Florida Honeymoon After Wedding in St. George's

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT HARRIS

The Rev. E. C. Mills officiated at the ceremony in St. George's Anglican Church on Saturday, March 4th at 7 p.m., when Katharine Louise Brisbois and Robert Frederick Harris were united in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Brisbois, 31 McIntyre Cresc., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R.E. Harris, RR 2, Georgetown.

The church was decorated in white, with baskets of snapdragons, shastas and commercial chrysanthemums. The vases on the altar were filled with carnations flanked by tall candelabra with white candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length gown of white bonded crepe with a full length white lace coat. Her headpiece was white carnations and lace, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white calla lillies and heart-leaf philodendron. The maid of honour was the bride's sister, Miss Lesley Brisbois, who wore an "A" line ensemble of white net embroidered with pink centred daisies and a large pink bow at the back. Her bouquet was a nosegay of deep pink carnations white sweetheart roses and leather fern, and she wore a matching tiara of carnations and gypsophilia in her hair. The groomsman was David McNally of 22 Market Street.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the bride's home where the bridal table was centred with the wedding cake flanked with pink carnations, white roses and pink candles. Pink snapdragons and white carnations decorated the mantel with crystal candelabra on either side. The bride's mother, wearing navy and white lace with navy accessories and a pink orchid corsage, received for the bride, assisted by the groom's mother who wore navy, with navy and chartreuse accessories and a chartreuse orchid corsage.

Honoured guests present were the bride's grandfather and grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. L. Vinnels of Islington, as well as her great-grandmother Mrs. C. Vinnels, and great aunt, Miss Margaret Berrie, both from Toronto. Other guests were present from Toronto, Markham, Little Britain and Georgetown.

The bride and groom left Malton early Sunday morning for a trip to Tampa and Fort Lauderdale, Florida, the bride wearing navy with green cymbidium orchids for her corsage.

The groom is an employee of Air Canada and the flowers for the wedding were designed and arranged in his parents' flower shop on Main St. North.

The couple will be residing at 199 Guelph St., Georgetown.

Prior to the wedding, Mrs. George Greig and Mrs. Clare Little entertained at a miscellaneous shower at the former's home on McIntyre Crescent.

Robert Lane, 71 Was Retired Orenda Employee

A native of Manitoulin Island and resident of town since 1934 Robert Henry Lane, 71, died in Georgetown hospital on March 5.

Mr. Lane, who was the son of George Lane and Mary Hindle, spent his childhood in Dundalk where he attended Boothville public school, and lived there until he moved to Georgetown. He was employed with Provincial Paper, Ltd. and later with Orenda Engines, Malton, retiring in 1965.

He was a member of St. John's United Church, an ardent fisherman and hockey fan. His grandsons, Terry and Ron are members of the Junior Raiders and Mr. Lane had followed the season with interest.

He leaves his wife, Nellie Ferguson, a son Gordon of Georgetown and daughters, Mrs. Bern Knight (Mary) of Waterloo, Mrs. Matt McDonough (Marjorie) of Acton and Mrs. Jack Hamilton (Dorothy) of Georgetown; 14 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

He also leaves brothers and sisters Wesley and Mrs. Bertha McCannell of Georgetown, Andrew of Watford, William, Toronto, Melvin, Markdale and Mrs. Jack Hooper, Varney. He was predeceased by a sister Vina and brothers John of Holstein and Russell of Dromore.

The funeral service was held last Wednesday at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home. Rev. Kelvin Johnston of St. Andrew's United Church conducted the service and six grandsons were pallbearers, Paul and Dale Knight, Waterloo, Stewart Robertson, Acton, Bill Moore, Terry and Ron Lane, Georgetown. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery.

Return to Grade 5 For Spelling Test

The UCW meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Wilfrid Bird on Tuesday afternoon, March 7th with the president, Mrs. John McNabb opening with Hymn 298 and prayer.

Roll Call was answered by naming a Canadian missionary. Devotional by Mrs. Charles Austin on 'Our Call to Discipleship and Missions' with Scripture readings by Mrs. Ward Brownridge and Mrs. Claude Picket. During the correspondence it was voted as a Centennial project that the UCW adopt a child under the Foster Parent Plan, Mrs. Clayton Wilson had the Study Chapter on the Church & Christian Education which dwelt mostly with the Eastern section. An interesting Questionnaire on the Education problems of today was well discussed by the group then followed a humorous Spelling Match from a Grade V spelling book with Mrs. Wilson giving out the words, it was lots of fun testing our spelling abilities. Mrs. Tom Brownridge thanked the hostess and all taking part and meeting closed with the Benediction.

St. Patrick was a gentleman,
So very smart and clever,
He gave the snakes and toads a twist,
And banished them forever.

The last of the Beothuks, aborigenes of Newfoundland, died in captivity at St. John's, Newfoundland in 1829. The entire nation was wiped out during the 16th, 17th and 18th century by European fishermen who shot them like animals at every opportunity.
