOWERED

GEORGETOWN DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL'S five 1966 Ontario Scholars stand on the dais in the school's auditorium as a capacity crowd showers them with applause during Commencement exercises Friday night. The Ontario Scholars, who received 80 per cent or better in eight Grade 13 papers written at the end of last term, are (I to r) Simon Llewllyn, Lerry Steif, Philip Walker, Elizabeth Hansen and Elizabeth Hay.

Fleming Accepts Call To United Church In Preston Intersection

Rev. Ian Fleming, minister of ed Church, Kingston, and was St. John's United Church for at Cherry Valley, Prince Ed. intersection, Mountainview Rd. six and a half years has accept- ward County, when he came to at River Dr., was the scene of ed a call to a Preston church. Georgetown, He succeeded Rev. another automobile accident He will assume his new duties Morgan McFarlane, now in Sunday. as minister of St. Paul's United Ottawa, as minister at St.; Church there on January 1st. John's.

Besides his pastoral duties Mr. and Mrs. Fleming have at St. John's Mr. Fleming has three children, David, a first Williams, collided at the corn- Korea. taken an active part in the year student at Queen's, Jamie er at 10:50 p.m. community, particularly as in Grade 11 and Beth, a Grade controvan of the board of Ced- 7, pupil at Centennial school. arvale Centennial Centre. He has served as secretary-treasur-er of Georgetown Ministerial Health Unit Nurses Back Association.

eame to Canada with his par- At Work Again A native of Scotland, he as ents in 1927. After overseas service with the army medical the Halton County Health Uncorps, he followed in his father's footsteps, graduating in it and other branches through Arts and Theology from Queen's the county are back in busin-University. He served the Bay ess this week, Charge, Napanee, Cressy and as assistant at Queen St. Unit-the differences. The first announced candiby letter to Council Monday "It will take a little while benight. A letter from James Em- fore everything is back to normerson submitting his resig- mal." nation from the Planning Board, said he intended to be a candidate.

Jim Emmerson First Election Candidate

James Emmerson served on girls are back," he said, puty reeve's position.

Another Accident At Dangerous

Georgeton's most dangerque

Police said property damage totalled $450 when cars driven by Henry Groenveld, Brampton, and Walter Dixon, Glen Groenveld was northbound on Mountainview and making a left turn onto River Dr., and Dixon was travelling south on Muntainview when they hit.

Investigating officer, Dave Bell, secorded damage to Groenveld's 1960 Olds as $300 and to Dixon's 1957 Chevrolet

King and Union Streets Nov. 1 lain, recited the prayers. involved a 1963 GMC truck op-The 21 nurses who quit their erated by Douglas F. Harley jobs in September over a dis-pute with county council about collective bargaining rights re-Schenk, Prince St., Glen Wil-dividuals and organizations a tribute to district men who sumed work after it was az-reed negotiations would re-icles were westbound on King damage. St. when the collision occurred. Cst. Roy Henderson stated property damage as $350 to the car, and $40 to the three-quarter ton truck.

Remembrance Service Honour's The Fallen

A solemn service of remembonoured 65 men who lost their lives in two world wars in

The service took place after arrival of a large parade at Suit In Doctor's Remembrance Park which included Legionnaires and auxiliary ladies, members of the Lorne Scots Regiment, firemen Guides and Brownies and municipal officials. Georgetown-Citizens Band and the Girls Pipe Band played for the march.

An accident at the corner of Kelvin Johnston, Legion chap- er woman for a total of $1,000,- ed around the cenotaph by in- Monday. dividuals and organizations as David Bowman, M. M. wa According to police, both veh- parade marshal.

Alcott is New President Toronto Life Underwriters

Gordon W. Alcott C.L.U. former Georgetown has been elected president the Life Underwriters Association of Toronto for 1967.

Eye Highway Sile

For Police Station

insurance business in 1953 and A hospital spokesman said yesterday that the Mayor is earned his C.L.U. designation in 1958.

> In his 13 years as a representative for Sun Life he has earn ed an enviable record and this year achieved the company's top production club for the 13th consecutive time.

in 1936 was honoured this fall the offer, information could be Includes One Fatality when Georgetown Lions Club obtained. held a memorable banquet at North Halton detachment tended by hockey greats, and Ontario Provincial Police, remany of the men who played the method of financing, while Crs. W. Smith and A. Speight port 39 accidents occurred in the Georgetown league Reeve W. Hunter wanted to were absent from the meeting. during the month of October, which led to a national organicausing 1 death, 14 injuries zation.

and leader of the Pax Bible This brings the toll for the Class, the largest Presbyterian year to date to 375 accidents, bible class in Canada.

146 injured, 5 killed, and $239,736 property damage as a This Sunday he is returning result of accidents in the de- to town as speaker at the morning service in St. John's Uni-

Non - Resident Children brance on Sunday afternoon Continue Kindergarten

Million-Dollar Traffic Death

tachment's territory.

Mrs. Jean Bebenek, widow of Dr. B. J. Bebenek, who lost his life as the result of an automobile accident near Georgetown's south limits December Rev. Norman Young and 23, 1965 is attempting to suc Mayor Joseph Gibbons gave ad- the Two, of Essuesing, the dresses at the service and Rev. Town of Georgetown and anoth-

000. it was disclosed in the Memorial wreaths were plac- Halton County Court House, driven by Mrs. Doreen O'Hearn room.

was collided with by a car driven by Dr. Bebenek near the crest of a hill, Mrs. Bebenek is bringing non-residents. the action on behalf of herself and her two children.

the Supreme Court of Ontario. late auditorium.

Children in Georgetown pub lic school kindergartens who and Union Presbyterian churwill have their full ten month has been elected moderator of when there is no policeman on the east end of town. The publing Norval six years ago. lic school board explained Mr. Royal was born in Col at that time that they were ob- lingwood and served in the Caand if overcrowding at the kind- sity of Toronto and Knox Colergarten level occurred be- lege. He was moderator of West cause of a sudden influx of Toronto Presbytery in 1959. He Mr. Justice Morand was told new families, all of the non-served as a member of Esques. that Mrs. Oliver has radio that the accident occurred on resident children would leave ing School area public school a slippery road when a car school at Christmas to make board during his residence in

> Now it appears the building boom won't be big enough or MINUTE'S come fast enough to affect the SILENCE

Trustees agreed at "be board FRIDAY meeting Wednesday that the STARS AGAIN Tom Trouten has another starring role in Hamilton in Council Prepares Offer to Purchase Armstrong House As Headquarters

offer of purchase, authorized the house. by council Monday night, . old Armstrong residence at the corner of Maple, and Guelph Street, became the likely spot life for police headquarters.

and Deputy Reeve J. Young, ranted it. first stated, "that the town purchase the Armstrong house at a cost of $18,000," however it R. Ballentine emphasized that was amended to read '-prepare all the renovations would not an offer of purchase," when be done at once. He, too, felt some councillors felt they it was a key location. would like more information. His work in establishing the In the time between preparing Little NHL hockey organization the offer and actually making

Cr. F. Harrison questioned

With the preparation of an know how much land went with

Cr. Hyde stressed the need for more space for the policemen. He admitted there would have to be more money spent to change the house into offices but felt the location and the The motion, by Cr. E. Hyde solid state of the house, war-

Agreeing with Cr. Hyde, Cr.

The motion to prepare the offer of purchase to buy the house from RAD Construction at a cost of $18,000 passed with Reeve Hunter and Cr. Harrison

Mr. Alcott is also founder Explains Police Always Available in Emergency

New Moderator of Synod Was Norval-Union Minister

· A former minister of Norval the Hamilton and London syn- duty?"

When the non-resident chil- Delegates chose him at the dren were enrolled in Septem- synod meeting in London last ber, parents were made aware week to succeed Rev. Donald C. that their term could be abbrev- MacDonald of Simcoe. Mr. Royal iated, because of an unknown has been minister of Knox Presnumber of homes planned for byterian, Goderich, since leavligated to accommodate Geor- nadian army from 1942 to 1945. getown school age children. He is a graduate of the Univer-

Citizens are reminded that a minute's silence should be ob served at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning (Friday, Nov. 11th), in honour of those who lost their lives during the two World Wars and the Korean Schools will be closed in observence of the annual? Remembrance Day.

Monday night H. Gunding, Byron St., told council of his surprise upon phoning the police office and being unable to get a policeman. "The phone rang six times then a lady answered. She said she could contact one if necessary". Continuing be demanded, "Am I live outside the corporation ches, Rev. G. Lockhart Royal to understand there are times

> Deputy Reeve J. Young. chairman of police, pointed out that they could have been out at an accident, or on the beat, when Mr. Gunding called. He explained that Mrs. Oliver would have called a policeman immediately if it had been an emergency. "When you told her your call was regarding dogs running loose, she would take the message and give it to them when they came in,"

Cr. R. Ballentine explained instant service can be provided if necessary.

Mr. Gunding also suggested the dog control by-law was not being enforced properly. In reply Cr. Ballentine stated be had fewer complaints recently than ever.

Following on this complaint, a letter of congratulation to the police from Metropolitan Developments Ltd. on their prompt action in coming to the plaza immediately when the lights failed there Friday evening during shopping hours.

"Well, I guess this event things up," commented the chairman.

A meeting was held Monday night but without resolving Three Stage Building date for the upcoming municipal elections was announced ficer of Health, for Halton said Promised On Acreage the routine would be started. The offer, made through W Dr. Bull said he had been F. Sunnucks Real Estate, stat- In the end he hoped to have feated last year by James planning for the day of the re- ed the cost to be $8,217. The a much larger building but The action was transversed The Sound of Music which op-

An offer from Howard Tarz- and ten thousand square feet of Also bringing an action ag- possibility of non-resident KP well to purchase lots 62 and building erected immediately, ainst Esquesing and George children starting their summer 63 in the town-owned industri- By 1970 another ten thousand town and Mrs. Bebenek is the holidays six months early is The most urgent things would at area, was turned over to the square feet would be built, and O'Hearn family who, were in very remote. be dealt with first and then property committee on Monday by 1972, a further ten thousand the other car involved. They are asking for damages totalsquare feet. ling $105,000.

creek.

ced with chain link fencing, the present.

Young in his bid for the de- turn. "We're very happy our area would be completely fen- would not commit himself at to the next non-jury sitting of ens Friday in Westdale Colleg-

A Walk On The Bruce Trail Before The Snow

The Georgelown branch

sume immediately.

The section of the Bruce Trail passing north of Georgetown has an austere kind of beauty in November. Fifteen members of the Georgetown Y's Naturalists' Club walked along it last week-end on their last organized hike before the snow flies. They assembled at the junction of the Trail and the 9th Line of Esquesing and walked the winding path almost to No. 7 Highway at Silver-

The club meets on the third Tuesday of each month and tries to arrange an outing for the last Sundry of each month. At their last meeting they viewed an outdoor film 'The Enduring Wilderness."

Crossing a stile on the Trail at left are hikers Steve, and Nina Palichuk, Mrs. Helen Hansen, andLinda and Sue Palichuk and Ann Hansen.

ald Livingstone and son Scott. (at right.) At extreme right, Jim White, president of the club, waits while son Craig takes a breath-

On the same hike were Don-

