

Tripp - Murray Wedding In Norval United Church

Standards of white mums and blue carnations decorated the Norval United Church for the wedding on November 12 of Norma Marie Murray and Robert Melvin Tripp.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F.J. Murray of Norval, wore a white satin gown with empire waist and rounded neckline, appliqued with lace and seed pearls and topped with a lace coat. She wore a headdress of sequins and seed pearls, a shoulder-length veil and carried a cascade bouquet of red roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Miss Lorna Elliott, Brampton, was maid of honour, Mrs. John Hutton, Churchville, was bridesmaid and the bride's cousin, Denise Wake of Rosemount, was junior bridesmaid. They wore floor length gowns of blue shantung and midnight blue velvet in empire style, wedding ring velvet headresses and shoulder length veils. They carried bouquets of white shasta daisies with blue velvet bows and streamers.

Rev. Walter Ridley officiated. Ron Laidlaw was organist, and Mrs. John Ottawa, a cousin of the bride, sang the Wedding Prayer and I'll Walk Beside You.

The bride was given in marriage by her father in the double ring ceremony. The groom's brother, Norman Tripp of Port Perry, was groomsmen and ushers were Ross Lane, Port Perry brother-in-law of the groom and Brian Evans, Norval, cousin of the bride.

At a reception in Esquesing, Community Hall, Stewarttown, the bride's mother received them wearing a green two-piece bro-cessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother also received, wearing an olive green two-piece dress with gold accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

For a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls the bride wore an emerald green stroller suit with black fur collar and cuffs.

Mr. and Mrs. Tripp are living at RR 4 Stoutville. The groom, a graduate of Kemptonville Agricultural School, is employed in the science and engineering department of the agricultural college at Guelph.

The bride, a graduate of Lakeshore Teachers' College is a school teacher in Whitechurch Township. Mr. Tripp is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Tripp of Port Perry.

Glen House Damaged When Rammed by Car

A thousand dollars damage was done to a Glen Williams house when it was rammed by a car Saturday afternoon.

Ontario Provincial Police said the vehicle, operated by Donald Wray of Limehouse, was eastbound on No. 20 side road when it left the road at a corner and struck the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hancock. The Hancock house is on a Glen side street west of the 9th Line of Esquesing.

Cst. Wally Jordon of North Halton detachment of the OPP investigated the unusual mishap. It occurred at about 2:30.

Clay flowerpots look dull. Brighten them up by painting them to blend with the colour scheme of the room.
