

GEORGETOWN VOTERS WILL BE CHOOSING from their current mayor, a former mayor and a former reeve when they go to the polls Monday, Dec. 5th. Joseph Gibbons, John Elliott and Ern Hyde, respectively, let their names stand when nominated at the town's municipal nomination meeting Tuesday.

BALLINAFAD

Ballinafad Student Gets 2 Commencement Awards

The winners at the last week's euchre were Mrs. Keith Webb, Mrs. F. Hall, Messrs. Bert Davidson and Frank Smith and Miss Margaret Binnie.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Neilson sold their house recently and have moved to West Hill. They will be missed in the community but we wish them the very best in their new home.

Congratulations to Donna Shortill whose name appeared in the awards of Erin High School last week. She received the honour award given by the Hillsburgh Institute and also the Mr. W.N. Finnie History award.

The group of hunters from Ballinafad returned home last week and didn't have as good luck as other years.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie McKim spent three or four days over last week end at their cottage in the French River district.

Mrs. F.J. Shortill was the hostess on Tuesday evening for a combined units' meeting when the area vice-president on Presbyterian Mrs. Roy Couler made her annual visit. Mrs. Lawr presided and was assisted in the devotion by Mrs. Leo Jamieson. The roll call was answered by a remembrance verse or thought and the missionary topic taken from the new study book, "The Church in Canada" was discussed by Mrs. E. McEnery and Mrs. Healy. Several announcements were made including the Bazaar on Dec. 3rd a Sunday School family day Dec. 18th, and the Turkey supper in connection with the reopening of the Church on Nov. 29. Another gift of baby clothes made by Mrs. D. Russell was brought in and it was her wish to have them sent to Rev. Yun Ming Lee in Korea who had visited with Beatons when they were here. A letter was also received from Rev. Tonge in Hong Kong where the last baby clothes had been sent along with the donation of $10. for drugs. A social time was enjoyed at the close of the meeting.

Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. William McNally, 22 Market St. and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barber, 1 William St., flew to the Bahamas and spent last week in Nassau.

Mrs. Rose McPhail, Davidson, Sask. visited for a few days last week with her brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hall and family on Margaret Street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Martens Fiske, Sask., flew down and spent a week visiting with her uncle and aunt, Mr and Mrs. Ivan Hay and family. Mrs. Martens who had lived here with the Hays for a couple of years enjoying renewing acquaintances with friends in town. They motored home in their new car.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Jones, Orchard Blvd., were in Chippawa recently attending the wedding of Miss Eleanor Louise Weaver, Chippawa, and Mr. Hubert Freeman Cass, Queenston. The marriage took place Nov. 5, at 6 p.m. in Chippawa Presbyterian Church. Cass was formerly an Assistant Accountant here at the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce and at the present time is the accountant at King City.

Miss Daisy Wareham, Bournemouth, England who is spending some time here with her niece and family Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Douglas, Morris St. is visiting in Royal Oak, Michigan, with her brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Eric Wareham for a couple of weeks. Little Tamara Douglas accompanied her and is visiting her grandparents.

George Earl Hyatt, 79 Was Lifelong District Farmer

A farmer all his life, George Earl Hyatt, 79, died in Peel Memorial Hospital on November 2.

Mr. Hyatt was the last surviving member of five children born to William and Nancy McGill Hyatt. He was born at Lot 5 Concession 6, Chinguacousy, attended Huttonville Public School and farmed on the home property until he retired five years ago. Now operated by his son Mac, the farm has been in the Hyatt name for 123 years.

He was an elder of Norval United Church and a member of Fountain Valley Orange Lodge No. 211, Huttonville.

In 1916, he married Jean McBride, who predeceased him two years ago this December. He leaves six children, William and Mac, RR 1, Norval, Mrs. Spencer Wilson (Kay) RR 1 Norval, Mrs. Hugh Leslie (Eloise), RR 4 Georgetown, Mrs. Norman Somerville (Ethel) of Port Arthur and Mrs. O.M. Mason (Doris) of Brampton; and 22 grandchildren. His first great-grandchild, John Rodney Spencer Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson was born the day of his funeral.

He was predeceased by a brother Jim and sisters Mrs. Lee Wilkinson, Mrs. Robert Reid and Mrs. Garfield McClure.

Normandy Collision Damages Two Cars

Alvin Francis White, Port Credit, and James Hillhouse, RR 2, Brampton, escaped injury when the cars they were driving collided on Guelph St. at the Normandy Blvd. corner, Sunday.

Police said White was westbound and making a left turn into Normandy Blvd. when in collision with the eastbound Hillhouse car.

Property damage was $450 to Hillhouse's 1961 Pontiac and $400 to White's 1960 Vauxhall. Constable Henry Vanderhall made the investigation at 4:45 p.m.

Family Treasure Hunt Theatre Members

Members of the Georgetown Little Theatre took time out from set construction and rehearsal of their Dec. 8th, 9th and 10th production of Charley's Aunt to pack families in their cars and scour the countryside on a treasure hunt Sunday.

The hunt was inspired and organized by Cathy and Gord Hunt. Cars started from the Hunt's at approximately 1 p.m. Each car received clue sheets with detailed instructions in poetry.

The idea was to unscramble the poetic clues and collect a total of eleven letters along the route which were then combined to form the name of a well-known political figure.

Points were also awarded for some facts about Georgetown and a stone weighing approximately 1 lb. Points were deducted on a mileage basis.

There was no time limit set and with perfect weather and a scenic route it turned out to be a real fun day.

Checking in point was (Cedarvale) Centennial Park where all contestants enjoyed hot chocolate and cookies while the scores were being totalled.

Members of Globe Productions rehearsing their next pantomime joined the Little Theatre for refreshments.

First prize was awarded to the Goebel family, John Mary, Julie, Lauren and Jeff.

KID HOCKEY

NHL

The spectators and fans of the National League (Bantams) of Legion Minor Hockey of Georgetown, saw twenty five goals scored in the four games played Nov. 19th as they cheered both winner and loser.

Goals from D. Williams, J. Ponti, B. Cartwright, Bob Cunningham, with assist from J. Ponti, D. Quanbury, D. Williams, E. Cunningham and K. Emmerson put Detroit well ahead of Philadelphia's lone goal by D. Ward from D. Long, as Bob Tost's Red Wings won 4 to 1.

In the second game D. Guest scored two unassisted goals, one the winner and backed by one goal each from Martino and Sproule with D. Corbett an assist powered St. Louis over Boston's one unassisted goal - by Bob Francis, 4 to 1.

Los Angeles tightened up the scoring with goals from Guy Hennessy one and C. Fendley two while D. Burns and Hennessy picked up assists but not enough to overcome New York's M. Phillips two goals and goals each from Runham, Martin and No. 7.

McAusland, Johnson (3), Terry Neil and No. 7 collecting assists as Jim Cooper's powerhouse Rangers won 5 to 3.

Chicago and Toronto supplied the thrill of the league as they battled goal for goal 3 to 3 until Steve Storey broke the deadlock on the Leafs on an unassisted goal with eight minutes to go in the game. Other goals for Toronto came from B. Brown from J. Rea before the game was a minute old, then J. Rea scored unassisted followed by E. Maher from No. 9 and Alex Ovenden.

Herb Hancock's Chicago scorers were P. Barefoot, D. Garland and Brian James with assists from B. Stansil, D. Demore, Steve McLellan and C. Sargent two.

JUNIOR A

London outplayed Oshawa in the first game of the Junior A to win 2-0. Bruno Martina and Mark Rush picked up the National goals.

In the second game the Bodnar twins, Grant and Greg scored one each with Bill Bradley netting the other. Kevin Carmichael scored the lone goal for Niagara Falls. Kim Bennett and Mike Magdy led the Hamilton Red Wings to a 2-1 victory over the Peterborough Petes. Dale Wloczanski was the outstanding player for Peterborough picking up their lone goal.

Kitchener completely outplayed Montreal to win 9-0. Ken Soverin and Jeff Inglis scored four each. Art Taylor picked up one goal and two assists to round out the Kitchener scoring. Charles Peavoy maintained the shutout for Kitchener.

Dale Richmond in the Montreal net was injured during the game, which forced coach Bob Monckton to put Glen Monaghan into the goal. Despite the lopsided goal he played well.

HUNDREDS ACCEPT TORONTO DOMINION'S INVITATION

GUESTS OF THE TORONTO-DOMINION Bank's general invitation to inspect their new facilities at the corner of Main and James Streets survey the gleaming new interior. The bank, one of the first tenants of the new Sidmac building, featured an antique coin bank display during open house Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. David Crichton Was Lifelong Resident Of Georgetown

A resident of Georgetown all her life, Mrs. David Crichton, 79, died at her home, 34 King St. E. last week.

The former Gertrude Mae Thompson, she was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson. She had been active in organization of St. George's Anglican Church in her younger days, as a member of the choir and the W.A.

She leaves four sons, Jack of Limehouse, Raymond of Rockwood, David of Owen Sound and Richard of Brampton; 11 grandchildren and brothers and sisters Ray and Wallace Thompson of town, Herbert of Hamilton, Mrs. H. Wheatley (Ethel) of Ayrmer and Mrs. Russell Salmon (Irene) of Bracebridge. She was predeceased by her husband and brothers and sisters, Garnet, Jack, Russell, Mrs. A.B. Bradley (Clara) and Mrs. Fred Wilson (Jennie).

Rev. Harold Llewellyn conducted the funeral service on Saturday at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home and interment was in Greenwood Cemetery. Pallbearers were John T. Armstrong, Graham Farnell, Joe Hall Jr., Dick Licata, Stuart Young and Emery Thompson.

George Earl Hyatt, 79 Was Lifelong District Farmer

A farmer all his life, George Earl Hyatt, 79, died in Peel Memorial Hospital on November 2.

Mr. Hyatt was the last surviving member of five children born to William and Nancy McGill Hyatt. He was born at Lot 5 Concession 6, Chinguacousy, attended Huttonville Public School and farmed on the home property until he retired five years ago. Now operated by his son Mac, the farm has been in the Hyatt name for 123 years.

He was an elder of Norval United Church and a member of Fountain Valley Orange Lodge No. 211, Huttonville.

In 1916, he married Jean McBride, who predeceased him two years ago this December. He leaves six children, William and Mac, RR 1, Norval, Mrs. Spencer Wilson (Kay) RR 1 Norval, Mrs. Hugh Leslie (Eloise), RR 4 Georgetown, Mrs. Norman Somerville (Ethel) of Port Arthur and Mrs. O.M. Mason (Doris) of Brampton; and 22 grandchildren. His first great-grandchild, John Rodney Spencer Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson was born the day of his funeral.

He was predeceased by a brother Jim and sisters Mrs. Lee Wilkinson, Mrs. Robert Reid and Mrs. Garfield McClure.

Funeral service on November 11 took place at the David A. McClure Funeral Home, Brampton, with Rev. Walter Ridley, Norval and Rev. Lloyd Freeland, Clarkson, conducting the service. Pallbearers were nephews Fraser Reid and Senator Harry Willis, and Lawrence May, J.M. Fraser, Hamilton McLaughlin and Norman Laidlaw Flower bearers were friends and neighbours. Interment was in Hillcrest Cemetery, Norval.

Family Treasure Hunt Theatre Members

Members of the Georgetown Little Theatre took time out from set construction and rehearsal of their Dec. 8th, 9th and 10th production of Charley's Aunt to pack families in their cars and scour the countryside on a treasure hunt Sunday.

The hunt was inspired and organized by Cathy and Gord Hunt. Cars started from the Hunt's at approximately 1 p.m. Each car received clue sheets with detailed instructions in poetry.

The idea was to unscramble the poetic clues and collect a total of eleven letters along the route which were then combined to form the name of a well-known political figure.

Points were also awarded for some facts about Georgetown and a stone weighing approximately 1 lb. Points were deducted on a mileage basis.

There was no time limit set and with perfect weather and a scenic route it turned out to be a real fun day.

Checking in point was (Cedarvale) Centennial Park where all contestants enjoyed hot chocolate and cookies while the scores were being totalled.

Members of Globe Productions rehearsing their next pantomime joined the Little Theatre for refreshments.

There's Something In It For Everyone!

THE GEORGETOWN HERALD

- SERVICES
- THE MERCHANDISE YOU NEED
- COMING EVENTS
- SPORTS
- LOCAL NEWS
- PICTURES
- ENTERTAINMENT

TO HAVE THE HERALD DELIVERED TO YOUR DOOR JUST PHONE

877-2201