Florida Honeymoon Couple Now Living in Coakville

A honeymoon trip to Florida followed the marriage on November 3 of Shirley Jean Critchell and William Wilfred Tutt. Rev. Ian Fleming officiated at the four o'clock ceremony in St. John's United Church. There were candelabra on the altar and baskets of bronze and gold mums mixed with autumn greenery. Miss Barbara Evans sang Wedding Prayer and Blessure. Mrs. W. Stone, Brampton, was organist. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Critchell, Ashgrove, wore a peau de sole silk floor length gown with empire waist and cut velvet bodice and sleeves, with a coat train. Her finger ring veil was held with a crystal crown and she carried a bouquet of orange delight roses. Mrs. Elaine Lewis was matron of honour. Two nursing classmates at Guelph General Hospital, Sandra Dehling and Diana Egg were senior bridesmaids, and her sister Janis Critchell was junior bridesmaid. They wore floor length gowns of green velvet and green de sole. Bridespieces of green velvet rose petals and green veiling, and carried bouquets of bronze and gold mums mixed with gold ribbons. Tyrone Tutt was his brother's groomsmen and when he was his cousin, Larry Houghton, and Bradford, Ron Ruston, Coakville and the bride's brother James Critchell. At a reception at Hornby Tower Golf Club, the bride's mother wore a beige metallic two-piece dress, brown accessories and a corsage of baby yellow mums. The groom's mother also received, wearing gold satin and brown accessories and a corsage of bronze mums. The bride's travelling costume was a green wool two-piece suit, beige and black.

Mission Box is Christmas Project for St. Andrew's

As has been the custom for a few years, members of the UCW of St. Andrew's United filled a box for missions as a Christmas project. The ladies held their Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Kelvin Johnston. The deeper meaning of Christmas was expressed in the devotional read by Mrs. Donna Robbins and Mrs. Linda Stieritt and a number of carols were sung. Small gifts were exchanged and a number of games played. A game of guess the identity proved to be mystifying to everyone. A buffet lunch was served. Mrs. Pat Costley entertained members at the November meeting with slides and narration of her trip to Japan. Mrs. Laverne Ryder, the president, thanked her for her talk. PRIVILEGED BABIES The hospital auxiliary in Nipigon will present a silver spoon to every baby born here in Canada's Centenary Year. The first arrival of 1967 will win a blanket as well.
