Week of Firsts in Saturday Loop
First Penalty Shot, First Draw

The NHL had its first tie on Saturday, Nov. 20 as Detroit and Montreal battled in a first, played, close checking, 1-1 game.

Scoring for the Red Wings G. Gagne and J. LaRose. Montreal scored by J. Letts.

The first penalty shot was scored by Boston with C. Bayre. Bayre's second goal of the season was not enough as M. Williams had 4 goals and 1 assist for New York. Other goals were from B. Johnson, K. Uschak and J. P. Jones, playing for the first time.

Scoring for the Hawks were E. Perkins assisted by C. Sarant and D. McLean, unassisted.

Toronto blasted Los Angeles 7 to 1, opening the game with 5 unassisted goals before W. Satchan scored from C. Fendley for the losers.

Eight players counted in the scoring for the winners with the unassisted goals coming from James Rea one, Steve Storey two, one the winner, one each from E. Maher and A. Orendon, then Bruce Boyling scored from Maher and F. Scott with Brian Brown from Rea and B. Day rounded out the total of 7.

At Fergus, Saturday, it was a different story. C & V's missed several scoring chances, but Gene Inglis made no mistake on his opportunity to put Georgetown in front. Goal keepers dominated the second period, but in the third the C & V's returned to form and Fin Arnold registered the second goal.

On Thursday, in their fourth attempt to win at home, Georgetown C & V's presented their best team effort to bounce Preston 4-1, each line taking a hand in the scoring.

Fin Arnold started things from Rick Lavell early in the first period, and Glen Roblin soon banged in Fin Arnold's rebound after Georgetown's successfully weathered two minor penalties in the late stages.

Though well played, the second period yielded nothing in the way of scoring plays despite two penalties to each club. Georgetown scored their 3rd and 4th goals before giving up one to Preston. Dennis Norton struck on a goal-mouth pass from Arnold, and Barry James slugged in a loose puck after Bob Frawley hit the goal post.

C & V's now have a 5 wins, 3 losses record and play at home again Dec. 8 against Bramalea.

The number of players coming out to play for their teams has been disappointing in the first few games. This is hard on your coach and manager, who are giving up their time to help you.

Would the parents please try to cooperate a little more and help to help your son. There was an improvement on Saturday and the scores showed the difference.

Now you boys come out and the old commissioner promises you a real write up on goals and improvement of players.

JUNIOR A

In the first game of the day, Marlies squeaked by Peterboro 2-1. Gregory Bonar, Tom Fitzmaurice and Bob Bradley scored for Marlies. Bradley's goal was scored on a breakaway and turned out to be the winner. Dale Mieczanec scored one for Peterboro, as did Doug Thompson.

Mike Osborne scored twice to lead Hamilton to a 2-0 win over Montreal. Terry Lee in the Hamilton goal held Montreal scoreless.

Oshawa scored the first goal of the game, but to have Kitchener come back and score 6 in a row, in a 6-1. Jeff Inglis scored four, Ian Syne and Ken Sovran one each for Kitchener. David King was the lone scorer for Oshawa.

The most exciting game of the morning saw St. Catharines and London battle to a 1 all tie.
