Bullet Hits House Police Investigating

A bullet which passed through a door and lodged in a wall of a house on Duncan Dr. has been sent to the Attorney general's lab for examination by the Georgetown Police Department.

The .22 calibre slug entered the home of Carl Hipson from the north-west side. Police inspector Harley Lowe said it was apparently fired from somewhere in Georgetown's Industrial Park on the opposite side of No. 7 Highway.

He said the stray shot was likely triggered by a careless small game hunter. The police have two suspects.

JAIL FOR HOLIDAY

Ever wonder why Grand Jury continually maligns the outmoded facilities of Halton County's dungeon-like jail? Drink and drive New Year's Eve and Georgetown Police will see to it you have all January 1 to inspect the cells.
