

147 Skaters in Colourful Finale Skating Carnival

Tigers wait to make their entrance in The Nursery scene.

Mary, Michael, Mr. Banks, Jane and Bert played by Colleen Few, Sharon Hewitt, Isobel Lieder, Linda Mooney and Debbie Lounds.

Lambs and Squirrels chatter as their time nears.

Chimney Sweeps (above) joined Bert, Jane and Michael in a Sweeping Number.

Cathy Clark was presented with the Tiny Tot trophy by club pro Mary Jane Robinson, Janice Michalski, with the Executive Trophy by last year's winner Carol Stockfish, and Debbie Lounds with the Centennial Trophy by Mary Jane Robinson.

The Tiny Tot award was donated by Georgetown Cycle and Sports and the Executive Trophy by the executive for "most improved" skaters in the tiny tot and junior groups, and the Centennial trophy was donated by Wigo TV to be presented to the most outstanding intermediate skater.

During the break there were also presentations to the guest skaters Judy Williams, Nancy and Steven Dover, and Ron Shaver by the club members: Sandra Fendley, Kim Golden, Glenn Malott and Werner Kraus respectively. Flowers were also presented to Mrs. E. Pries of the arena's canteen staff by Debbie Jarvie.

Nancy and Steve Dover of the Hamilton-Stoney Creek Club, are Western Ontario's 1967 Senior Pairs Champion.

Georgetown club skaters Colleen Few and Kathy Malott joined Ron Shaver and Steve Dover in a dance exhibition, during a series of dances involving Debbie Lounds and Leanne Lewis in one number, Pamela Little, Colleen Malison, Carol Stockfish, Mary Ellen Moffat, Susan Lee and Werner Kraus in a waltz.

Groups of sixteen skaters demonstrated the Dutch Waltz and Canasta Tango in the opening of the second act, and later presented a Salute to Canada's Centennial Year. A colourful number, Ballet Moderne led into the Grand Finale.

The show was directed by club pros Mary Jane Robinson and Lynda Wickham, and convened by Paul Barber. George Storey and Bob Hall collaborated on the scenery and ice decoration. Lighting was by Bob Heaton, Kathy Malott was the costume convener, spotlights were operated by Tom Pettigill and John Barber. Mrs. Lounds had charge of publicity and programs, Chris Golden, and Lola Edgar was the ice committee, Mary Rosalter and Lou Pankenin handle ticket sales and Ilean Hancock was the door prizes convener.

Wants Maple Sidewalk Extended to Charles

Continuation of a sidewalk on Maple Avenue from Main St. to Charles St. has been asked by the Roman Catholic separate school board.

In a letter to council the board said this would become even more necessary for school children when a projected change is made at the Main-Maple corner.

Council recently decided to make Maple a through street, rather than Main St. as at present.
