Scoring in bursts Georgetown Raiders steamrollered over Oakville Blades in the opening game of their best of 7 OHA Junior C semi-finals in the Memorial Arena Sunday afternoon.

The final strains of the anthem were still bouncing around in the ice palace rafters when Raiders staggered the young Oaks with a one-two punch combination before the game was a minute old.

Loading 3-1 they triggered a burst half way through the middle period that spanned the difference to 5-1 in just a little more than three minutes.

The helpless Blades were on the ropes and buckling under a 6-2 deficit when a three-goal flurry inside 25 seconds caught them with their guard down and put the decision out of doubt.

Raiders released their fourth burst in the dying minutes of a four-goal rally against an almost defenseless remnant of a hockey club that started the game with a patchy lineup and deteriorated as their stars left the bench with new or recurring injuries.

A Raider stickout was Jim Blair. A solid type through most of the season, Blair attained 25 p.h. on the skates Sunday which he hadn't approached before, and virtually led the charge with a six-point afternoon made up of two goals and four assists.

Ron Lane hit his old stride and came out of the tussle with a hat trick backed up by three assists for a six point showing. Rod Presswood netted a pair of goals and an assist.

The balance of the baker's dozen came from Don Norton, Rick Maloney, Phil Lavell, Kent Robinson, Paul Robinson and Terry Hay.

Georgetown rearwards Mike Cummins, Phil Lavell, Rod Presswood and Dave McMenemy were a tremendous help to the offense in scuttling Oakville's efforts to regroup and turning them into Raider rushes.

In fairness to a good hockey team Oakville's injury problem is approaching epidemic proportions. Bill Perras sustained a rib injury and goalie Gerry Goebel injured an elbow and left the tilt in the first period. They join Wayne Bowden, Gord Armstrong and Doug Thomson on the sidelines.

Raiders were without Bill "Hummer" Dwyer, nursing a broken wrist, and Ron Stewart nursing a tan on a California vacation.

Don Norton started all the lamp lighting at 13 seconds from Dave McMenemy. Presswood doubled it at 57 seconds from Terry Hay and Ron Lane scored Georgetown's other opening period goal from Blair at 14:05.

Oakville showed a flash of their old potency with a goal early in the middle period by John Scott from McCauley and Ellis, but it only served to spur Raider snipers to greater things. Blair struck from McMenemy and Johnson at 11:28, and Presswood from Ron Lane and Lavell moments later. The frame ended 5-1. Georgetown scored another goal in that period that officials chose to wash out and ignored the crowd's pleas for an explanation.

Georgetown had 16 shots on the Oakville goal in the third period and scored on every other shot. Oakville failed to start the proceedings of the final act, Baker doing the honors from McCauley.

Raiders' answer went like this: Maloney from Norton, 9:13; Lavell from Blair, 11:05; Ron Lane from Blair and Lavell, 11:23; Kent Robinson from Blair and Ron Lane, 11:29; Ron Lane from Blair, 15:09; Paul Robinson from Terry Lane, 16:31; Terry Hay from Presswood and Maloney, 18:51 and Blair from Ron Lane, 19:51.

Mrs. Milton Harker Legion L.A. Member

A Georgetown resident for twelve years, Mrs. Milton Harker, 67, died at her home, 16 Arletta Street on February 5th.

She was a member of the Ladies Auxiliary, Canadian Legion, and had been a member of the executive last year.

The former Ida Florence Nealson, she was a native of Sillery, Quebec and had lived in Toronto for several years before moving to Georgetown.

She leaves her husband, four children, Stanley Foster of Montreal, Gwen Foster, Toronto, Leona Foster, North Bay and Milton Foster, Georgetown; a sister Mrs. Lorna Sleeth, Sillery, and brothers Nicholas Nealson, Leaside, E. "Babe" Nealson and Earl Nealson, Quebec City.

The Rev'd Eric Mills of St. George's Anglican Church conducted the funeral services at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home on February 7th, with interment following later that day in Prospect Cemetery, Toronto.

GDHS Capture CWOSSA Honours in Wrestling

Georgetown District High School wrestlers continued to show their prowess Saturday as they captured the CWOSSA 'A' Wrestling tournament honours at Kitchener. The eleven-man team took on and defeated eighteen of the top wrestling schools in Central Western Ontario. All of the 125 competitors had qualified for the meet by being champions or runners up in their own district.

It was a very fitting reward for Mr. Joe Ingarozza, whose excellent coaching techniques were very obvious, as four of his grapplers reached and won the championship matches. Jim Hill 115 lbs., George Ferguson 123 lbs., Jack Walings 141 lbs., and Doug Hills 157 lbs., picked up the first place awards for the team.

However, tournaments are not won by four members. Every member of the team contributed towards the final outcome and all can be justly proud of their achievement.

Team members who placed in the top four of their weight classes were:

Norman Ferguson 3rd, 198 lbs. John Hamilton 4th, 168 lbs. Barry Smith 4th, 183 lbs.

Other team members contributing to the victory were Brian Hills 106 lbs., Terry Campbell 130 lbs., Vince Graham, 138 lbs., and Joel Tost 148 lbs.

The final team standings were as follows:

Georgetown	70
St. Jerome's (Kitchener)	59
Southwood (Galt)	51
John F. Ross (Guelph)	49
Forest Hill (Kitchener)	43

Evicted Family Gets Overnight Accommodation

Council meeting was dramatically interrupted Monday night, when a man stuck his head in the door and announced, "I've got a family outside who have just been evicted. They have no place to go tonight and I have their furniture on my truck."

He said he hoped council approved of his actions, and told them he would start trying for a long term solution the next day.

Hastily, Welfare Chairman Roy Ballantine got up and left the room with the man.

Returning much later in the evening, Chairman Ballantine announced the couple with a two month old baby, had no money, no job, and no place to go. He had put them over overnight in one of the upstairs rooms at Cedarvale, and had their furniture stored somewhere in Norval.

Spring Calls, Baseball Enthusiasts are Meeting

You can pass off the weather prognostications of a groundhog as pretty unreliable — but when baseball men come out of hibernation you can bet spring is almost sprung.

Georgetown Giants of the Halton County Intermediate Baseball League have called a meeting for Monday to elect an executive and mull over the team's future at Cedarvale Community Centre and the public's invited.

Jim James, the 1966 president, said he hopes a good number of those who turned out to watch last season's games will join players, prospective players and officers at the meeting.

TWO DOWN TWO TO GO

Georgetown Raiders are half way to capturing their OHA Suburban Junior C League semi-final series with Oakville Blades.

Tuesday night in Oakville, they scored 3 unanswered third period goals to win game two 5 to 2.

Terry Hay scored two goals including the winner and Rick Maloney, Terry Lane and Ron Stewart notched the others. Game three will be played in Georgetown Sunday afternoon.

Plan Snowmobile Club For Enthusiasts in District

A club exclusively for snowmobile owners in the district may be the result of a meeting slated for the Georgetown Golf and Country Club, RR 4 Georgetown, Wednesday evening February 22.

Anyone who owns a snowmobile and is interested in forming a club is invited to attend the meeting at which the Ban-Banier company will show a film of interest to snow-scooter riders.

If enough interest in forming an organization for snowmobilers is voiced by those attending then the area will have its first such club. The group would have use of the Georgetown Golf Clubhouse facilities as well as the rolling property which is ideal for ski-buggy riding.

Included in the facilities are a sauna steam bath as well as the lounge and bar. Since the membership would cover the full year, members and their families would also have use of the club's swimming pool.

A club for snowmobilers has been in the talking stage since the first good snowfall this season revealed just how popular the fun machines have become.

Two Week Recess for Kid Hockey Playoffs

Due to other commitments at arena, Saturday morning Hockey will have a two week recess and will resume playoffs on Saturday March 4th. The Sr. League will move into Sat. morning March 4th and play 2 games goals to count in semi-finals.

The teams playing in the 4 Town Tournament in Fergus on Saturday, February 25th will travel by bus. All players will meet at the arena at 6:30. Any player who is going with parents please notify your coach or manager.

Mary Poppins Colourful Show for Ice Carnival

Instead of flying in as has been her habit, "Mary Poppins" will skate into the Ice Carnival February 25th.

At present everything is hush and bustle as the Georgetown Figure Skating Club practices feverishly.

Colleen Few will take the lead as Mary Poppins, and Michael and Jane Banks, the two children, are played by Sharon Hewitt and Linda Mooney.

Debbie Lounds plays the part made famous by Dick Van Dyke while Isabel Lieder plays the father, Mr. Banks.

There are soldiers, clowns, dolls, chimney sweeps, nannies and a host of others polishing their routines.

In a special salute to the Canadian Centennial sixteen of the more advanced skaters are featured.

A special trophy for centennial year awarded by Wigo TV will be donated to the most outstanding intermediate skater.

Guest stars, and soloists will make up the evening's entertainment.

Declare Trophy Winners in Lady Curlers League

The Ladies' Section of the North Halton Curling Club played their final games of a six-week series last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Trophies were awarded for each day's competition in the draw, based on the total number of points amassed for the six games.

Tuesday afternoon winner of the Gooderham & Worts trophy was the rink skipped by Annie Bingham, with Inez Crichton, Marjorie Allan and Ann Trueman.

Jan MacKinnon, Ev. Wingrove, Ann Timmins and Mary McInnis curled their way into top position in the Thursday afternoon games, to win the Acadian Distilleries trophy.

The Ruth Barber Trophy was presented to Bunny Moore's rink of Maddie Howat, Toos Burns and Verna Grozele when they topped both seven and nine o'clock draws in the Wednesday night games.

Toledo Blade Don Westbrook Impresses Visitors

Don Westbrook, a Georgetown man playing in the Central Professional Hockey League in the states, had his own private cheering section last week.

His wife, a Georgetown school teacher, Mr. and Mrs. Jim James, Ken Eddie and June Palmer, were in the crowd when Don's club, the Toledo Blades played a home game against Columbus.

Don plays right wing with the Blades, has one of the hardest shots on the team, takes the point position on power plays, and plays centre when killing penalties.

Ken Eddie returned home with a bonus, $85 prize money from threading a shot from centre ice into a small hole in a board across the net in a contest for spectators between periods.

Shoemaker Was One of Town's Oldest Residents

One of Georgetown's oldest residents, Edward Holmes, 93, of 8 Victoria Crescent, died in Georgetown hospital on February 5th.

Mr. Holmes had a shoe repair business on Guelph St. for many years, and prior to that was employed at the Dayfoot shoe factory.

He was born in Tumbidge Wells, England, and came to Canada at the age of 14. In 1902 he married the late Mable Cripps, of Acton, and they moved to Georgetown 61 years ago.

He was an adherent of First Baptist Church and a hockey fan.

He leaves three children, William and Helen of Georgetown and Hazel, Mrs. E. Locker of Brantford; two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Rev. L. E. Wilton conducted the funeral service at the H. C. McClure Funeral Home and interment was in Greenwood Cemetery. Pallbearers were Joseph Hall, Jr., Graham Farnell, W. J. Anderson, Emery Thompson, Don Livingston and Watson Winfield.

Little Theatre Premieres Canadian Author's Play

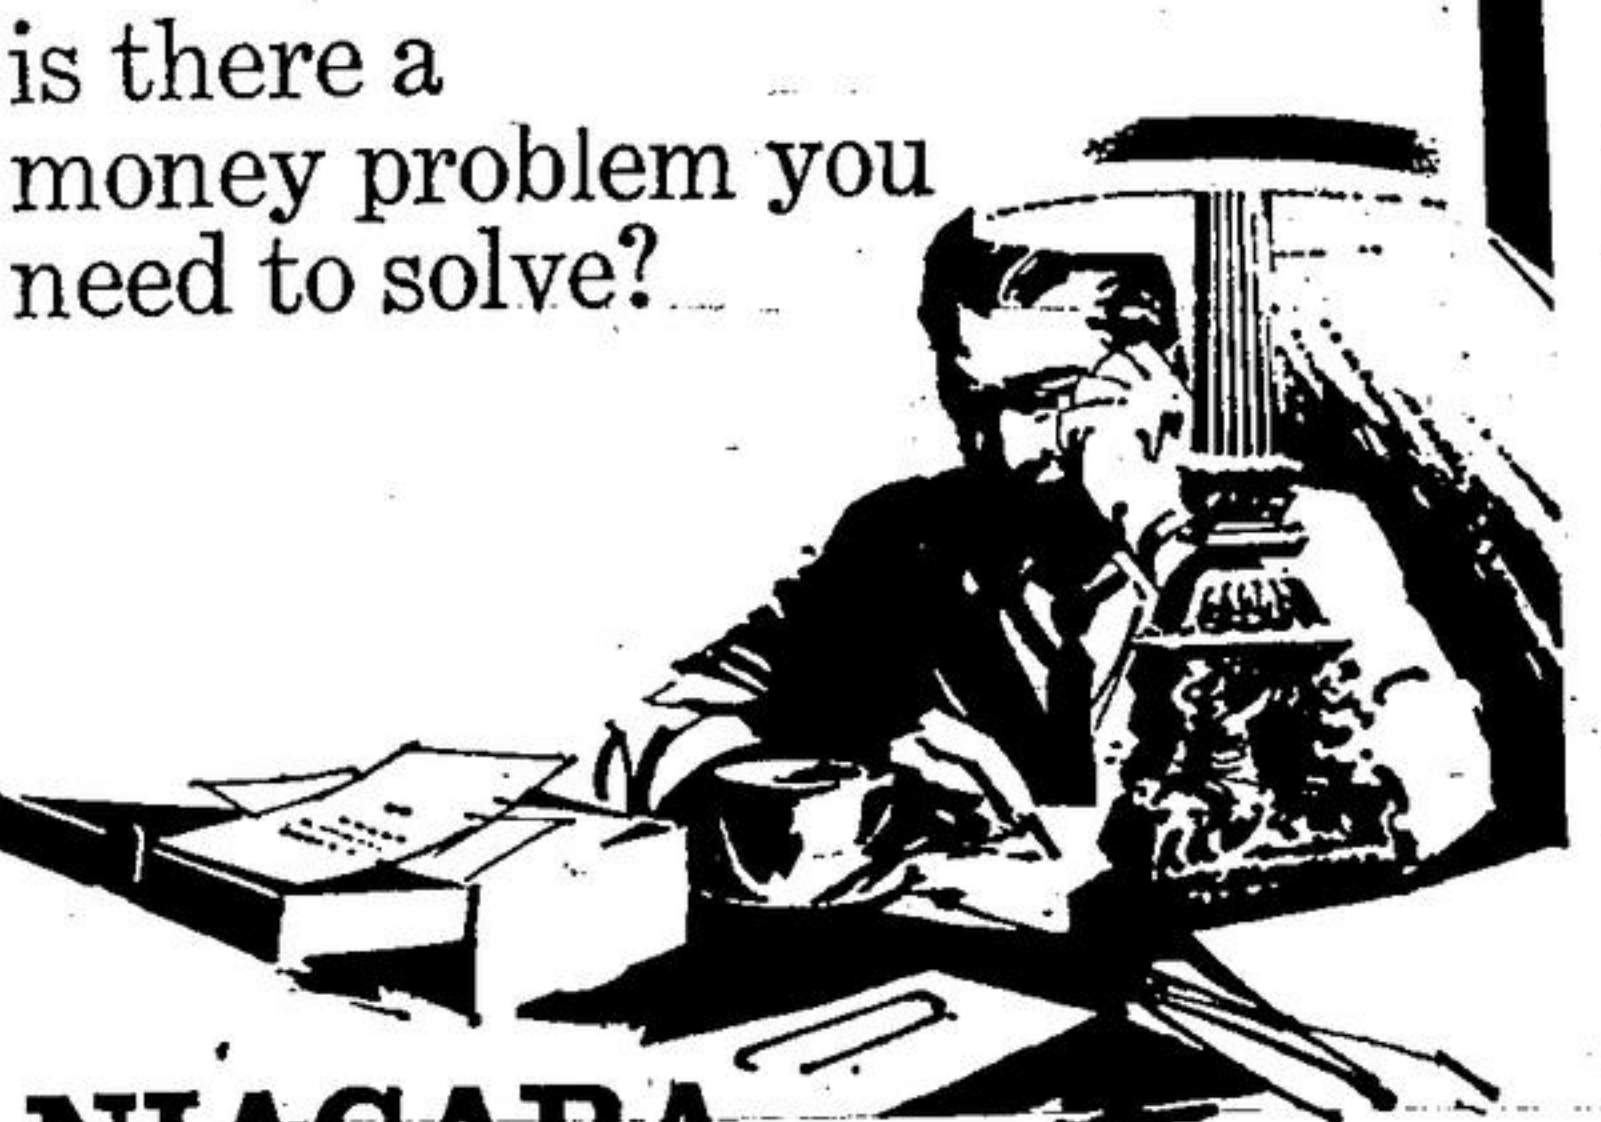

Georgetown theatre-goers will have an opportunity to see a play before it is presented in Toronto next week.

"A Little of What You Fancy" is slated to open at the "Poor Alex" in Toronto on March 8th. On Tuesday, February 21, Dr. Burner Jackson will arrive in Georgetown to adjudicate a performance by Georgetown Little Theatre.

Watching in the audience will be the author, Miss Catherine Wilbraham. Her play has already won a measure of fame, counting among its awards the Rita Farquharson memorial award for the best Canadian comedy written by a woman, the Lieutenant Governor's award for best Canadian play presented in the Central Ontario Drama League and the Samuel French award for that year.

Miss Wilbraham who is an editor with Macmillan Publishing Company has also written a serious play "When the Bough Breaks" and is working on a new play for presentation in Toronto later this year.

Dr. Jackson's stamp of approval Tuesday could mean a
