Would Have Feb. 15 Flag Day Holiday

Those who feel the need of a holiday between New Year's and Easter may be getting it if Queen's Park lends an ear to a proposal of the Ancaster town council.

They would designate the closest Monday to February 15 as Flag Day, to commemorate the dedication day for Canada's national flag. They also suggest that it be a day to concentrate on winter sports.

Asking for support in a letter to Georgetown council Monday, the locals made no comment when it was read in correspondence.

The Sharon Temple near Holland Landing was built in 1825 by the "Children of Peace" a Nicholas Guild thanked the lad-breakaway group from the Quakers. They broke from the Quakers because they liked music with their services.

Norval Antique Display At School Open House

During Education Week, Norval Public School held Open House on Wednesday evening, March 8th

The pupils' work was on display in the three rooms with a special display on the Plains Indians in the entrance lobby.

For the Centennial year they also had a very interesting display of antiques set up in the hall. These were brought by the pupils and visitors enjoyed this exhibit.

Mrs. Bruce Nixon and Mrs. Joe Schertz served coffee and cookies in the hall.

Dr. C. A. Thompson was present representing the Equestrian School Board. Principal Mr. Jack Reed was pleased with a new television set which had arrived in time for pupils to view the funeral of Governor General Vanier. A new teacher's wash room has also been installed and a green awning across the windows at the front of the school to cut down on the glare.

Mr. Reed teaches grades 5 and 6, Miss Robertson teaches grades 3 and 4 and Mrs. McLean teaches grades 1 and 2. Parents visited the teachers in their rooms and the teachers explained the work the pupils were doing.

A movie named "Joey" on adoption, was much enjoyed by Unit Two of Norval United Church U.C.W. at their regular monthly meeting held at the home of Mrs. Gordon Laidlaw on Thursday evening, March 9th.

Mrs. Peter Pomeroy presided. The roll call was answered by "where were you born" and a favourite verse, with 21 present.

The devotional was given by Mrs. Roy Laidlaw and Mrs. Lloyd Laidlaw. Gordon Laidlaw assisted in showing the movie which was followed by lunch served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. J. Thurbek and Mrs. Peter Pomeroy.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Craig McClure and the family on the death of Craig McClure in Peel Memorial Hospital Brampton, on Saturday, March 11th. Mr. McClure was a well known farmer in the district having farmed on the corner of No. 7 Highway and the 4th Line. He was an Elder of the Norval Presbyterian Church. The funeral was held in the church on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence May have returned home from an enjoyable 3 weeks trip to Hawaii.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob May enjoyed a trip to the Bahamas in February.

On Wednesday March 8th in St. Paul's Parish Hall, Norval, The St. Nicholas Guild entertained the Daughters of St. George's, Georgetown and the Ladies Guild of St. Alban's Glen Williams. All were welcomed by Mrs. Hazel Gorin. The guest speaker was Mrs. Ridley, wife of Rev. R. Walter Ridley of the United Church, Norval, who spoke on her ten year stay in Japan in mission work. Mrs. Ridley showed many coloured slides of the scenery and Japanese way of life.

Mrs. Betty Phillips of the St. Nicholas Guild thanked the ladies for coming and presented a gift to Mrs. Ridley with special thanks for a most delightful evening.

One SRO Night When 'Fancy' Plays City

An overflowing house Friday night, an almost full house Saturday night, and half-full Wednesday and Thursday nights was the not unimpressive record chalked up by the Georgetown Little Theatre in their attempt at wooing Toronto audiences.

Attendance at Friday night's presentation of "A Little of What You Fancy" at the Poor Alex, was helped along by Gordon Sinclair on his Friday noon broadcast, when he gave it quite a boost, after he saw it Thursday night.

Friday night the cast received four curtain calls, and the author Catherine Wibrham, who was in the audience, was also called upon.

Also in the audience were two old friends of the Little Theatre, Mr. and Mrs. Len Lambert, ex-principal of the high school and his wife.

Thursday night's audience was treated to a realistic fight scene, between Ron Hill and Des Nichols. Des hit Ron on the mouth, and accidentally cut his lip, which added to the scene by bleeding profusely.

While they were not anticipating a great financial success, the Little Theatre undoubtedly scored an artistic success in their first venture into the big city.

Filipinos Will Have A Centennial Ball

Filipinos living in Georgetown and Brampton plan to hold a Centennial Ball of their own, May 20.

V. Villarreal of Brampton, the organizer, asked Brampton Centennial Committee last week for suggestions for making the ball an historical event.

All members of the committee were delighted at the idea and fully supported the Filipinos effort to contribute to the centennial celebrations.

The Filipinos will appear in native costume at the ball. About 30 live in the area.

Toronto is the only city in Canada whose public transit system is still operating street cars.
