Little Chance Of War's End

SAIGON (Reuters) — Evangelist Billy Graham said today he is pessimistic about the chances of an early end to the Vietnam war.

At a press conference, Graham said:

"I leave with more pessimism about an early end to the war. It is a very frustrating, confusing and complicated war. All briefings I have had indicate that the conflict may be longer and harder than I once believed."

Graham toured South Vietnam over Christmas.

STILL NOT LOST

LONDON (CP) — One Londoner in every four doesn't know what borough he lives in, a survey found. Some borough boundaries and names were changed when the Greater London Council was formed last year. One third of those polled did not recognize the GLC, a new creation which is neither a city nor a county council.

Swiss Send Aid To Viet Children

BERN (Reuters)—The Swiss government has decided to send 50,000 Swiss francs (about $58,000) worth of aid to North Vietnam, mainly for child victims of the conflict there, it was announced recently.

In October, Switzerland helped South Vietnam by building a 60-bed children's ward at a civilian hospital at Da Nang.

The decision to send aid to North Vietnam followed a recent visit to Hanoi by the Swiss ambassador in Peking, Hans Keller, to find out what help could be given the north to match that already given to the south.

The announcement said the money would be paid to the Swiss Red Cross, which would send medicine and food to the North Vietnamese Red Cross.

Pulpwood Production Rose In September

OTTAWA (CP) — Pulpwood production during September rose 18 per cent to 1,526,425 cunits from 1,230,186 cunits in the same period last year, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported recently. Consumption increased 13 per cent to 1,268,895 cunits. A cunit is 100 cubic feet of wood.

REMEMBER WHEN . . .

Pancho Villa went out of his weight 44 years ago tonight—if 1922 — and outboxed bantamweight Terry Martin over 15 rounds. Outpointed early in 1923 by Frankie Genaro, Villa went on to knock out Jimmy Wilde of England for the world flyweight championship but died in July, 1923.

Outlook Gloomy In Coming Year

BUENOS AIRES (Reuters) — Argentina's most popular astrologer has forecast that several spacemen will lose their lives in an accident in 1967.

But the astrologer, Marino Migliese, did not specify where the accident would take place.

He said the accident will be just one low spot in a "tremendously unfavorable" year that will see the world come to the brink of war but step back again.

Among other predictions: Britain will be beset by internal troubles; France will take a sharp turn to the left; trouble in Spain may lead to the withdrawal of Francisco Franco as head of state; French President de Gaulle will only just avoid a similar fate; both China's Chairman Mao Tse-tung and U.S. President Lyndon Johnson will be harassed by failing health.

Actor Dies

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor-writer Robert Keith is dead at 61, relatives have disclosed. Keith died at his home last Thursday. He began his career as a stock player when he was 15 and later performed in several Broadway plays and Hollywood films. He wrote the 1927 Broadway play, The Tightwads, and wrote dialogue for several films.

LEAVE CHEESE GAP

CHEDDAR, England (CP) — Cheese connoisseurs will find no vintage November and December, 1966, cheeses from this Somerset town because there aren't any. The milk marketing board cut off milk products processing so there would be enough milk and cream to meet the extra Christmas demand.
