Engleby-Irwin Wedding In First Baptist Church

On December 3 in First Baptist Church Victoria May (Vickie) Irwin and Frederick Arthur Engleby were united in marriage in a ceremony performed by Rev. L.E. Wilton. Baskets of pink and white carnations and gladiolus decorated the church.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Irwin 70 River Drive, wore a street length dress of white organza taffeta, with bustle back trimmed with bows. She wore a white nylon tulle veil and a tiara of pearls and carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's sister, Mrs. Florence Vessey, R.R. 1 Georgetown, was matron of honour, wearing a pink flowered chiffon over taffeta, white accessories and a pink velvet bow headpiece and tulle veil. She carried pink and white carnations. Mrs. Walter Townend was organist and Mrs. Donald Hancock sang the Wedding Prayer.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Lawrence Steenhuis was groomsman.

At a reception in the church hall the bride's mother received wearing a burgundy red knit suit, winterwhite felt hat, black accessories and a corsage of white mums. The groom's mother assisted, wearing a pale grey brocaded dress, black accessories and a corsage of pink tinted mums. Among wedding guests was the bride's grandfather, Mr. James W. Irwin, of RR 6, Dresden.

For a honeymoon trip to Chicago, the bride wore a cam-wool suit, beige hat, black accessories and a corsage of gold and bronze carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Engleby are living at 4 Byron St. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Engleby 78 River Drive, and is employed with Provincial Paper er, Ltd. His bride is employed with Northern Electric, Bramalea.

SILVER-WOOD Silvercreek Women Learn Embroidery

Members of Silverwood Women's Institute had a real treat last week.

Mrs. George Henderson was hostess on November 22 and 23 to Mrs. Florence Smith and members of the W. L. Mrs. Smith, from the crafts section of the Dept. of Education home economics branch taught members and visitors Jacobean and crewel embroidery. The ladies were very enthusiastic about learning this new skill and are already doing splendid work.

Silverwood 4-H club girls and their leaders Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. A. Keir went to Toronto on November 26 where they had a tour of the new city hall and attended the play "Royal Hunt of the Sun" at the O'Keefe Centre.

Auxiliary Profit $500 From Dance for Hospital

Over five hundred dollars was realised from the gala Hospital Auxiliary dance Friday night at the Riviera.

The cocktail party, from nine till ten launched the evening in pre-Christmas mood. The buffet table was tastefully decorated with hand made candles and centrepieces. The hors d'oeuvre and appetizers were prepared by members of the auxiliary.

The Johnny Hood Orchestra kept the two hundred and seventy guests dancing till one o'clock.

Lorraine Stephens won the lucky draw.

The committee responsible for the success of this annual dance were, Mrs. F. Buchanan, Mrs. G. Sampson, Mrs. J. Ord, Mrs. Logan MacDonald, Mrs. R. Thompson, and Mrs. G. Hewson.
