EARL NEIL HEADS MIDGET TOURNEY

EARL NEIL, CHAIRMAN OF THE CENTENNIAL Midget Hockey Tournament committee, introduces Georgetown Midget captain Dwayne Hay to Newmarket Legion team captain Bob Kane during opening ceremonies prior to their Friday night meeting. The tournament, a special Centennial Year project of the Georgetown Minor Hockey Support Group ran Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

CURLING CHATTER

from North Halton Golf and Country Club
by 'Bob' MacArthur

Big attraction at the curling club this past week was the District nine playdowns of the Colts. The elimination games were on Monday with the final on Thursday night. Twelve ends were played in each game. In the first draw Georgetown won over Bolton; Sherwood Park over Oakville and Newmarket over Orangeville.

In the second game Sherwood Park over Newmarket; Georgetown over Dixie; Brampton over Richmond Hill and Metro Board of Trade over Milton.

Third games resulted in Brampton over Metro Board of Trade and Georgetown over Sherwood Park.

The final game was played on Thursday with the Brampton team winning over the Georgetown team. Members of the Brampton rink who will continue on the playdown trial are Roy Taylor, Harry Graham, Ted Newton and Bob Armstrong. The Georgetown team members were Harry Sanderson, Lee Symmes, Tony Hull and Paul Skinner.

The Saturday bonspiel this past week end was for the Langdon Trophy. It is a couple of ends and the winning team was skipped by Harry Sanderson.

Other members of the team were Mabel Sanderson and Pearce and Norma Porter. They were the two game winners of the 11:30 draw and had a total of 21 points.

Other winners in the late draw were Don and Edna Murray and John and Joan Todd. They had 20 points in two games. One game winners were Bill and Verna Schenk and Dave and Camillo Morgan.

In the early draw the team of Graham and Irene, Farnell and Ed and Audrey Maki were top team with 20 points. Other two game winners with 20 points were Bus and Doris Binkley and Bud and Phyl Monckton. The one game winner was the team of Harvey and Jean Chapel and Bill and Jennie Mackenzie.

President John Mintern made the presentation of the cup to the winning team. After the presentations, the curlers and friends gathered around the piano for a little get-together.

Bob Burns, Ken Robertson, Jack Muckart and B. Gougoun took in the Rotary bonspiel at Whitby last week and came home one game winners.

Also travelling recently were the team of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Farnell and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Evans. They played in a mixed bonspiel at Collingwood recently.

Milton curlers were at the club last Monday for a series of games and a social time.

Next Saturday the business girls take over the rink for their annual bonspiel.

When interclub visits are planned, would it not be more satisfying to post the fact on the bulletin board. That would give the rank and file curlers a chance to post his name that he was willing to take part in the inter-club curling. As it is, only a few know of the event and so a frantic scramble ensues to get enough curlers to fill the teams at the last minute.

Here is the standing of the Industrial league including last Sunday:

Ken Nash	45	54
Ab Williams	40	19
B. Varcy	30	32
Varian	20	16
Plax	20	12
Smith & Stone	15	11
Jaycees	15	7
E. Burt	10	17

LADIES' DART LEAGUE

Originals 92; Goldhams 75; Delrex 74; Lemons 70; Imperials 69; Joes 62; Terra Cotta 62; Shopprie 51. High scores: J. Markham, J. Calder, 180.

PeeWees Bow Out, Lose Two Games to Bramalea

Georgetown Pee Wees will be playing exhibition games wherever and whenever they can from now until the annual Easter Week Goderich tournament. The local Pee-Wees came to the end of the playoff road here Tuesday night when Bramalea beat them 2-1 to sweep their best of three Tri-County set in the minimum number of games.

Bramalea had beaten Georgetown C&V Pee Wees 3-0 in the opening test the previous Saturday, despite fine netminding by Brian Laird.

Georgetown fell behind in the first period when Gordie Lyons scored a power play goal. The teams entered the third period with that marker still the only goal of the game, but Craig Fleming tied it from Dennis Norton in the early going. Gordie Lyons counted his second goal of the game, the winner, at about the 11-minute mark.

Luckless Juveniles Out Of Playoffs in 3 Games

The injury-ridden Georgetown Juveniles have limped right out of the playoffs.

The local Jukes played well enough Thursday night in the third game of their series with Chinguacousy — but not well enough to win. Chinguacousy took the contest 4-2 and the series 3 games to nil.

Dave Subject scored both goals for the losers. Georgetown bowed 5-3 and 8-3 in the first two games of the best of 5 set.

Georgetown Juveniles ousted Preston in back to back games to get a shot at Chinguacousy.

Butterworth MVP PeeWee Tri-County

Brad Butterworth broke the jinx that has frustrated Georgetown Pee Wees since the founding of the Tri-County Hockey Association. He has won the Most Valuable Player award.

Though many outstanding Georgetown hockey players distinguished themselves while passing through the Pee Wee ranks this was the first time that one has been dubbed best in the league.

Butterworth drew 13 of a possible 18 votes.

TRI-COUNTY CURLING

North Halton curlers split their game with Milton, but lost on total points in Tri-County Curling action at Brampton, Sunday.

D. Rowley of Milton beat W. Schenk of North Halton 11 to 5 and J. Crichton of North Halton beat B. Wheeler of Milton 9-5. Milton took the match on a 16 to 14 total.

It was North Halton's fifth loss in seven matches.

In other games played the same day, J. Grigg of Orangeville tied with R. Walter of Brampton, 8 to 8, and B. Montgomery of Orangeville beat A. Law of Brampton 10 to 8 to give Orangeville the match 18 to 16.

The games will shift to Orangeville this Sunday commencing at 9:30 a.m.

Standing	W	L	T	Pts.
Brampton	4	2	1	9
Orangeville	4	2	1	9
Milton	3	4	0	6
North Halton	2	5	0	4

Third Win Aurora Pushing Milton Out

Aurora Tigers moved to within one bite of consuming the Milton Merchants Sunday in their best of 7 Suburban Junior C semi-final. But the Tigers are looking on their Milton repeat as a mere appetizer with Georgetown Raiders the anticipated main course.

Tigers ran up an 8-2 score on the Mills, their most decisive so far, for their third win against one victory by Milton.

Roy Pugh scored three goals for Aurora John Gould, Dave Coly, each had two and Lenny Bray one.

Joe Hore and Brian Bond scored one each for the bruised county seat.

Aurora Seems Likely as Raider Playoff Contender

Milton Merchants haven't got a tiger in their tank but they've got a whole team of the beasts in the driver's seat in their best of seven Suburban Junior C semi-final series.

The Bengals are of the Aurora variety and they occupy that comfortable position after a 6-4 victory over the Merchants Friday night in the third game of their playoff series.

The league's scoring champion John Gould, banged in Roy Pugh's rebound with just 66 seconds left to play to insure the victory for the visitors. Gould and Gary Carleton each scored twice for Aurora, Pugh and Len Bray scored singles.

Jim Cole, Jim Keane, Craig Brush and Doug Hearn scored for Milton.

Milton has withdrawn a protest they lodged after dropping the first game of the series, when they learned they had misinterpreted the OHA rules.
