Don't send, take your boy to the arena!

Mayor Speaks Out for Hockey Week Support

Mayor Joseph Gibbons yesterday stated that he will "Keep in Step with Canada" by supporting Minor Hockey Week, and issued a call to every citizen to do likewise.

In announcing his support of Canada's most publicized week, Mayor Gibbons said: "In view of this being Canada's Centennial Year, I think it is more important than ever that we support those who make it possible for our boys to take part in Canada's National Sport." He went on to say that "it is not only my privilege, but my pleasure and duty to suggest that we show our support of the local minor hockey program by visiting the arena this week. Minor Hockey Week in Canada is the nation's most successful amateur sports promotion and our opportunity to pay tribute to those who make it possible.

"By our attendance," he said, "we can do many things. We can buy tickets and thus support the program financially; we can attend and show our interest in what our boys are doing; but most important, for this week at least, we can pay tribute to the volunteer workers who make it possible for our citizens to boast that our community has one of the best minor hockey programs in Canada. Let us pay them tribute."

"By their work they are providing our youngsters with an opportunity to play hockey. Out of this comes better bodies, healthier minds, and of course, better boys and citizens. There will be of course better hockey players and if we are fortunate, it may be that one or more of the boys produced in this fine program may eventually become members of Canada's National team. When that happens, we shall indeed be happy that we all supported minor hockey and Minor Hockey Week."

Many Participate In Minor Hockey

Minor Hockey Week starts Saturday and minor hockey enthusiasts all across Canada and the United States will be drawing attention to what minor hockey can do, and does, for boys.

Here in this area minor hockey is an important part of winter life for hundreds of boys and the arenas of the district are kept busy with young players being guided and taught by men and youths who give of their time because they have a love for hockey and for working with boys.

Their work is no 'soft touch'. There is a lot to do, and a lot to be done, and rarely, if ever, are there enough volunteers to fill all the management, coaching, time-keeping and refereeing positions there are to be filled if all the boys who want to play are to be accommodated.

Minor Hockey costs money, too. There is ice time to be paid for, sweaters and equipment to be supplied, as well as all the little expenses that add up to such a large total. Service clubs and sponsors help out, but much is left for parents, and much is left for the volunteers to get out and raise as best they can. For this too, they deserve our support and commendation. This is the week, "Minor Hockey Week" when we salute them.

It would be discriminatory for us to mention individuals and we leave that to the proper authorities. Suffice for us to say that the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association makes available "Plaques" and "Scrolls of Merit" so that each community may pay tribute to its outstanding officials. Only five plaques are issued to each province in a year, but the C.A.H.A.'s minor hockey will provide an attractive scroll to any community that wishes to recognize one of its volunteer workers.

While we are mentioning the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association let us say a word about their work on behalf of hockey in Canada. It seems that they are often placed in the position of making unpopular decisions, but we must admit that those who so readily criticize do not always have all the information. In any event, the C.A.H.A.'s efforts on behalf of minor hockey cannot be denied. But let's take advantage of their offer and make good use of the scrolls and plaques locally.

To make minor hockey function all across this great nation (and it does) takes an alert national governing body, an active provincial organizations (which we have in the various regional hockey associations) and energetic local groups. We are fortunate to have these, too. But most of all, it takes boys. Boys are the life blood of the game, as they are of the nation, and we are pleased that through the efforts of the various organizations about 250,000 Canadian boys are being given an opportunity to play properly supervised, well organized hockey. Truly, hockey is Canada's national sport and more boys will take part in this healthful rousing activity than in any other game.

So we suggest that each one of us take time to visit the arena during Minor Hockey Week. By doing so we will be paying our tribute to the men (and ladies) who make it all possible. While we're at it, let's hope that minor hockey continues to flourish and exert its influence for good for more and more local youngsters. Maybe, one of these years, one or more of our own youngsters, graduates of our minor hockey set-up, may be given the opportunity to represent not only this community, but Canada, by winning a place on the C.A.H.A.-sponsored Canadian National Team.

CURLING CHATTER
from North Halton Golf and Country Club
by Bob MacArthur

The most important event of the past week at the curling club was the spilt that decided the trophy holders of the Rice and McHarg cup for the year. The team headed by Harry Sanderson, with D. Crichton, Bill French and Logan Macdonald will have their names inscribed as the 1967 winners on the handsome mug. In the first Harry Brown played on the winning team in place of Macdonald. The Sanderson team won a total of 23 points, while the second place team headed by Graham Farnell scored a total of 20 points. The team skipped by Ernie Curry took third place with a total of 16½ points. Owing to the scarcity of entries, only one draw was held, instead of the two draws usually played.

Ben McHarg, one of the donors of the trophy was on hand to present the trophy to the winners. Ben also supplied refreshments to all the players as they came off the ice after the first game of the draw, which the contestants appreciated.

The snows on the hills surrounding the club house has become a mecca for the owners of snow scooters. Most nights a number of the motorized hoggans can be seen winding their way over hill and dale. The club house also makes a good rallying point for the enthusiasts to come in out of the cold to warm up.

The next spilt for the club members is the Hepburn trophy, which will be played for on January 26th. As of last Saturday, the quota for ladies was well over subscribed and the men were only lacking two curlers to fill the quota for two draws. With nearly two weeks to go, maybe three draws will be necessary to take care of all those wishing to curl.

Tip for the newer curler — When the opposing vices are deciding which stone lies shot, please keep out of the circles as let the vices do their job. Of course, skips and older curlers are just as guilty of crowding into the end as the new curlers, and they should know better.

Here are the standings of the various leagues as of Saturday, January 14th.

BANTS BOUNCE BRAMALEA
Georgetown Bantams avenged an earlier defeat at the hands of Bramalea by downing their hosts 3-0 in a Tri-County League game Saturday. Ingle, Hoppes and Kudasov were the goal scorers.

Armbro Flight, owned by Elgin, Charles and Ted Armstrong was named Canadian Horse of the Year.

Mr. Sandman, driven by ABC Farms trainer Gerry Bayman, was Friday night named the All American Horse of the Year in the harness show pony division.

World champ Mr. Sandman has never been beaten in the past two years.

ABC Farms captured first, second and third trophies at the American Horse Shows Association annual banquet Friday night in New York.

Judged second in the harness show pony awards was Fashions Miss Alice, with Marden Fidelity third.

Miss Alice has formerly been judged all American Amateur and Ladies Champion Pony.

The show season ended with the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto, Gerry Bayman explained this week on his return from New York, and the annual prizes were awarded for the ponies scoring the highest number of points for the year.

Mrs. Armstrong and her daughter showed ponies in all the ladies and amateur classes throughout the year.

They went to New York together to collect the trophies leaving Mr. Armstrong to walk away with the Canadian prize at the trotting association banquet the day before.

Outshot But Midgets Score Where it Counts

Georgetown spotted Milton a two goal lead till late in the second period and then came roaring back to edge Milton 4-2 in a regular Tri-County League game Thursday night.

For four minutes of the first period, Georgetown carried the attack to Milton, but after that, the visitors completely took over, firing fourteen shots at goalie Bob Neil, who was a standout in net for Georgetown. In particular, he made three key saves on breakaways that could have put the game out of reach by the end of the first period. A goal by Cole of Milton at the ten minute mark was the only shot to elude the Georgetown netminder in the first period.

At 4:04 of the second period Cole again cashed in to give Milton a 2-0 lead. It wasn't until half way through the period that Georgetown started to press. At 13:12 Gerry Moody converted a pass out from the side of the net from Bruce Davies to put Georgetown back in the game. This seemed to lift the team, with Milton playing a man short, Dwayne Hay banked a long shot off the back boards, and Marty Fowler on the fly took the rebound and blasted it into the upper left hand corner past a startled Milton netminder. The second period ended with the score tied 2-2 and Georgetown on the attack.

The third period was only twelve seconds old when Hay
