

Organize Explorers Group For Girls at Glen Williams

The Explorers group was organized last Wednesday afternoon in the United Church basement with seventeen girls attending. There were 5 O.G.T. girls and 12 Explorers. They opened the meeting with a song and games followed by a workshop period. They are starting the booklet for learning the purpose and promise. They meet each Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the church basement and any girls 11-14 years are welcome. Mrs. W. Klassen, and Mrs. L. DeForest, Counsellors.

The monthly meeting of the United Church Women was held on Wednesday evening, Feb. 1st, at the home of Mrs. W. Klassen. Nine members assisted with a roll call with 14 Valentine songs. The minutes were read by Mrs. Heinz Steinfatt. Several items of business were dealt with. The devotional was taken by Mrs. Paul Wagstaffe from Matthew 7, verse 12. The Golden Rule. It was decided to

Bud Snow is Chairman Ballinafad Hall Board

The annual meeting of the Ballinafad Community Centre was on Thursday of last week with Norman Sinclair as chairman. The financial report was given by Mrs. R. McEneaney which showed the hall as being in very good standing. Election of officers was as follows: chairman, Bud Snow; secretary Mrs. Ernie McEneaney; hall board, Bud Snow, Norman Sinclair, Ernie McEneaney, Dick Sheaffill Jr. and Reg French; who replaced Mrs. R. McEneaney. Tom Hill from Esposing Council, Reeve Alex Jackson of Erin Council. The treasurer is as yet not selected. Mr. Walter Linhan also retired. He and Mrs. McEneaney have been on the board since the beginning. William Hall, the contractor was also present.

Mrs. Leo Jamieson was the hostess for the February meeting of the Institute the theme being Citizenship. Mrs. Archie McEneaney was the convener and was assisted by Mrs. Frank Smith in the preparation of the program. Special guests present were Mrs. Webb, the district president and Mrs. Norris, past district board member. The roll call was answered by "Who does it take to be a good citizen?" and the motion given by Mrs. R. Sheaffill, Sr. was "Help someone up the ladder and you will be near the top yourself." Mrs. Leo Jamieson also read a paper on citizenship and after several matters of business were discussed, a social time was enjoyed.

Mrs. Jamieson and Mrs. R. Swindlehurst recently attended a leaders training school in Milton for 4-H home-making clubs.

Several ladies from this community attended the World Day of Prayer service on Friday afternoon. This year for the area it was held in the Church Hill Church.

Best wishes to Mr. Tom Mack on his 83rd birthday on Sunday.

Mrs. J. Black attended the regular meeting of Halton Presbytery in Waterloo on Tuesday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Archie Lawr had a very pleasant surprise on Sunday morning at 8 o'clock when she received a phone call from her sister in Hull, England. She had not heard her voice for 20 years and sounded very clear, just as if she was talking from Georgetown. The weather was a much different contrast with a beautiful spring day in England with crocuses blooming compared with one of the coldest nights on record here for the same date.

We extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLean who observed their 50th wedding anniversary on Feb. 14th. They held open house on Saturday when many relatives, neighbours and old friends dropped in to share the happy occasion with them. A sister of Mrs. McLean and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Hewick of Hamilton were married the same day, 50 years ago, so it was a double celebration. They visited over the week end with the McLeans and on Sunday they all enjoyed a dinner and family gathering.

Winners at the last euchre in the hall were Mrs. R.L. Davidson, Mrs. Ruth Burt and Mrs. Keith Webb. Measrs. Bert Price, Edward Snow and Keith Webb.

send boxes of fruit on Valentine's Day to the elderly folk. Centennial spoons will be sold by the members. Hymn "Fairer Lord Jesus" was sung and closing prayer by the president, Mrs. Una Wheeler. Mrs. Everson served lunch, assisted by Carolyn.

We congratulate Marty Wheeler on receiving first class honours in his Grade 4 piano at Geolph last week with Royal Conservatory of Music exams. Mrs. Margaret Dowdney is his teacher. He plans entering the Kewanis Festival on Feb. 21st with his trombone.

Get well wishes are sent to some of our senior citizens in Georgetown and District Hospital. Mrs. S. Klingbeil.

Congratulations to Barbara Hills who graduated recently from the Kitchener - Waterloo School of Radiology.

Congratulations to the congregation of the Christian Reformed Church on the opening of their new sanctuary on the seventh line. A good number of this congregation live here in the village and surrounding area.

Mrs. M. McMahon of Montreal was a week-end visitor with Mrs. W. Klassen and family.

The ball club held a euchre party last Wednesday night in the town hall. Winners were:

First ladies, Mrs. Hazel Preston; 2nd prize, Mrs. Tony Zilio; Low prize, Mrs. Newhouse; 1st Man's, Mrs. C. Slodart (playing as a man); 2nd Man's, Joe Shear, George Sheppard; Mrs. Max Stafford won the prize, a cake. They plan another euchre party on Feb. 15th.

We extend sincere sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Smedes in the death of their son Abel in an automobile accident last Saturday night on Hwy. 7 north of Georgetown. The Smedes family recently moved into the Kazimer house in the lower end of the Glen.

Mrs. Mitchell Hostess World Day of Prayer

The WMS met at the home of Mrs. Mitchell on Thursday evening, with the World Day of Prayer program, prepared by the late Queen Salote of the Tonga Islands, shortly before her death. Mrs. Bert Benton gave a talk entitled "Promises of God." Text word answered in a verse of Scripture was "Afflict." Plans were discussed for the Easter Thankoffering meeting. The hostesses served refreshments after the meeting.

CONGRATULATIONS TO MR. AND MRS. RAY WILES ON THE ARRIVAL OF A LITTLE DAUGHTER A COUPLE OF WEEKS AGO.

We extend sympathy to the Rose family in the passing of his father at Bala, on Feb. 8th. The funeral was at Brampton on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Norton and Messrs. John and Edward Findlay were guests at the Fletcher-Scott wedding in Brampton on Saturday.

Mrs. Arsenault visited her very ill mother at Windsor recently.

Churches Combine For World Prayer Service

The Women's World Day of prayer was held for the local churches on Friday, at St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Hornby. The Key Lady for the service was Mrs. Thomas Alderson of Bethel United Church. Mrs. John Bradley of St. Stephen's delivered the message taken from the theme "And of His Kingdom there Shall Be No End." Other ladies taking part were Mrs. Roy Break of Eden, Mrs. Edgar Oliphant of St. Stephen's, Mrs. Thomas Bousfield of Hornby United, and Mrs. Ruddle of Ashgrove United Church. The offering was taken up by Mrs. Jim Maxwell, and Mrs. Gordon Miller. The secretary's report was given by Mrs. Joe Wickson of Ashgrove. The theme was prepared by Queen Salote of Tonga before she died in 1965. She was a very active Methodist.

The North Traralgar Euchre Club held their weekly party on Saturday night. There were eight tables of euchre in play with prizes going to the following winners, Mrs. James Cunningham, Mrs. Fred Workman, Augusta Stickland, Ralph Featherston, Terry Jackson and Clifford Norton. Host and Hostess for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hamilton.

Leonard Buckler, was recently appointed as a representative of the Credit Valley Conservation Authority. He will replace Mr. Hardy, who resigned due to ill health.
